This weekend, we celebrate the 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time on the liturgical calendar. The Christmas Season came to a close this year on Monday, January 9 with the celebration of the baptism of the Lord. As we enter Ordinary time and listen to St. John's Gospel, we hear John the Baptist telling his followers that he One who was to come is here. Follow him.

Please mark your calendars and plan to attend The Annual Family Mass and Reception hosted by the Joseph Mario Reali Knights of Columbus Council at HNJ on Saturday, January 28. Fr. Matt Browne will be the celebrant and homilist at this Mass. Please see the invitation printed elsewhere in this bulletin for more information and reservations. PLEASE TAKE NOTE and MARK YOUR CALENDARS FOR SATURDAY MARCH 11. I'm very happy to tell you that Bishop Andrzej will visit our parish and offer an afternoon of spiritual reflection to help us on our Lenten journey. There will be one or two presentations by Bishop Andrzej and the afternoon of reflection will conclude with the Bishop celebrating the 5:15 PM Mass. More information will follow as we get closer to the date.

The Diocesan Office of Human Life, Family and Bioethics invites you to pray the Rosary for Life via (Zoom) every Friday at 3:00 PM. To enter, use the link: www.drvclife.org or email Donna Crean at dcrean@drvc.org.

Is the Lord calling you to serve as a Deacon in the Diocese of Rockville Centre? Come to a meeting to listen, pray, reflect, and discern if God is calling you. There is a meeting on Thursday, January 19 at 7:00 PM at St. Aidan's, Williston Park.

Retrouvaille is a practical program for married couples facing or experiencing difficult challenges. It is not a marriage retreat nor is it marriage counselling. You will not be asked to share the personal details of your story. While Catholic in origin, Retrouvaille is open to couples of all faiths or couples with no faith. The next program is scheduled for January 27, 2023. To register and/or for more information, please call 1-800–470–2230 or visit https://www.helpourmarriage help or email info@helpourmarriage.org. You can also contact the Long island/New York Business Office by calling 516-920-9337 or by email longisland@helpourmarriage.org.

Monday, January 16 is Martin Luther King, Jr. Day and it is a holiday. The Rectory Office is closed for the holiday.

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday January 15th, 2023
2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Focus: The Lord forms us from the womb to be a light to the nations, making Christ known in our ordinary lives. For the times we have failed to hear or heed that call, we seek his grace, mercy and peace. In the first reading, a prophet introduces us to an ideal servant of God who brings light to the nations. In the second reading, Paul greets people of faith, called to holiness in the name of the Lord. In the Gospel, John the Baptist reveals Jesus as the lamb of God and testifies that he is the Son of God.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

January 16, 2023

Dear Friends in Christ:

Each year, our nation celebrates National Religious Freedom Day on January 16th. In 1992, Congress authorized the President to request to issue a proclamation calling on the people of the United States to join together to celebrate their religious freedom and to observe the day with appropriate ceremonies and activities. Since 1993, each President of the United States has proclaimed January 16th to be National Religious Freedom Day.

January 16th has been designated National Religious Freedom Day because it marks the anniversary of the passage of Thomas Jefferson's Virginia Statute for Religious Freedom by the Virginia General Assembly on January 16, 1786. This statute was a precursor to the First Amendment of the United States Constitution which, as we know, enshrines the freedom of religion as a right which is guaranteed by the Bill of Rights. In his statute, Jefferson states that "all men shall be free to profess … their opinion in matters of religion, and that the same shall in no wise diminish, enlarge, or affect their civil capacities."[1] He concludes that any attempt to repeal or limit this statute "would be an infringement of natural right."[2]

Dignitatis humanae, the Second Vatican Council's 1965 Declaration on Religious Liberty, echoes Jefferson's sentiments and states that "the right to religious freedom has its foundation not in the subjective attitude of the individual but in his very nature."[3] Elsewhere, the Declaration notes that "it is wrong for a public authority to compel its citizens by force or fear or any other means to profess or repudiate any religion."[4] The similarity between the sentiments of Jefferson and Dignitatis humanae should not surprise us when we realize that American bishops and churchmen, including Father John Courtney Murray, were instrumental in incorporating the American experience of church-state relations into the declaration on religious liberty.[5]

Despite the time-honored assertion of religious freedom as a right guaranteed to all Americans, we have seen in recent years numerous attempts to curb or narrow the scope of religious liberty and freedom of conscience. The current Federal Administration's advocacy of a so-called "Super Rule," which is now awaiting final promulgation, threatens to egregiously and unjustly force Catholic medical institutions to be involved in procedures which are contrary to Church teaching and natural law. These would include abortion, sterilizations, in vitro fertilization, and transgender surgeries, even on minors. As diocesan bishop, it is my obligation to uphold and protect Catholic moral teaching, and our Catholic institutions will not participate in anything that forces healthcare workers to violate their consciences or the dignity of the human person.

The recent passage of the Respect for Marriage Act marks another threat to religious liberty. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) has rightly called the Act "misnamed."[6] A statement released by the USCCB, notes that the Act's "rejection of timeless truths about marriage is evident on its face and in its purpose."[7] As the largest non-governmental provider of social services in the United States, the Church has a vested interest in ensuring the protection of religious liberty. The supposed protections for religious liberty in the Act are insufficient, and the USCCB statement concludes that if it is passed, "the amended Act will put the ministries of the Catholic Church, people of faith, and other Americans who uphold a traditional meaning of marriage at greater risk of government discrimination."[8]

This year, January 16 also marks the date when our country honors the memory of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Dr. King once stated that "the church must be reminded once again that it is not to be the master or the servant of the state, but the conscience of the state. It must be the guide and the critic of the state – never its tool."[9] As we celebrate National Religious Freedom Day this January 16th, let us pray for the preservation and protection of this God-given right:

Bless us, O heavenly Father, in our vigilance for the gift of religious liberty.
Give us the strength of mind and heart
to readily defend our freedoms when they are threatened;
give us courage in making our voices heard on behalf of the rights of your Church and the freedom of conscience of all people of faith.
Amen.[10]

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ John O. Barres

Noah's Ark

Everything I need to know, I learned from Noah's Ark.

Don't miss the boat.
Remember that we are all in the same boat.
Plan ahead. It wasn't raining when Noah built the Ark.
Stay fit. When you're 60 years old, someone may ask you to do something really big.
Don't listen to critics; just get on the with job that needs to be done.
Build your future on high ground.
For safety's sake, travel in pairs.
Speed isn't always an advantage. The snails were on board with the cheetahs.
When you're stressed, float awhile.
Remember, the Ark was built by amateurs; the Titanic by professionals.
No matter the storm, when you are with God, there's always a rainbow waiting.
