This weekend, we celebrate Trinity Sunday, officially called the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. The Church teaches that the Trinity is a mystery, not in the sense of something to be solved, but rather a reality we come to know through worship, symbols, and faith. It is our belief that God is One - Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, distinct from one another but not divided and are united in will and essence.

On Monday, May 27, we celebrate Memorial Day, a Federal Holiday when we remember all those who gave their lives in service to our country. Memorial Day was formerly called Decoration Day originating from the decoration of the graves of loved ones who died in the Civil War. A congressional proclamation in 1966 cited Waterloo, NY as the birthplace of Memorial Day. Since 1972, Memorial Day has been observed on the last Monday in May.

For those who may have missed my announcement two weeks ago, effective the end of the calendar year I will retire as the Pastor of Holy Name of Jesus. I've had the blessing of serving as Pastor of HNJ for twelve years. The decision to retire is not an easy decision to make but after much thought and prayer and meeting with Bishop Barres, we mutually decided that this would be the best time. Technically I could have retired 6 years ago when I was 72, an option priests have in our Diocese. How does my retirement affect you, the parishioners of Holy Name of Jesus and the KCA? First of all, Fr. Michael Maffeo will become the pastor of Holy Name of Jesus while also remaining as the pastor of St. Edward's in Syosset. We're not the first parish in our Diocese to be affected. Each parish remains distinct and separate parishes. For the most part, everything else remains pretty much the same – Fr. Matthew Kim in residence, Deacon Chris Sisinni, the KCA, the staff at HNJ, the Mass schedule, baptisms, weddings, funerals etc. Since the parish will NOT have a resident pastor (Fr. Mike's residence is at St. Edwards), Bishop Barres accepted the request from Fr. Mike and me that I could have residence at HNJ and assist Fr. Mike in the transition AND continue to have some pastoral ministry at the parish. Sometime before this happens, I expect Fr. Maffeo will come and introduce himself at the Masses. However, many of you already know him since parishioners at both parishes sometimes attend the other parish because of the Mass schedule.

The Spring Raffle will take place on Monday, June 24, at 10:00AM at the Rectory Office. The raffle this year is a 50/50 with three cash prizes: 1st prize is 25% of the total ticket sales, 2nd prize is 15%, and 3rd prize is 10% of the total sales. The other 50% goes to the support of the Church. Tickets are only $10 each, 6 for $50, 12 for $100 and the best – 24 for $150. For every ticket sold, the cash prizes increase. As tickets are sold, we'll update the value of each of the prizes weekly.

WEEKLY MASSES

The Focus: Through baptism we receive our identity as children of God with Christ.

In the first reading the Lord is God of heaven and earth. There is no other. Because God worked wonders for you, keep the commands that you and your children may prosper. In the second reading you did not receive a spirit of slavery but a Spirit of adoption, through whom we cry out "Abba, Father!" The spirit bears witness that we are children of God. In the Gospel, Jesus commissioned the eleven to make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Published Franciscan Media

One Minute Meditations

St. Athanasius of Alexandria

Born a Christian in Egypt, St. Athanasius became a priest and a great defender of the Catholic faith. Recognized for his intelligence and holiness, he was chosen to be secretary to Bishop Alexander of Alexandria, and later succeeded him as bishop. Because of the terrible persecutions and political climate, he was exiled several times during his office. For the rest of his life, St. Athanasius worked to defend the divinity of Christ. He died in 373.

Stress and surrender

Stress can result from feeling powerless in difficulties, yet change isn't always up to us. Knowing when to step back and surrender can actually bring peace. Turning to God with trust gives us the power to navigate life's challenges with faith and serenity.

"St. Joseph the Worker stands as a symbol of quiet strength and faithfulness, teaching us that in the ordinariness of our work, we honor God in profound ways." Pope Francis

Spread the Gospel like Our Lady

On the feast of the Visitation (May 31), we celebrate when Mary carried the Good News of our salvation to Saints Elizabeth and Zechariah – that God took on our humanity to fulfill His promise of salvation. Today, we're also called to bring the same Good News as Mary did.

Be filled with Christ's presence: Jesus indwells in us (John 15:5) to empower us for mission. This is accomplished through the Sacraments – Baptism, Eucharist, Reconciliation. We need to offer God our open, receptive, and attentive hearts.

Become a quiet witness: Mary "kept all these things, pondering them in her heart" (Luke 2:19). Emulate her quiet witness by living with deep faith and trust in God's plan, letting your actions demonstrate the strength of your beliefs.

Proclaim the greatness of the Lord: Mary's Magnificat recalls the ways God answered the needs of His people, culminating in the coming of His Son. Can you articulate your own Magnificat – recounting God's loving intervention in your life? If not, ask the Holy Spirit to reveal it to you so you can share it with others.

Serve with humble love: After receiving the news that she was to become the mother of the eternal King, Mary rushed to St. Elizabeth's side to serve her. Look for ways to imitate our humble Queen. Serve with love.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why is Pentecost the "birthday of the Church?"

Pentecost is referred to as the "birthday of the Church" because it marks the day when the Holy Spirit descended upon the Apostles, empowering them to preach the Gospel across nations, effectively initiating the spread of Christianity. This event, occurring fifty days after Easter, symbolizes the Church's emergence as a global community united under the teachings of Christ. It celebrates the moment when the Apostles began to baptize thousands, leading to the rapid growth of the Christian faith.

2024 Catholic Ministries Appeal

As Catholics, we are called to spread the Good News to all those we meet. Jesus says to His Apostles (and all of us), "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age." (Matthew 28:19-20).

How are you answering this call in your life? As members of the Catholic Church on Long Island, we can answer this call and help spread the Faith to our youth and young adults, as well as to many others who depend on us, by supporting the Catholic Ministries Appeal

Your gifts help to fund formation programs that bring people closer to Christ. One such program is Camp Quo Vadis for our youth. This camp is so vital to the mission of the Church because it quenches the spiritual thirst that so many young people on Long Island experience. The more our young people seek out Christ and the more the Church helps them to navigate their journey—the better our future will be.

"The camp revitalizes the faith by helping young people understand who God is and develops their relationship with Him. It keeps young people close to God by learning more through the sacraments by offering Mass and time for Eucharistic Adoration. Seeing their faith grow and seeing faith through the eyes of our youth strengthens my faith."

There are many other ministries funded by the CMA that support the education of youth and young adults in addition to seminarians and those preparing for the Diaconate. I invite you to visit the website for the CMA to learn more about what the CMA does: https://www.catholicministriesappeal.org/.

Let us come together to spread the Good News to the people of God on Long Island so that we can build a solid foundation for the future of our Catholic Community.

Please know that I thank you for your consideration of this special request to make a gift to the 2024 Catholic Ministries Appeal. I remind you that no gift is too small, and every gift makes a difference in the lives of our young people - the now and the future of our Catholic Church.
