Please take note that the bulletin for this weekend is for two weeks: December 23, 2023, through Friday, January 5, 2024.

The staff of Holy Name of Jesus joins me in wishing you a very Merry Christmas and a blessed and Happy New Year. We also thank you for your Christmas wishes and greetings. As this year comes to a close a week after Christmas, I take this opportunity to say Thank You to all parishioners and our staff for all you do and have done for our parish in 2023. I hope your Advent journey was a positive one helping you to be prepared to welcome the Christ Child on Christmas Day.

I hope you noticed how beautifully the Church is decorated for Christmas. The liturgical environmental committee chaired by Elaine Labrocca with the help and assistance from fellow dedicated parishioners spend hours preparing and decorating the Church. Please join me in thanking the committee for their dedicated ministry to enhance our Christmas and other seasonal celebrations. Thank you to all who made donations to the Annual Christmas Flower Collection. There is a listing in this bulletin of the names enrolled in the Christmas Flower Novena of Masses.

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday December 24th, 2023
Fourth Sunday of Advent

Focus: God is the font of all blessings and salvation. In the first reading, David ruminates on building a house for the Lord. However the Lord reminds David how he has favored him and states that it is God who will build a house for David. In the second reading, Paul gives glory to Christ, acknowledging the prophets and wisdom through the ages that have all participated in this revelation. In the Gospel, the angel Gabriel announces that Mary will conceive a son—the Son of God—and Mary accepts the honor, saying, may it be done to me according to your word.

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday December 31, 2023

Holy Family of Jesus, Mary & Joseph

Focus: Imitate the holy family, the true model of life. In the first reading, Abram puts his faith in God's promise of a child despite his and Sarah's old age. In the second reading, the author emphasizes all that Abraham did was by faith. In the Gospel, Joseph and Mary present Jesus at the temple, and meet Simeon and Anna who prophesy about the child.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

Christmas 2023

To the People of God of the Diocese of Rockville Centre:

Merry Christmas to you and your families!

In recent years at Christmas, I have meditated on the relationship between the Nativity of the Prince of Peace and the Parable of the Good Samaritan.

I have been especially inspired by Pope Francis' analysis of the Parable of the Good Samaritan in the second chapter of his 2020 encyclical Fratelli Tutti. It is powerful and provocative, and I would recommend it for your mental prayer.

The short phrase in the Christmas Gospel narrative in the second chapter of the Gospel of Luke reads: "She wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn."

"No room for them in the inn." No Good Samaritan stepped up to help the Holy Family. They were ignored and treated perfunctorily and impatiently. Some passed them by. Some pretended not to notice their plight.

Remember too that in the Parable of the Good Samaritan an "inn" is also mentioned. Luke 10 reads: "But a Good Samaritan while traveling came near him, and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn and took care of him."

The inn that the Holy Family approaches on the way to Bethlehem is a sign of rejection and indifference.

The inn in the Parable of the Good Samaritan is a sign of the Good Samaritan's compassion and commitment to go the extra mile and to make sure that the wounded man is taken care of until he is completely healed.

Contemporary literary criticism might very well emphasize that the use of "inn" by the Gospel writer in both the Nativity in Luke 2 and the Parable of the Good Samaritan in Luke 10 is not by accident.

Post Office Box 9023, Rockville Centre, New York 11571-9023 • phone 516.678.5800 • fax 516.678.3138 • bishopsoffice@drvc.org

In a sense, the phrase "there was no room at the inn" in the Nativity foreshadows and connects with the phrase in the Parable of the Good Samaritan describing the callous indifference of both the priest and the Levite toward the wounded man on the side of the road: "[H]e passed by on the other side."

As Pope Francis says in Fratelli Tutti: "Each day we have to decide whether to be Good Samaritans or indifferent bystanders."[1]

Our Lady, St. Joseph and the unborn Christ Child experienced the reality of people who decided to be indifferent bystanders.

The Christmas Gospel narrative from Luke 2 poses a question which is posed again later in the Parable of the Good Samaritan in Luke 10.

Will we be Good Samaritans?

Or will we be indifferent bystanders?

As the Holy Father reminds us, we make that choice every day.

May our prayer, silent contemplation and creative family catechesis of the Nativity scene help us to be instruments of a Nativity Mystery. May the Good Samaritan Gospel revolution of humility, charity, mercy, tenderness and peace unite us in solidarity with the sick, the poor and the suffering, especially in the Middle East, Ukraine and all war-ravaged areas of the world.

May our commitment to "holiness and mission" bless our contemplative Synodal listening and our Eucharistic Revival and Evangelization.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to you and your families!

May the Light and Love of the Christ Child animate and guide our global Catholic Missionary Spirit on this Christmas night and throughout the New Year.

Sincerely in Christ,

+John O. Barres
