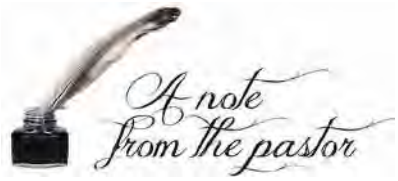
till 10:30am



With the celebration of Palm Sunday, we enter into the holiest of weeks of the Church year culminating with the celebration of the Resurrection of Our Lord at the Easter Vigil. All parishioners are invited to participate in the various liturgies offered by the Church.

Monday, March 26, is Reconciliation Monday throughout the Diocese of Rockville Centre. Priests will be available to celebrate the sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession/Penance) in parishes between the hours of 3 PM to 5 PM and 6 PM to 8:30 PM.

Tuesday, March 26, Bishop Barres will celebrate the Chrism Mass at the Cathedral of St. Agnes, Rockville Centre, at 4:00 PM. All parishioners are invited to this Mass at which the Holy Oils to be used in the celebrations of the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Orders, and the Anointing of the Sick will be blessed and distributed to all the parishes.

Holy Thursday begins with Morning Prayer at 9:00 AM in place of the usual 9:00 AM Mass. At 8:00 PM., we celebrate the Mass of the Lord's Supper. The Mass is concelebrated by Fr. Matthew Kim and Msgr. Bauhoff. The traditional washing of the feet commemorating what Jesus did at the Last Supper follows the homily. After the reception of Holy Communion, there is a simple procession in the Church with the Blessed Sacrament from the Sanctuary to the Repository followed by quiet, private adoration of the Blessed Sacrament until 10:00 PM.

Good Friday begins with Morning Prayer at 9:00 AM in place of the 9:00 AM Mass. At 3:00 PM, we celebrate the Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ with the reading of the Passion followed by individual Adoration of the Cross/Crucifix, and the Reception of Holy Communion. This service concludes with a simple prayer. Stations of the cross are prayed at 7:30 PM on Good Friday.

Holy Saturday begins with Morning Prayer celebrated at 9:00 AM with the traditional blessing of the Easter Baskets with food and sweets to be shared with family and friends on Easter Sunday. THERE IS NO 5:15 PM MASS ON HOLY SATURDAY. The Easter Vigil Mass is celebrated at 7:30 PM. The Liturgy begins with the Blessing of the Paschal (Easter Candle), the Liturgy of the Word (with three readings from the Old Testament), the Gloria and Epistle and Gospel readings, the Blessing of the Easter Water, and the renewal of baptismal vows. The offertory, reception of Holy Communion, and the closing prayer follow as usual.

There will be a second collection on Easter Sunday. The first collection is the regular weekly offering to the Church. The second is for your Easter gift to the Church to help with the maintenance of the church throughout the year. Please be generous with your Easter gift to Holy Name of Jesus Church.

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday March 24th, 2024

Palm Sunday—Passion of the Lord

The Focus: During his journey to Golgotha, Jesus goes from hailed hero to crucified criminal. He surrenders out of obedience to his Father and love for us. In the first reading, Isaiah speaks for the Lord, despite opposition. In the second reading, Paul writes to the Philippians that Jesus emptied himself, becoming obedient to the point of death. In the Gospel, Mark tells the story of Jesus' passion and death. Published Franciscan Media

Holy Thursday-March 28, 2024

In the first reading, the Lord gives Moses and Aaron instructions for the celebration of the Passover of the Lord. Saint Paul teaches that to eat the bread and drink the cup is to proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes. By washing the disciples' feet in the Gospel, Jesus offers them a model to follow, so that as [he] has done for [them], [they] should also do.

Good Friday-March 29, 2024

In the first reading, Isaiah prophesies the suffering of the Lord's servant, saying, he was spurned and avoided by people, a man of suffering ...yet it was our infirmities that he bore, our sufferings that he endured. The second reading says that Christ became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him. The Gospel is the passion according to Saint John.

The Long Island Coalition for Life is holding a GOOD FRIDAY SILENT VIGIL ON BEHALF OF PREBORN CHILDREN

On MARCH 29, 2024, from 10:30am to Noon, in front of Nassau University Medical Center (2201 Hempstead Tpke., East Meadow; on the public sidewalk). Pro-life women, men and children are invited to take part in this peaceful Face the Truth event as a visible reminder that abortion is not healthcare. Tragically, the overturning of Roe v Wade has not stopped the slaughter of preborn babies in NYS. Your participation for even part of the time is important. Signs provided (east end of hospital) or bring your own (no political signs). Information: 631-243-1435; info@prolifeLI.org.

Be There When God Moves

July 17-21, 2024, tens of thousands of passionate Catholics will experience an outpouring of grace on a scale this generation has never seen. This historic moment is called the 10th National Eucharistic Congress. Catholics from every corner of the U.S. will be in Indianapolis for this transformative gathering, and YOU are invited to represent our parish at this pivotal moment!

Whether you join us for the full experience or one day, you'll enjoy world-class teaching from some of the most trusted Catholic voices in the United States. Come encounter and worship Jesus in a new way, and be anointed to share those graces with our community when you return home.

More than ever, you will be proud to be Catholic and excited about the future of the Church in America.

Scan the code to learn more about the event and explore the full schedule for each day. Contact our parish office for more information about registering with your fellow parishioners.

Which Three Days Are The Three Days?

There's a lot of talk in church now about "the Three Days," or in Latin, the "Triduum." These are our most holy of days. They make up our most important single celebration of the year: Easter. But exactly which three days make up the Triduum?

At first this sounds like a stupid questions such as, "What color was Napoleon's white horse?" or "Who's buried in Grant's tomb?" Actually, it's a trick question. Most would say that the Three Days are Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday. And that's wrong! (How could Easter Sunday not be one of the Three Days?!)

The three days of the Triduum are counted using the Jewish way of keeping time: from sunset to sunset. So the first day of the Triduum is from sunset on Holy Thursday until sunset on Good Friday. The second day is from sunset on Good Friday until sunset on Holy Saturday. The third day is from sunset Holy Saturday (the great Easter Vigil) to sunset Easter Sunday (Paschal Vespers).

Does this make any difference-or is it only good Catholic trivia? Here's the difference that it makes. We tend to think of the Three Days as commemorating separate, distinct events: Only Holy Thursday we remember the Last Supper, on Good Friday we recall the passion and on Holy Saturday the resurrection. But in our liturgy, the church thinks about the Last Supper not as the last thing that happened on Holy Thursday, but as the first thing to happen on Good Friday. What new insights into the Eucharist do you have when you think of it as the first act of Christ's passion? What new understanding of Sabbath-the day of rest-do you have when you reflect on the fact that Jesus slept in death from sunset Friday and all through the Jewish Sabbath, Saturday? And how might we spend our Saturday nights if we understood them to truly be the beginning of Sunday-not just during the Triduum, but year round? What does it mean when the deacon or cantor sings at the Virgil that because of the resurrection, this night is brighter than any day?

These Three Days are a single moment. We walk (or crawl) into this moment on Thursday night and walk (or dance) out on Easter day. In between, there's a flood of stories and songs, rites and rest, fasting and feasting. The Three Days are time out of time, the center of our year and of our life.

2024 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

Revitalizing our Faith – Renewed by the Eucharist

"As Christians, we do not only receive a vocation individually; we are also called together. We are like the tiles of a mosaic."

– Pope Francis

Your donation to the Catholic Ministries Appeal supports vocations in our diocese.

Ordained in 2023, Fr. Steven McClernon spoke to us about what his goals are as a priest in our Diocese and how your support has helped him to accomplish this!

"This year's CMA theme, Revitalizing our Faith -- Renewed by the Eucharist, relates to my vocation as it was fostered through Eucharistic Adoration. I see the People of God revitalized and renewed in their faith when I celebrate Mass. I see how people really love receiving the Eucharist. During Covid when we were separated from receiving the Eucharist, it was a difficult time for many. Now seeing the people back to church, and receiving the Eucharist, I am renewed in my faith and I know God's people are revitalized by the true presence of God in the Eucharist.

The CMA has been greatly influential in my life. One of the ministries it supports is the Holy Hours for Vocations at the Seminary. We gather young people from across the Island to hold Eucharistic Adoration. During my college years, this experience was a big part of my faith and my decision to become a priest. The Catholic Ministries Appeal has helped foster my vocation to the priesthood."
