This Tuesday we celebrate the fourth of July, also known as Independence Day. It is a federal holiday commemorating the ratification of the Declaration of Independence by the Second Constitutional Congress on July 4, 1776. The Congress declared that the thirteen colonies were no longer subject to the monarch of Britain and from that day forward, they were now united, free, and independent states. On this day and throughout the holiday weekend, family and friends often gather together to remember, celebrate, and give thanks to God for the freedoms we enjoy in this country. Celebrations often include barbeques or picnics, displays of the American flag, banners and or balloons with the colors of red, white, and blue, the colors of our flag. I hope you have an enjoyable, relaxing, and safe holiday.

A very sincere thank you to all parishioners for your thoughtful, kind wishes and greetings as I celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of Ordination. I've been blessed over the fifty years with wonderful assignments. As you hopefully know by now, I'm very happy to be with you at Holy Name of Jesus. The past eleven years have been some of the happiest years of my life. I'm so happy and grateful that I could celebrate this milestone with you. Thank you, too, for welcoming my family and friends from former assignments and helping them to feel welcomed as we gathered for the Mass and the celebration last weekend. Special thanks to Bishop Andrzej and Bishop Coyle for their presence at the Mass and to the priest celebrants and Deacon Pat Dunphy and Austin Kim from the KCA, for his rendition of Ave Maria on the clarinet. Heartfelt thanks to all the dedicated members of the parish for their countless hours of preparation to help all of us enjoy a wonderful evening.

This weekend is the annual Peter's Pence Collection which supports the charitable works of the Pope throughout the world. Your support of this collection is a sign of mercy to those suffering around the world. Your generous donation helps to build up the Church so that it will continue to minister to all for generations to come.

Bishop John Barres issued a new Pastoral Letter on the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul. To read the Pastoral letter, please visit hnjchurch.net or drvc.org.

Fr. Sean Magaldi announced that the Diocese of Rockville Centre is sponsoring Quo Vadis, a diocesan initiative to help high school students better understand and answer the question "Where are you going?" The one-day celebration will be held at St. Anthony's High School on Saturday, July 29, and will include talks, Mass, activities, and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. For more information, please contact www.campquovadis.com.

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday July 2nd, 2023

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Focus: Our readings today invite us to open our hearts and be hospitable to others. To be Christian is to give generously although we sometimes fail and sin. Let us call to mind those moments and ask God for mercy. In the first reading, a family puts God first and finds their home filled with new life. In the second reading, Paul reminds us of our Baptism. He encourages us to live for God. In the Gospel, Jesus sets forth the demands of discipleship as well as the rewards for faithful service.

Prayer For Our Nation

God of Justice and Truth,
we ask your blessing on our nation.

Thank you for the freedoms we enjoy,
especially those we take for granted.

Thank you for the diversity of our people and enlarge our capacity for tolerance and mutual respect.

As we celebrate our independence as a sovereign nation, may we also celebrate our interdependence.

Make us mindful of the blessings of our rich and abundant land.

May your gracious Spirit inspire us to work together to meet the challenges of our times.

With all hope, faith, and trust in you,
we pray.

Amen.

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

2023: The Year of Parish Revival

The Eucharist is the source and summit of our Christian life (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1324). In the Eucharist, we truly encounter the Lord Jesus and are plunged into his Paschal Mystery, and through this encounter our lives are transformed (cf. Desiderio Desideravi, nos. 10–11, 21). The Eucharist is not an object, but a person who is alive and transforms lives. The person of Jesus Christ is at the heart of this Eucharistic moment in the United States. This is the work of revival. It is not an institutional work. We cannot demand revival but we can invite it, pray for it, and respond to it.

On the Feast of Corpus Christi, we arrived at the most pivotal year of the three-year National Eucharistic Revival called for by the bishops of the United States. God wants to bring revival to his Church through a rekindled relationship with Jesus in the Eucharist, and this year, that invitation reaches the pews and beyond.

The purpose of the Year of Parish Revival is to discern how we might "heal, form, convert, unify, and send" our parishioners through a "rekindled relationship with Jesus in the Eucharist." [1]

The National Eucharistic Revival is built on four pillars that uphold the movement called for by the bishops of the United States: reinvigorate worship, create moments of personal encounter, engage in robust formation, and send Catholics forth as missionaries.

How can you reinvigorate worship? Here are some suggestions:

- Experience a renewed reverence for liturgical silence.
- Consider daily Mass attendance.
- Attend confession before the celebration of Holy Mass.
- Share your witness stories with a friend or acquaintance about powerful experiences of the Holy Mass.

You will find more information regarding the National Eucharistic Revival in the coming weeks. You may also visit their website: www.eucharisticrevival.org

Community Outreach for Long Islanders

As a not-for-profit, mission-based organization, Catholic Health is continuing the work of our women religious who founded hospitals, skilled nursing facilities and other Long Island agencies reaching back more than a century. We offer blood drives, free wellness seminars, support groups and other community health-related events and programs year-round.

To further help the medically underserved in Nassau and Suffolk counties, Catholic Health established its Healthy Sundays outreach network and Bishop McHugh Health Centers to deliver health screenings, education, vaccinations and other services to those without access to primary care.

"Living our mission means... passionately caring—for our patients, their loved ones, and each other. There's a spirit at work here—we're a community that reflexively exudes compassion and mercy. It inspires me every day!"

One Minute Meditations

Room for God

"Make room therefore for Christ, and refuse entrance to all others. When you have Christ, you are rich and have need of (nothing) else." Thomas A Kempis

Give love

One way to give thanks to God for all the gifts He has bestowed on you is to work for the poor and vulnerable. Sharing your gifts with those less fortunate is how God intends you to use what He gives you. "Much will be required of the person entrusted with much, and still more will be demanded of the person entrusted with more" (Luke 12:48).

Say, "Amen!"

The proper form when receiving Communion is to reply "Amen" when the Eucharistic minister raises the Host or Chalice and pronounces it, "The Body (or Blood) of Christ." By responding this way, you openly state your belief in the presence of Christ in the Eucharistic bread and wine, as well as in His Body, the Church.

Respond to the gift of the Holy Spirit

God loves us so much, He gives us what He values most – His only Son (John 3:16) and His Holy Spirit in Baptism (Romans 5:5) so we can have access to God's divine life and love. The Holy Spirit's presence with the entire Church throughout the centuries is as a comfort, consolation, leader and guide. To accept this gift, we can . . .

Listen for Him: Spending time with Scripture can help tune our hearts to hear the "still small voice" (1 Kings 19:12) of the Holy Spirit. The better we are attuned to God's voice, the more likely we'll hear Him amidst the noise of the world.

Consult Him: Jesus promised to send the Holy Spirit, the Counselor, to lead His disciples to truth (John 14:6). He helps us to see, evaluate, and choose like Christ. Call on the Holy Spirit when you're facing a difficult situation or decision.

Take refuge in Him: Every day, entrust yourself to the Holy Spirit and dedicate your day to His service. Let Him guide your actions.

Actualize Confirmation graces: Upon our Confirmation, the Holy Spirit fortified and empowered our souls with His seven Gifts: Wisdom, Understanding, Counsel, Fortitude, Knowledge, Piety, and Fear of the Lord (Isaiah 11:2). When we rely on the Holy Spirit, we can overcome temptations to fear, distrust, and selfishness with His powerful gifts.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics fold their hands when they pray?

The custom of folding our hands comes from ninth century Europe where folded hands symbolized obedience by those subordinate to the lord or king. This gesture was also used by priests to show respect to bishops. The faithful adopted it to signify obedience to God's will.

In some cultures today, such as India and other parts of Asia, clasped hands are also a sign of reverence. In fact, Mother Teresa was often photographed greeting people with this gesture.

2023 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

One Family - Journeying together in Communion, Participation and Mission

All gifts to the Catholic Ministries Appeal make a difference in the lives of those who are served by the Appeal.

Every Gift Counts!

A gift of $50 may help pay the gas for a Meals-On-Wheels van to deliver food for a day.

A gift of $75 from an emergency fund may help pay the electric bill for a family in need.

A gift of $100 may help a new mom in Catholic Charities Regina Maternity Community Case Management Program.

A gift of $250 may help subsidizes a home for an adult who is developmentally disabled.

A gift of $1,000 may help support a Seminarian's education.

Because of you, every year we are able to serve more than 600,000 people in our Long Island Community. Catholic Charities and parish outreaches can maintain and grow their services to families struggling to meet the demands of higher costs for food, housing and utilities. Faith formation programs for our seminarians and lay leaders thrive so that they can fulfill their calling to lead the faithful of our community. Faith is inspired and kept alive for our youth so that they come to understand that their faith is a gift that should be passed on from generation to generation.

For more information about the Catholic Ministries Appeal, please visit CatholicMinistriesAppeal.org or call 516-678-5800 ext. 296.
