The second collection this weekend is for the support of the Church in Latin America. The Catholic Conference of Bishops of the United States has supported this special collection for the Church in Latin America as a sign of solidarity and unity with Catholics in Central and South America and the islands of he Caribbean. Your donations support the pastoral ministries of evangelization and catechesis, family ministries, lay minister training, and the education and formation of priests, deacons, and religious brothers and sisters. Your support to this collection is an opportunity to share the faith with our brothers and sisters in Latin America.

The Diocese of Rockville Centre is offering a free seminar (Webinar) on Thursday, January 26 from 1:00 PM to 1:45 PM on TAX STRATEGIES in 2023. Topics to be covered include updates on Gift and Estate Tax exemptions, Tax Saving Strategies with IRA's, 2023 Legacy IRA Act and Tax-Wise Estate Planning strategies. To RSVP, complete the registration link by contacting bkilarjian@drvc.org. If you have any questions or would like to email a question ahead of the presentation, please contact Barbara Kilarjian at 516-678-5800 x 257 or email bkilarjian@drvc.org.

Retrouvaille is a practical program for married couples facing or experiencing difficult challenges. It is not a marriage retreat nor is it marriage counselling. You will not be asked to share the personal details of your story. While Catholic in origin, Retrouvaille is open to couples of all faiths or couples with no faith. The next program is scheduled for January 27, 2023. To register and/or for more information, please call 1-800–470–2230 or visit https://www.helpourmarriage help or email info@helpourmarriage.org. You can also contact the Long island/New York Business Office by calling 516-920-9337 or by email longisland@helpourmarriage.org.

The Diocesan Office of Human Life, Family and Bioethics invites you to pray the Rosary for Life via (Zoom) every Friday at 3:00 PM. To enter, use the link: www.drvclife.org or email Donna Crean at dcrean@drvc.org.

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday January 22nd, 2023
3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Focus: As we gather today, let us call to mind the times we chose works of darkness rather than turn toward Jesus. Let us ask him for his light, peace, and freedom from all sin. In the first reading, a prophet looks forward to a future filled with light and freedom. In the second reading, Paul challenges us to remain united in Christ, who died for us on the cross. In the Gospel, Jesus calls people to repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand, and he invites four fishermen to be his first disciples.

Make one change for God this year

When making New Year's resolutions this year, consider one change that will bring you closer to God. Here are some ideas other Catholics have used to strengthen prayer, serve the poor, and evangelize our faith ...

Laura felt her prayer life growing stale, so when her parish asked for adorers for the perpetual adoration chapel, she jumped at the chance. Now, Mondays at midnight, Laura can be found in the presence of the Eucharist. She said, "I really look forward to my peaceful hour each week. It's just me and Him."

Peter's law practice is incredibly busy, but he takes an afternoon off every month to work at the local soup kitchen serving hot meals to the homeless and working poor. When asked why, he said, "Jesus said, 'When I was hungry, you gave me to eat.'"

JoAnn's children are grown, yet she teaches a religious education class at her parish. "What better way to spread our faith than to children? That's where I can do the most good," she said.

from Scripture — Matthew 5:1-12a, Jesus' blueprint for holiness

This passage contains the Sermon on the Mount during which Jesus detailed the Beatitudes – the attitudes we need to be truly holy, and therefore happy. In fact, "beatitude" is translated from the Greek word for happiness. Jesus was saying, "Happy are you!" or "Congratulations!" if you live by these attitudes.

When Jesus said, "Blessed are the poor in spirit ... Blessed are they who mourn ... the persecuted" He promised that when we turn to God in times of trial, we will be comforted and cared for. When He said, "Blessed are the pure in heart ... those who hunger and thirst for righteousness," He was showing us that a holy heart will receive what it desires. When He described "the meek ... the merciful ... the peacemakers," He gave us a blueprint for how to act.

We can measure our behavior against these standards. When we are faithful to God in tempting moments, and translate holy inner attitudes into outward actions, we'll know we're on the right path to holiness. When we live by the Beatitudes, we'll be truly happy.

Feasts & Celebrations

January 2 – St. Gregory Nazianzen (389). Known as "The Theologian" for his faithfulness and eloquence, St. Gregory was unwillingly made Bishop of Sasima. He worked to clarify the Church's teachings about the Holy Trinity.

January 16 – St. Berard and Companions (1220). St. Francis of Assisi sent St. Berard and his companions to evangelize in the Muslim territories. After being arrested in Morocco, they were martyred after refusing to stop preaching and renounce their Faith.

January 23 – St. Marianne Cope (1918). St. Marianne began religious life as an educator in New York schools, and later became a nurse. In 1883, she helped St. Damien de Veuster serve the leper colonies of Hawaii, continuing his work after his death.

January 25 – Conversion of St. Paul (1st Century). Formally called "Saul", he persecuted the Christians until Jesus appeared to him on the road to Damascus, saying, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting" (Acts 9:5). After that, Saul became Paul and traveled around the known world, preaching the Faith.

Q & A — What qualities can I pursue to make me a better follower of Jesus?

Actually, when you were baptized, made your First Communion, or got Confirmed, the Holy Spirit conferred gifts to help you grow in strength and holiness. Recognizing these gifts and nurturing them will certainly make you a better Christian.

Wisdom: This gift helps us stay focused on God's will and His plan for us.

Understanding: Lets us grasp truths. It means seeing with the heart and the mind.

Counsel: Also called "right judgment," counsel enables us to weigh alternatives to make the right choice.

Fortitude: The ability to remain firm against pressure. (Also called courage.)

Knowledge: A person with knowledge sees more than one dimension of an issue to determine the right path.

Piety: Helps us think of ourselves as children of God and be eager to serve Him.

Fear of the Lord: The wonder and awe God inspires encourages us to respect Him and all his creations.

The more you use these gifts, the more you will grow in faith and holiness. Then you will certainly become a better Christian.

Our Mission

To provide practical ideas that promote faithful Catholic living.

RAIN

Inspirational Christian Story on God's Forgiveness

One rainy afternoon I was driving along one of the main streets of town, taking those extra precautions necessary when the roads are wet and slick. Suddenly, my son, Matthew, spoke up from his relaxed position in his seat. "Mom, I'm thinking of something."

This announcement usually meant he had been pondering some fact for a while, and was now ready to expound all tht his six-year-old mind had discovered. I was eager to hear.

"What are you thinking?" I asked.

"The rain!," he began, "is like sin, and the windshield wipers are like God wiping our sins away."

After the chill bumps raced up my arms I was able to respond. "That's really good, Matthew."

Then my curiosity broke in. How far would this little boy take this revelation? So I asked… "Do you notice how the rain keeps on coming? What does that tell you?"

Matthew didn't hesitate one moment with his answer: "We keep on sinning and God just keeps on forgiving us." I will always remember this whenever I turn my wipers on.

In order to see the rainbow, you must first endure some rain.

We must continually come to the Lord and seeks His forgiveness.
