Since we did not have a printed bulletin last weekend, I wish to take this opportunity to once again thank all who helped to make our Christmas celebrations so special on Christmas Day. Thank you to our parishioners, friends and visitors who came to celebrate Christmas Eve and Day. The Masses were well attended and just about everyone seemed pleased with the beautiful decorations which enhance the beauty of our Church. As always, thanks to all in the various ministries who serve as lectors, altar servers, ministers of Holy Communion, greeters, sacristans and ushers. A special thank you to the liturgical environment committee who spent countless hours planning and decorating and caring for the floral decorations throughout the Christmas Season. And as always, a thank you to Deacon Chris for his faithful ministry and inspiriting homilies throughout the year.

The annual Christmas Flower Fund helps to defray the cost of the floral and other decorations used during the seasons of Advent and Christmas. Thank you to all who supported the Flower Fund. The Church was decorated beautifully thanks to your generous support and the dedication and creativity of the Liturgical Environmental Committee who spent and continue to spend hours maintaining the poinsettia plants for as long as possible.

This weekend, we continue our celebration of the Christmas Season with the feast of the Epiphany when the Magi from the East arrive and their gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh as they worship the newborn King of the Jews. The Feast of the Baptism of the Lord follows the Epiphany and officially closes the Christmas Season and we begin Ordinary Time until the Season of Lent. This year, we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord on Monday, January 8 at the 9:00 Am Mass.

Thank you for your understanding and patience as we have the heating system evaluated. It works, it stops, it works, we manage to get it working, but from what I'm told, the system is old, and as you'll recall, we replaced the air conditioning last year for the same reason. And we did that without a major campaign because of successful fundraising events and donations from parishioners and friends alike. Once I receive the evaluation of the current system and recommendation(s), I will update you. If we learn it's time to retire the old system, hopefully we can do the same as we did when the AC was replaced.

As a I mentioned at the Masses a few weeks ago, Canon Law requires that when a priest reaches the age of 75, he is to submit a letter of resignation to his Bishop. The Bishop is NOT REQUIRED to accept the resignation of the priest if the priest wishes to continue in his ministry. In that case, he can ask for reappointment for another year. My assignment ends this June, and I have asked Bishop Barres to be appointed for another year. When I hear from the Bishop, I'll let you know his answer.

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday January 7th, 2024

The Epiphany of the Lord

The Focus: Behold, the Lord, the Mighty One has come and kingship is in his grasp and power and dominion. In the first reading, Darkness covers the earth and heavy clouds hand over the people. But the light has come and the glory of the Lord shines bright. In the second reading, In Christ Jesus, Gentiles and Jews are co-heirs of the family fortune and co-sharers in the saving promise. In the Gospel, The magi from the east followed the star until it stopped still over the house. They entered, found the child with Mary, prostrated themselves and did him homage. The Giving Tree Project

Thanks to all the parishioners of Holy Name of Jesus who gave to this year's Giving Tree Project. As in years past, over 115 boys and girls and many adults had their Christmas wishes granted because of you.

Thanks also go to Tom Higgins, Rebecca Sher, Samantha Schatz, Lina Femia and Maria Luckas, who all gave of their time and talents. The Giving Tree Project went smoothly again this year due to their efforts.

P.S. If you have any used Christmas cards and wish to donate them to the Giving Tree Project to be used next year as gift tags, please leave them in the box I will put in the church's Library after New Year's Day.
