WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday August 20th, 2023
20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Focus: The courageous woman we encounter in today's Gospel puts all fears and cautions aside in order to beg the mercy of Christ. Do we dare to do that? In the first reading, a prophet describes the house of the Lord as a place of prayer for all nations. In the second reading, Paul hopes that the chosen people will receive divine mercy just as the Gentiles did. In the Gospel, Jesus is confronted by a Canaanite woman pleading with Jesus to heal her daughter, and she will not take no for an answer. Published by Franciscan Media

Your Commitment: Extending Love and Mercy to Those in Need

In a world where kindness and compassion can make a profound difference, there are remarkable ministries within the Diocese that embody these values and tirelessly serve those who need them the most.

Extending a Helping Hand:

Every day, there are people who face challenges that seem insurmountable. They may be struggling with poverty, addiction, homelessness, illness, or emotional distress. In these moments, ministries such as Catholic Charities and Parish Outreach prioritize love and mercy to help. Their mission is to reach out, extend a helping hand, and provide resources that can change lives.

The Power of Love and Mercy:

Love and mercy have the power to transform lives. They bring comfort to the grieving, healing to the wounded, and hope to the despairing. Through acts of kindness, these ministries demonstrate that someone cares, that there is support available, and that no one must face their challenges alone.

It's not too late to make a gift to the 2023 Catholic Ministries Appeal!

Thank you!
