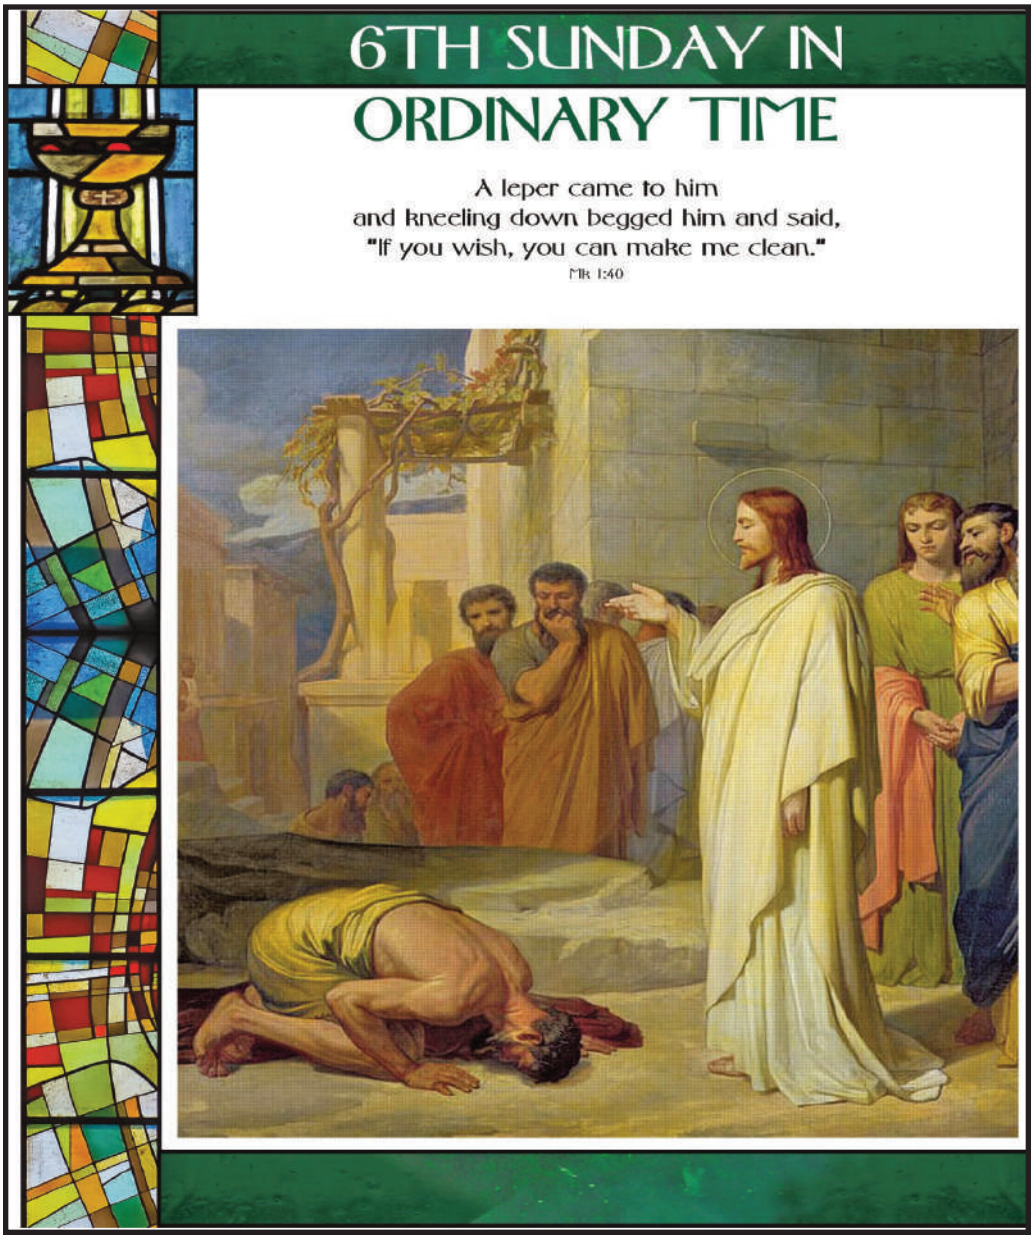
after 9:00am Mass
till 10:30am



Hard to believe that Lent is here – this Wednesday, February 14, is Ash Wednesday. We will follow the same schedule as we have in the past for the distribution of ashes =:

9:00 AM - Mass at 9:00 AM with the distribution of ashes during the Mass.

12:10 PM - Liturgy of the Word and distribution of ashes

4:30 PM – Liturgy of the Word and distribution of ashes

7:30 PM - Liturgy of the Word and distribution of ashes.

Stations of the Cross will be prayed on the Fridays of Lent at 7:30 PM.

 During Lent, all Catholics who have reached the age of 14, abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday (February 14) and all the Fridays of Lent.

 During Lent, all Catholics from the ages of 14 until reaching the age of 59, fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

 A good rule of thumb is that everyone is encouraged to participate in these practices even if they don't fall into these categories. Understandably, those with medical/ health conditions are not bound to the obligations of fast and abstinence.

As always, Catholics are asked to practice prayer, fasting and almsgiving especially during the Lenten season. These include attending daily Mass at 9:00 AM, praying the Stations of the Cross at home or in Church, joining fellow parishioners on the Friday evenings of Lent, reading and praying the scriptures for 15 minutes a day, and praying the rosary.

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday February 11th, 2024
Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Focus: Do everything for the glory of God. Paul's words are both commanding and encouraging. As Christians, whatever we do ought to reflect who we are: children of the Most High God, adopted sons and daughters of the Lord. In the first reading, it regulates procedures for dealing with people with skin disease. They are denounced unclean and must live alone. In the second reading, Paul calls the Corinthians to give glory to God in everything they do. In the Gospel, Jesus is moved with pity for a man with leprosy. Jesus touches the man, and he is made clean.

"The annual Lenten season (which begins on Ash Wednesday) is the fitting time to climb the holy mountain of Easter...the faithful, ever more attentive to the Word of God and prayer, prepare themselves by penance for the renewal of their baptismal promises."

"Plant Lovers: All poinsettia plants must be removed from the church before February 14th, Ash Wednesday. Since, with a plant lover's care, these plants can live for a long time, we want to give you an opportunity to take a plant or two home to nurse into good health. On February 12th or 13th, we will be throwing all remaining poinsettias into the trash unless you save some of them."

" Come Back to Me with All Your Heart"

Lent with All My Heart

Each year, when Lent comes near, I easily return to my old instincts that Lent is supposed to be a time when I do some sacrifice to please God for six weeks. I know, in my head and heart that this isn't the meaning of Lent, but it is deeply ingrained in me, and I suspect it is for many of us.

The first Preface (the prayer that introduces the Eucharistic Prayer) of Lent is titled: "The spiritual meaning of Lent." It sets the tone for Lent with this prayer, worthy of our reflection:

For by your gracious gift each year your faithful await the sacred paschal feasts with joy of minds made pure, so that, more eagerly intent on prayer and on the works of charity, and participating in the mysteries by which they have been reborn, they may be led to the fulness of grace that you bestow on your sons and daughters. (The Roman Missal, Third Typical Edition, 2011)

We are invited to await the Three Holy Days—Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Easter Sunday—"with the joy of minds made pure." Rarely does it seem that we are going through Lent with joy, or that this joy comes from "minds made pure." And, rarely is it so clear that the "fullness of grace" to which we are led comes from being "more eagerly intent on prayer" and "on the works of charity." Finally, this journey is framed at "participating in the mysteries by which they have been reborn."

I want to begin Lent this year, using Ignatius' naming of a grace I desire: "Lord, lead me to the fullness of your grace." I want to ask that I might be more intent on prayer and works of charity. And, I want to experience, through the readings and the liturgies each week during Lent, that I'm really reliving the mysteries of my rebirth and salvation.

I desire that this be what I "do" during Lent. This gets me closer to a Lent experience that is about what God wants to give me, rather than what I try to give God.

Preparing for Lent

Using the Pillar of Service, you can take this time to give to those in need. Perhaps, if finances permit, you can increase your weekly giving to your parish-- just one dollar extra a week can make a difference in your parish's finances. You can also make a gift to the Catholic Ministries Appeal (click HERE to donate) and join together with parishioners from all across the Diocese to help spread God's love across the Island.

Using the Pillar of Hospitality, you could not only volunteer your time to help others in need, but you could also use your time to visit someone who may be feeling lonely. Oftentimes, we forget that one of the greatest gifts we can give someone is just the gift of our time. You could also offer to take an elderly friend or family member to Mass, confession or the Stations of the Cross this Lenten season.

Using the Pillar of Prayer, you can take advantage of all the opportunities your parish and Diocese have available to strengthen your prayer life. Go to confession! Do not be afraid, the priest is there to help you make a good confession-- not to judge or condemn you. Go to the Stations of the Cross and Eucharistic Adoration-- let God speak to you while you are there.

Finally, using the Pillar of Formation, take time this season to read spiritual books. Perhaps you can read something from Catholic Answers, or classic books by Archbishop Fulton Sheen. You can also read a pastoral letter from Bishop Barres (available HERE).

This Lenten season, grow closer to the Lord, let Him speak to you, guide you and transform you.

Pope Francis's three-point approach to Confession

Instead of dreading seeking the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation (Confession), Pope Francis suggested we look at it as "the Sacrament of the tenderness of God, His way of embracing us." Follow the pope's three-point approach to the Sacrament:

What's my intention? Rather than an obligation, consider the Sacrament a fresh start. Firmly resolve, from this moment forward, to give up the activities or behaviors that separate you from God. The firm resolution to change is key to receiving absolution effectively.

Are there loose ends? Unconfessed sin creates distance between us and God. Make sure you have not withheld mortal sins in prior Confessions, either intentionally or accidentally. If you become aware that you have, confess them and leave the confessional a new man or woman.

Have I completed the assigned penance? The Sacrament is meant to change us. Purposefully make amends and continue your resolutions to realign your life to the Gospel.

Seeking Reconciliation often and staying in a state of grace helps us become holier people of God.

from Scripture

Mark 9:2-10, Heavenly glory, not worldly power

In Jesus' time, Israel was occupied by the Romans. The Israelites already had a long history of being attacked and conquered by other nations. The Jews dreamed of the day when the Messiah would set them free and make them the victors.

God had set up Moses as liberator and lawgiver, and sent them Elijah, the first of the great prophets who foretold Christ's coming. So when Jesus was transfigured in glory with Moses and Elijah, the Apostles assumed that God was revealing Jesus as the Messiah.

Moses and Elijah spoke with Jesus about His death and Resurrection.

Jesus warned His disciples that He would suffer and die (Mark 8:31). While many Jews were expecting the Messiah to overthrow the Romans and make Himself king, God revealed that the Messiah would save His people by His own death and Resurrection.

The Transfiguration was meant to strengthen the faith of the Apostles and prepare them for the Passion. The Transfiguration reminds us that however difficult this life may be there is unimaginable glory that awaits us in Heaven.

Q & A Why should we "offer it up"?

When tempted to complain about suffering, we may be encouraged to "offer it up" instead. This act of surrender carries incredible spiritual power.

A share in Christ's Cross. Because Jesus is God, His suffering and sacrifice have infinite value. When we unite even our small sufferings to Jesus' suffering, it takes on an infinite value in helping Him to save souls.

Spiritual "strength training." When we offer our sufferings to God, He is able to work on our hearts. Suffering for others helps us to become less selfish and more compassionate, less hard-hearted and more patient, less self-indulgent and more generous. Our hearts emerge more Christ-like, and better able to love.

Prudence is needed. Under most circumstances, encouragement to "offer it up" works as a spiritual discipline for inconveniences or mild suffering. Sometimes, however, remediation or professional help may be needed. God sees the sincerity of our love so we can still offer our suffering to Him and yet take constructive action to remediate whatever is causing the suffering. Be prudent.

Feasts & Celebrations

February 3 – St. Blaise (316). A bishop in fourth-century Turkey, St. Blaise was arrested for being a Christian. On his way to jail, he healed a young boy choking on a fish bone. Refusing to deny his faith, the bishop was martyred.

February 11 – Our Lady of Lourdes (1858). A heavenly lady appeared to St. Bernadette Soubirous, a poor girl from a French village, and a spring with miraculous, healing waters emerged from a nearby cave. The lady revealed herself as the "Immaculate Conception," the Blessed Virgin Mary.

February 14 – Ash Wednesday. The first day of Lent. Ashes of old palms are placed on the forehead as a sign of penance. It's also a day of abstinence from meat and fasting – one regular meal and two small meals that together don't equal a full meal.

February 22 – The Chair of St. Peter. Marking St. Peter's establishment of the Holy See, on this festival we thank God for His Church and pray for its holy preservation.

A Message From Bishop John O. Barres

Dear Friends,

This year's CMA theme, Revitalizing Our Faith – Renewed by the Eucharist, is inspired by The National Eucharistic Revival which continues to be an important mission the Church is undertaking. Through this renewal of faith, we are restoring an understanding and fidelity to the great mystery of Jesus Christ really and truly present in the Eucharist. Jesus selflessly gives himself to us in the Eucharist as spiritual nourishment.

"Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him." (John 6:56) This cherished encounter with Jesus Christ in the Most Holy Eucharist directs us and strengthens us to continue His mission of evangelizing the faith and caring for those in need.

We can accomplish this important mission here on Long Island by supporting the vital works of the Catholic Ministries Appeal. Gifts to the Catholic Ministries Appeal assist thousands of individuals on Long Island each year by supporting seminarians through their discernment and formation, evangelization programs to adults and our youth, and through Catholic Charities and parish outreach programs that provide food and shelter to seniors, veterans and people with disabilities.

Your gift to the Catholic Ministries Appeal truly brings the true presence of Jesus to more than 600,000 people each year. I personally invite you to continue on this mission by joining me in making a gift to the 2024 Catholic Ministries Appeal. We have much to look forward to because we are a people of hope.
