WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday August 27th, 2023
21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Focus: God our Creator, for the times we have failed to recognize you as the One who is beyond all knowing, present in each person we encounter, we pray for your mercy on us. In the first reading, a prophet looks forwards to the day a true servant of God will lead the people. In the second reading, Paul marvels as God's saving wisdom, which surpasses the wisdom of this world. In the Gospel, Peter confesses Jesus as the Messiah and the Son of the living God whereupon Jesus declares that Peter will thus be the rock upon which Jesus will build his Church. NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

2023: The Year of Parish Revival

The Eucharist is the source and summit of our Christian life (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1324). In the Eucharist, we truly encounter the Lord Jesus and are plunged into his Paschal Mystery, and through this encounter our lives are transformed (cf. Desiderio Desideravi, nos. 10–11, 21). The Eucharist is not an object, but a person who is alive and transforms lives. The person of Jesus Christ is at the heart of this Eucharistic moment in the United States. This is the work of revival. It is not an institutional work. We cannot demand revival but we can invite it, pray for it, and respond to it.

On the Feast of Corpus Christi, we arrived at the most pivotal year of the three-year National Eucharistic Revival called for by the bishops of the United States. God wants to bring revival to his Church through a rekindled relationship with Jesus in the Eucharist, and this year, that invitation reaches the pews and beyond.

The purpose of the Year of Parish Revival is to discern how we might "heal, form, convert, unify, and send" our parishioners through a "rekindled relationship with Jesus in the Eucharist." [1]

The National Eucharistic Revival is built on four pillars that uphold the movement called for by the bishops of the United States: reinvigorate worship, create moments of personal encounter, engage in robust formation, and send Catholics forth as missionaries.

How can you reinvigorate worship? Here are some suggestions:

- Experience a renewed reverence for liturgical silence.
- Consider daily Mass attendance.
- Attend confession before the celebration of Holy Mass.
- Share your witness stories with a friend or acquaintance about powerful experiences of the Holy Mass.

You will find more information regarding the National Eucharistic Revival in the coming weeks. You may also visit their website: www.eucharisticrevival.org

Webinar - How Changes in IRA Laws Will Affect Your Beneficiaries

We wish to extend to you a personal invitation to the 2023 Webinar, hosted by the Diocese of Rockville Centre.

When?

Wednesday, August 30th

1:00 PM - 1:45 PM

This is a free seminar and no solicitations will be made.

Topics covered:

- How the Federal SECURE Act changes affect IRA distributions for family members who inherit your IRA
- Strategies that can benefit you and your family and enable tax-wise charitable giving in your retirement years
- Steps to take to make sure the government isn't your main IRA beneficiary
- How you can use your IRA to fund tax-wise legacy gifts like charitable trusts

Guest Speaker:

Mark Henry, author of Finish Faithful - How to Create a Lasting Christian Legacy for Your Family, will be the moderator.

To RSVP, complete the registration link below.
If you have any questions, or would like to email a question ahead of the presentation, please contact Barbara Kilarjian at 516-678-5800 ext. 257 or email bkilarjian@drvc.org

A link to the webinar will be sent to you closer to the event.

Your Commitment: Extending Love and Mercy to Those in Need

In a world where kindness and compassion can make a profound difference, there are remarkable ministries within the Diocese that embody these values and tirelessly serve those who need them the most.

Extending a Helping Hand:

Every day, there are people who face challenges that seem insurmountable. They may be struggling with poverty, addiction, homelessness, illness, or emotional distress. In these moments, ministries such as Catholic Charities and Parish Outreach prioritize love and mercy to help. Their mission is to reach out, extend a helping hand, and provide resources that can change lives.

The Power of Love and Mercy:

Love and mercy have the power to transform lives. They bring comfort to the grieving, healing to the wounded, and hope to the despairing. Through acts of kindness, these ministries demonstrate that someone cares, that there is support available, and that no one must face their challenges alone.

It's not too late to make a gift to the 2023 Catholic Ministries Appeal!

Thank you!

One Family - Journeying together in Communion, Participation and Mission

Each year Americans celebrate Labor Day as a national holiday to honor working people. For Catholics, it is also an opportunity to recall the traditional teaching of the Church on dignity of work and the rights of workers. As Pope Francis pointed out, "Work is fundamental to the dignity of a person. . . It gives one the ability to maintain oneself, one's family, to contribute to the growth of one's own Nation."

This Labor Day, the economic facts are stark, and the human costs are real, especially for the poor, who may be unemployed or underemployed, the struggle to support their families is a daily battle. Please consider supporting the Catholic Ministries Appeal which supports the programs and services that assist families and individuals struggling in our communities.
