Following The Blessed Virgin Mary's Example of Stewardship

The Blessed Mother is a wonderful example of stewardship in our faith for many reasons. Mary's fiat (acceptance of God's will and her response), "Let it be done to me according to your word" (Luke 1:33), demonstrates her complete submission to God and is the perfect example of stewardship that we should emulate. She faithfully followed the path laid out for her, entrusting herself entirely to God's plan.

As the Mother of Jesus and the spiritual mother of all believers, Mary intercedes for the Church. Just as she acted as an advocate for the couple at the wedding in Cana (John 2:1-11), she continues to intercede for the needs of the Church and its members, providing maternal care and guidance.

Mary's unwavering faith and commitment to Jesus throughout His life, including her presence at his crucifixion (John 19:25-27), exemplify her dedication as a steward of the Church. Despite the challenges and hardships, she remained faithful, showing the way of discipleship.

Mary's trust and surrender to God's plan even in difficult times, such as the flight to Egypt to protect Jesus (Matthew 2:13-15), showcase her dedication to God's plan. She models the virtue of surrendering to God's will and trusting his providence.

Mary's cooperation with God's salvific plan as the vessel through which Jesus entered the world makes her an integral part of the Church's mission. Her example of humility, obedience and love inspires Christians to imitate her action and become great disciples of the Church.

On August 15, we celebrate the Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. May we emulate Mary's desire to help God carry out His plan even if we truly do not understand it. May we accept His plan for us with humility, "For all those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted." (Luke 14:11) and faith and obedience. Will you be able to do what Mary did? Can you trust God wholeheartedly and entrust your life and future to Him?

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday August 13th, 2023
19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Focus: As we ride out the storms in our life, we are called by the One who calms our fears and forgives our sins. Let us pray for forgiveness and the courage to accept that precious grace so willingly given by Jesus. In the first reading, a prophet waits to discover what lesson God has in store for him. In the second reading, Paul is prepared to make any sacrifice for the chosen people. In the Gospel, the faith of the disciples and Peter is seriously tested as they witness Jesus walking toward them on the sea. Published by Franciscan Media

"Go and make disciples"

We're all called to spread the Gospel as missionaries (Mark 16:15), but not everyone is required to travel. As a Carmelite nun, St. Therésè of Lisieux lived out her "second calling" to be a missionary. Here are three ways to spread the Gospel within any vocation:

Go deeper in your faith. You can't share what you don't have. St. Therésè developed her "Little Way" of holiness after years of prayer and study. Step deeper into your faith daily: read a section of the Catechism, pray over a verse of Scripture, listen to a Catholic podcast while driving or walking, pray.

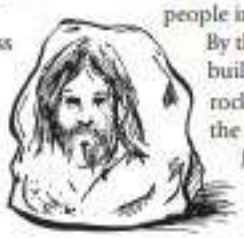
Adopt-a-missionary: St. Therésè was a "spiritual sister" to several missionaries, writing them letters and supporting them in prayer, indirectly helping hundreds of souls. Adopt a missionary – or anyone who shares the Faith. Contact your parish or diocese for suggestions.

"Intercession fueled by charity": St. Therésè lovingly offered to God the "thorns" she received from others – discomforts, misunderstandings, hurt feelings – to win souls for Christ. Offer your "thorns" as saving graces.

from Scripture

Matthew 16:13-20, The "Rock-solid" foundation

The events in this passage lay the foundations for the Catholic Church. In it, Jesus asks His disciples, "Who do you say that I am?" It was a question about Jesus' identity, rather than about the persuasiveness of His teaching or His popularity. The heart of Catholicism centers around the truth of who Jesus is.



Inspired by the Holy Spirit, Simon answers for the group, identifying Jesus as the Son of God, the Messiah (Matthew 16:17). Jesus proclaims this was divinely revealed to Simon and changes his name to Peter ("Rock"). Jesus gives him the keys to the kingdom, giving Peter (and his successors) the authority to interpret Scripture, forgive sins, and admit people into the Church.

By this, Jesus signaled He was building His Church on a rock-solid foundation – on the confession of Peter about Jesus' divinity. This truth has been handed down through the ages, from the Apostles to the bishops to us. The Holy Spirit would lead Peter – and his successors, the popes – to continue speaking and acting in truth as the visible head of the Church.

Q & A

How can I avoid gossiping?

Chatting with friends can become gossip – unfairly disclosing another's faults or sins without a valid reason, to people who don't know them (Catechism of the Catholic Church, #2477). Try these ideas when chatting becomes gossip:

Name it: A gentle reminder between friends is an act of kindness. Try, "I think we're edging into gossip," or "Oh, that's not kind!" It's better to risk speaking up than silently allowing sin.

Redirect the conversation: Highlight good qualities of the person about whom others are gossiping. Refocus on inspiring news, a good book you read – anything else that is "honorable … just … pure … pleasing" (Philippians 4:8).

Leave: If nothing else works, excuse yourself and leave the conversation. You'll avoid becoming complicit to sin and wordlessly communicate that you find gossip unacceptable.

Pray: Sins of the tongue (gossip, slander, calumny, detraction) are serious and require grace to resist. Invoke the Holy Spirit for yourself, for those who engage in gossip, and especially for those harmed by it.

Feasts & Celebrations

August 6 – Transfiguration of the Lord. Christ appeared in glory in the company of Moses and Elijah, discussing the Passion (Luke 9:30-31), and a voice was heard to say, "This is my beloved son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him" (Matthew 17:5).

August 14 – St. Maximilian Mary Kolbe (1941). A Polish Franciscan, St. Maximilian was imprisoned at Auschwitz. When the jailers chose ten people to execute, he substituted himself for a man with a family. He was honored as a "martyr of charity" by Pope John Paul II.

August 23 – St. Rose of Lima (1617). Born in colonial Peru, Rose worked constantly to help her poverty-stricken family. She became a lay Dominican, and cared for homeless children, the elderly, and the sick in her house.

August 29 – Passion of St. John the Baptist (1st century). St. John the Baptist courageously spoke the truth to the leaders of his time, making him powerful enemies. He was arrested by Herod and martyred (Mark 6:17-29).

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

2023: The Year of Parish Revival

The Eucharist is the source and summit of our Christian life (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1324). In the Eucharist, we truly encounter the Lord Jesus and are plunged into his Paschal Mystery, and through this encounter our lives are transformed (cf. Desiderio Desideravi, nos. 10–11, 21). The Eucharist is not an object, but a person who is alive and transforms lives. The person of Jesus Christ is at the heart of this Eucharistic moment in the United States. This is the work of revival. It is not an institutional work. We cannot demand revival but we can invite it, pray for it, and respond to it.

On the Feast of Corpus Christi, we arrived at the most pivotal year of the three-year National Eucharistic Revival called for by the bishops of the United States. God wants to bring revival to his Church through a rekindled relationship with Jesus in the Eucharist, and this year, that invitation reaches the pews and beyond.

The purpose of the Year of Parish Revival is to discern how we might "heal, form, convert, unify, and send" our parishioners through a "rekindled relationship with Jesus in the Eucharist." [1]

The National Eucharistic Revival is built on four pillars that uphold the movement called for by the bishops of the United States: reinvigorate worship, create moments of personal encounter, engage in robust formation, and send Catholics forth as missionaries.

How can you reinvigorate worship? Here are some suggestions:

- Experience a renewed reverence for liturgical silence.
- Consider daily Mass attendance.
- Attend confession before the celebration of Holy Mass.
- Share your witness stories with a friend or acquaintance about powerful experiences of the Holy Mass.

You will find more information regarding the National Eucharistic Revival in the coming weeks. You may also visit their website: www.eucharisticrevival.org
