As our Lenten journey continues, we realize that next weekend we celebrate Palm Sunday and begin Holy Week. Just a friendly reminder for the remaining weeks of Lent that we continue to follow the Lenten practices of abstinence and fast. Abstinence pertains to all who have reached their fourteenth birthday – we are asked to refrain from eating meat on the remaining Fridays of Lent, including Good Friday. Fast pertains to all from the ages of 14 to 59 inclusive to limit oneself to one full meal and two smaller meals each of the days of Lent.

To help you plan for your celebration of Holy Week in preparation for Easter, the following information might be helpful concerning Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday. Please remember that on these three days, there is NO 9:00 AM MASS. In place of the 9:00AM Morning Mass, we pray Morning Prayer from the Liturgy of the Hours.

Holy Thursday: The Mass of the Lord's Supper is a concelebrated Mass at 8:00 PM with Fr. Damian and the Korean Catholic Apostolate. The Mass includes the washing of the feet following the proclamation of the Gospel and the Homily. After receiving Holy Communion, there is a simple procession with the Blessed Sacrament from the sanctuary to the repository followed by quiet adoration until 10:00 PM.

Good Friday: The Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ is celebrated at 3:00 PM. Individual adoration of Crucifix will be available during the service. The Rite of Communion follows the veneration of the Crucifix. The Good Friday service closes with a prayer by the priest and everyone departs in silence. Stations of the Cross are prayed at 7:30 PM.

Holy Saturday: The Easter Vigil Mass is celebrated at 7:30 PM. The Mass being with the blessing of the new fire and the Paschal (Easter) Candle, the Liturgy of the Word will have several readings, including the proclamation of the Gospel, the blessing of the Easter Water, the renewal of baptismal vows, the offertory and Communion as usual.

Easter Sunday: There will be two Masses celebrated on Easter Sunday Morning: one at 8:30 AM and the other at 10:15 AM. An Easter egg hunt for children will be sponsored by the Holy Name of Jesus Circle of the Daughters of Mary Immaculate.

Please return the Easter Flower Fund envelope as quickly as possible to enroll loved ones in the Easter Mass Novena of Masses at Holy Name of Jesus.

Many thanks to those parishioners who have already sent in a pledge and/or gift to the 2023 Catholic Ministries Appeal. The Appeal helps to support the many ministries which serve more than 600,000 people on Long Island every year.

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday April 2nd, 2023

Palm Sunday

Focus: On this day the Church celebrates Christ's entrance into Jerusalem to accomplish the Paschal Mystery. In the first reading, a humble servant readily faces any hardship to proclaim God's word to the people. In the second reading, we are reminded of the Lord's suffering for which every knee should bend in gratitude. In the Gospel, Jesus makes his royal entry into Jerusalem, where the people greet him as a king, the Son of David.

Published by Franciscan Media

Holy Thursday-April 6, 2023

In the first reading, the people of Israel prepare the Passover meal on the eve of their deliverance from Egypt. In the second reading, we hear the sacred tradition concerning the Body and Blood of Christ. In the Gospel, Jesus washes the feet of his disciples, symbolizing the love he will demonstrate when he lasts down his life for all humankind by dying on a cross.

Good Friday-April 7, 2023

In the first reading, a humble servant of God is dismissed by the world but exalted by God. In the second reading, we learn that Jesus is the perfect mediator and the source of our salvation. In the Gospel, John's passion narrative shows Jesus with full knowledge of how this will end, taking charge of his fate and turning an execution into a glorification and exaltation.

NEWS FROM HNJ ENVIRONMENTAL COMMITTEE

The committee would like to take this opportunity to thank HNJ parishioners for all the accolades many of you have expressed to Msg. Bauhoff or to the dedicated members regarding the décor and exhibits displayed in our church. The committee truly appreciates your gracious and generous compliments and contributions.

Much thought, research, effort, and time goes into the innovative designs and exhibits created to celebrate each season in the liturgical year. The items made are intended for future use. We respectfully request that the pieces used on our pews and or the altar NOT be removed from HNJ Church and that the displays be left in their original set up, as each is thoughtfully and carefully placed in accordance with the specific time of year. Thank you in advance for this courtesy and your kind consideration and cooperation.

Yours in Christ

-Pope Francis

Catholic Charities Outreach Programs journey with all who come through their doors.

Maria Ryan is the Director of the Parish Social Ministry (PSM) at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs, Centerport, where she oversees 15 vibrant ministries. She introduced us to Sarah and her daughter, Belle.

"Shortly after we moved into the area, our daughter Belle was diagnosed with cancer. Out of sheer desperation I called our church to ask if Father could anoint her and that's when I met Maria Ryan. Maria has taken us under her wing in more ways than we could ever imagine. It's been over a year and she checks in with us just about every day. The church has helped us spiritually, emotionally, and financially. My husband had to quit work to help us with care for Belle. The parish has helped us to stay afloat by helping with medical bills and travel expenses incurred traveling into the city for Belle's treatment." shared Sarah
