This weekend we continue to celebrate the Christmas Season with the Feast of the Epiphany when the Magi came from the east to worship Jesus, the newborn King of the Jews. I'm sure you remember that the Christmas season runs from Christmas Day until we celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord.

Since we did not have a printed bulletin last weekend, I wish to take this opportunity to once again thank all who helped to make our Christmas celebrations so special on Christmas Day. Thank you to our parishioners, friends and visitors who came to celebrate Christmas Eve and Day. The Masses were well attended and just about everyone seemed pleased with the beautiful decorations which enhance the beauty of our Church. As always, thanks to all in the various ministries who serve as lectors, altar servers, ministers of Holy Communion, greeters, and ushers. A special thank you to the liturgical environment committee who spent countless hours planning and decorating and caring for the floral decorations throughout the Christmas Season. Also, a special thank you to Tom Stallone for organizing a festive choir comprised of parishioners and friends for the 4:00 PM Mass on Christmas Eve, and additionally for the instrumentalists at the 4:00 PM and 10:15 AM Masses. And as always, a thank you to Deacon Chris for his faithful ministry and inspiriting homilies throughout the year.

The Catholic Church mourns the passing of Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI. As Bishop Barres stated, "…we give thanks to God with Our Holy Father Pope Francis for the leadership of a great theologian and pope whose holiness and missionary spirit impacted the 20th and 21st centuries. As a result, throughout his life as a priest, professor, bishop, cardinal, and pope, he championed the catholic belief in harmony of faith and Reason – a principle that is so critical to the unity of Truth and so vital to Catholic identity, missionary activity, harmonious ecumenical and interreligious charity and peace in the world. … Today, we pray for the soul of this great pope and give thanks for how the Holy Spirit led him and inspired us."

The Diocesan Office of Human Life, family and Bioethics invites you to pray the Rosary for Life (via Zoom) every Friday at 3:00 PM. To enter, use this link: www.drvclife.org and click on the red nabber at the top of the page or email Donna Crean at dcrean@drvc.org.

Is the Lord calling you to serve as a Deacon in the Diocese of Rockville Centre? Come to one of the meetings prepared to listen, pray, reflect, and discern if God is calling you. There are three locations: Tuesday, January 10 at 7:00 PM at St. Joseph, Ronkonkoma; Wednesday, January 11 at 7:00 PM at Maria Regina, Seaford; and Thursday, January 19 at 7:00 PM at St. Aidan, Williston Park.

Retrouvaille is a practical program for married couples facing or experiencing difficult challenges. It is not a marriage retreat nor is it marriage counselling. You will not be asked to share the personal details of your story. While Catholic in origin, Retrouvaille is open to couples of all faiths or couples with no faith. The next program is scheduled for January 27, 2023. To register and/or for more information, please call 1-800–470–2230 or visit https://www.helpourmarriage help or email info@helpourmarriage.org. You can also contact the Long island/New York Business Office by calling 516-920-9337 or by email longisland@helpourmarriage.org.

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday January 8th, 2023
Epiphany of the Lord

Focus: Lord, we often forget that following your plan for us is the only thing that truly matters. We sometimes fail to see our faith and calling to discipleship as a privilege, not a burden. Have mercy on our fickle hearts. In the first reading, a prophet describes the wonderful transformation for a people drawing ever closer to God. In the second reading, Paul speaks about his gift from God to preach the Gospel to the gentiles. In the Gospel, wise men from the East come to pay homage to the newborn King of the Jews while King Herod, the chief priests, and scribes know nothing about this monumental event.

One Minute Meditations

A kinder, gentler you

Kindness is contagious. A recent study found that witnessing an act of kindness produces good feelings and inspires imitation. In the new year, make efforts to be kinder – more friendly, generous, and considerate – and inspire others to do the same.

Choose not to be offended

In the news or on social media, it can appear that there is more polarization around issues now than in the past. Each side wants to persuade the other. Being right is no compensation for broken friendships, however. If there is someone in your life who deliberately pursues you to argue, don't take the bait. Rather than let arguments create a rift, look the other way when feeling slighted. Being kind is more rewarding than being right.

"I have told you this that you might have peace in me. In the world you will have trouble, but take courage, I have conquered the world" (John 16:33).

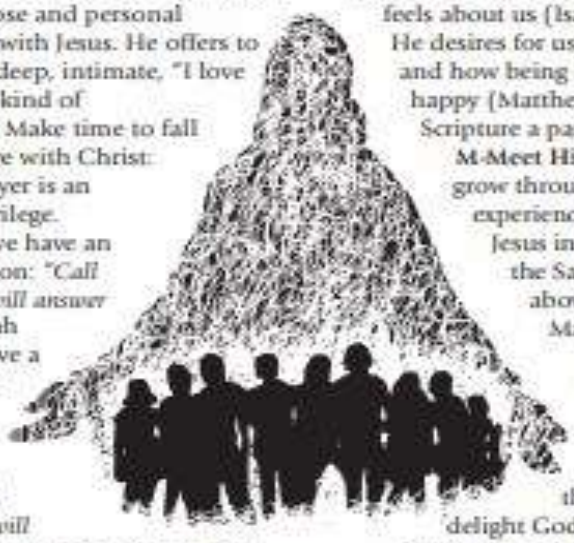
Fall deeper in love with Christ in the New Year

At the center of all we do as Catholics must be a close and personal relationship with Jesus. He offers to each of us a deep, intimate, "I love you forever" kind of relationship. Make time to fall deeper in love with Christ:

T-Talk: Prayer is an amazing privilege. Through it, we have an open invitation: "Call to me, and I will answer you" (Jeremiah 33:3). We have a promise that He hears us: "When you call me, and come and pray to me, I will listen to you" (Jeremiah 29:12). The God of the universe wants to hear from you.



I-Intimacy: To love Christ, we must know Him. In Scripture, God tells us who He is (Exodus 34:6), how He feels about us (Isaiah 43:4), what He desires for us (Luke 12:32), and how being His will make us happy (Matthew 5-7). Make Scripture a part of every day.

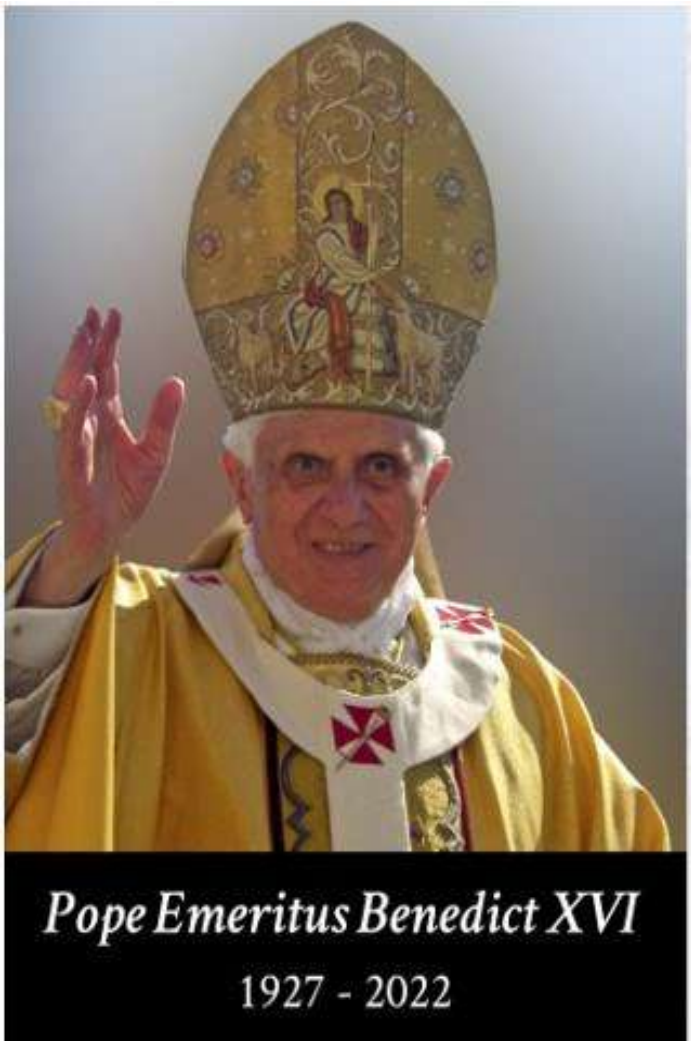
M-Meet Him: Relationships grow through shared experiences. We meet Jesus in prayer, Scripture, the Sacraments, and above all, during the Mass.

E-Everything for love: St. Thérèse of Lisieux discovered that she could delight God by simply picking up a pin out of love. He wants to hear us, His beloveds, say, "I love you, too," in words and actions. Essential to falling in love with God is making time for Him.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics believe things that aren't in the Bible?

Catholics recognize the Bible as the inspired, inerrant Word of God, and we reject beliefs that contradict Scripture. Long before the Gospels were written down, the Apostles passed on to their disciples all that Jesus taught and did. This is what we call, "Tradition," or what was "handed on." Not everything that was handed on could be written down. It was impossible to include everything Jesus did (John 21:25). Catholic beliefs don't depart from Scripture, but delve deeper into it.



Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI

"Human life stands under God's special protection, because each human being, however wretched or exalted he or she may be, however sick or suffering, however good-for-nothing or important, whether born or unborn, whether incurably ill or radiant with health -- each one bears God's breath in himself or herself, each one is God's image."
