Jesus

Please take note that the bulletin for this weekend is for two weeks: December 24, 2022, through Friday, January 6, 2023.

The staff of Holy Name of Jesus joins me in wishing you a very Merry Christmas and a blessed and Happy New Year. We also thank you for your Christmas wishes and greetings. As this year comes to a close a week after Christmas, I take this opportunity to say Thank You to all parishioners and our staff for all you do and have done for our parish in 2022. I hope your Advent journey was a positive one helping you to be prepared to welcome the Christ Child on Christmas Day.

The past year(s) have been difficult ones for us. Covid is still around with all its variants along with the flu and winter colds. As we begin a new year, lets encourage and help one another to get back on track. Among the resolutions we make for 2023, please include one to reach out to parishioners who have yet to return to Church. Let them know that our Church is large enough so that we don't have to "crowd into the pews" and we can also practice safe distancing. Also, let them know they won't be alone if they choose to wear a mask. As we pray for one another, include a prayer for all who have passed from this life to eternal life too.

This weekend and next, there will be two collections. Since Christmas Day and New Year's Day fall on Sundays, one envelope is for the regular Sunday collection, and the other for the Feast of Christmas and the following week for New Year's Day.

I hope you noticed how beautifully the Church is decorated for Christmas. The liturgical environmental committee chaired by Elaine Labrocca with the help and assistance from fellow dedicated parishioners spend hours preparing and decorating the Church. I hope you also noticed the Advent decorations and the gradual increase in the decorations each week. Please join me in thanking the committee for their dedicated ministry to enhance our Christmas and other seasonal celebrations.

Thank you to all who made donations to the Annual Christmas Flower Collection. There is a listing in this bulletin of the names enrolled in the Christmas Flower Novena of Masses.

Bishop Barres invites all parishioners to a Mass of Farewell for Bishop Henning on Sunday, January 8, 2023, at 11: 00 AM at St. Agnes Cathedral. The Mass can also be viewed on Catholic Faith Network (CFN). You may recall the recent announcement that Bishop Henning was appointed coadjutor bishop to Providence, RI. As coadjutor bishop, he will become the Ordinary or Bishop of Providence when Pope Francis accepts the petition for retirement from the current Bishop (Bishop Tobin) when he reaches his 75th birthday.

There will be a Holy Hour for Vocations with Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, live music, confessions, dodgeball and food on Friday, January 6, 2023, at 7:30 PM at the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception. Father Ed Sheridan will be the guest preacher.

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday December 25th, 2022
Birth of our Lord

Focus: For the grace of a holy Christmas and for the times we have forgotten to honor Jesus as the reason for the season, we ask forgiveness. In the first reading, a prophet announces the birth of a child who will bring light and peace to the world. In the second reading, Paul thanks God for sending Jesus into the world to teach us the way to salvation. In the Gospel, the birth o f Jesus is described as normal and ordinary with the major exception that everything about this newborn child is extraordinary because he is, in fact, the long-awaited Messiah, the Lord.

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday January 1, 2023
Mary, Mother of God

Focus: We are to be a light to the world in the midst of darkness, to bring the peace of Christ to all. For the times we have ignored the needs of others, choosing instead to remain in darkness, we ask God's forgiveness and mercy. In the first reading, God blesses the tribes of Israel as they begin the journey to the promised land. In the second reading, Paul reminds us that by the power of the Spirit we have become children of God. In the Gospel, the angels make haste to inform Mary and Joseph about the good news and identity of their newborn child, and Mary keeps all this in her heart for further reflection.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

Christmas 2022

To the People of God of the Diocese of Rockville Centre:

Merry Christmas to you and your families!

In union with our Holy Father Pope Francis, and in a non-judgmental spirit of mercy, humility and charity, I invite everyone who will be present at our Christmas Masses, or watching our Christmas Masses via the Catholic Faith Network or CBS, or not present at all: If your life has been far from the Catholic Mass and the Eucharist, I invite you with Pope Francis to return.

I invite you to experience the power and liberation of Christ's mercy and forgiveness in the Sacrament of Penance and to cross the bridge into the full practice of your Catholic Faith through a radical fidelity to the Sunday Mass and an ever-deepening love for the Holy Eucharist.

Perhaps you are not a Catholic and yet have some mysterious attraction to the Catholic Mass and the Eucharist.

You are not alone! Many saints – I think of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, the pioneering American Catholic educator and convert – had the same experience and were drawn to enter the Church through their intuitive experience of the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist in our parish churches! Be open to the Eucharistic movement of the Holy Spirit in your life!

Our celebration of Christmas 2022 occurs this year as every Catholic diocese, every Catholic parish, every Catholic hospital, university, and institution in the United States is engaged in an evangelizing Eucharistic Revival.

What do we mean by the phrase "Eucharistic Revival" and why is it so important for our celebration of Christmas?

What does a love for the Eucharist and an openness to being a 21st Century Eucharistic missionary have to do with our celebration of Christmas 2022?

Pope Francis points out the relationship between the Birth of Christ and the Holy Eucharist and the Mass. The very word Bethlehem means "house of Bread."

Pope Francis states: "Bethlehem is the turning point that alters the course of history. There God, in the house of bread, is born in a manger. It is as if he wanted to say: 'Here I am, as your food.' He does not take, but gives us to eat; he does not give us a mere thing, but his very self. In Bethlehem, we discover that God does not take life, but gives it. To us, who from birth are used to taking and eating, Jesus begins to say: 'Take and eat. This is my body.' (Matthew 26:26) The tiny body of the Child of Bethlehem speaks to us of a new way to live our lives: not by devouring and hoarding, but by sharing and giving. God makes himself small so that he can be our food. By feeding on him, the bread of life, we can be reborn in love, and break the spiral of grasping and greed. From the 'house of bread,' Jesus brings us back home, so that we can become God's family, brothers and sisters to our neighbors. Standing before the manger, we understand that the food of life is not material riches but love, not gluttony but charity, not ostentation but simplicity. The Lord knows that we need to be fed daily. That is why he offered himself to us every day of his life: from the manger in Bethlehem to the Upper Room in Jerusalem. Today too, on the altar, he becomes bread broken for us; he knocks at our door, to enter and eat with us (cf. Revelation 3:20). At Christmas, we on earth receive Jesus, the bread from heaven. It is a bread that never grows stale, but enables us even now to have a foretaste of eternal life."[1]

Eucharistic Revival, in the words of Pope St. John Paul II, is a rediscovery of "Eucharistic Amazement" and Eucharistic Devotion.

Eucharistic Revival means that we understand deeply that every Mass has a cosmic significance, and every Mass is celebrated on the Altar of the world – the Altar of Ukraine and every war torn and injustice-ridden area of our world.

Eucharistic Revival is an effective catechesis of the theology and spirituality of the Catholic Mass that moves the hearts, minds, souls and imaginations of the People of God.

Eucharistic Revival in our Catholic schools means the cultivation of a radical fidelity to the Sunday Catholic Mass on the part of our teachers, our staff and our families.

Eucharistic Revival is a rekindling of Pope Benedict XVI's insight that every period of Church reform and effective Catholic evangelization and mission throughout history can be traced to a rediscovery of the Real Presence of Jesus Christ, Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity in the Holy Eucharist.[2]

As we celebrate the birth of Christ and his rebirth in our hearts and families at Christmas, we pray for a renewal of our faith in Christ's Eucharistic presence.

We pray that each of us could be Divine Mercy instruments of bringing many, many people back to a full fidelity to the Eucharist and the Catholic Mass.

As we celebrate Christmas, we are being called to be intentional, compassionate, understanding and listening Eucharistic missionaries.

Merry Christmas to you and your families! May the love of the Christ child and the love of the Holy Family light your remaining steps on earth and light your path to Heaven and Eternal Life.

Sincerely in Christ,

+ John O. Barres
