The Diocese of Rockville Centre is hosting its Annual Camp Quo Vadis for youth in grades 8 through 12 on July 27 at St. Anthony High School. This initiative helps high school students better understand the question, "Where are you going?" The day includes Mass with Bishop Barres, inspiring talks, lunch, games, and Holy Hour. For more information and/or to register, please visit campquovadis.com.

Please mark your calendars and plan to attend the Parish Picnic along with the Eucharistic Procession on Saturday, August 17. The Procession begins at 4:30 pm followed by the 5:15 PM Vigil Mass and the picnic following the Family Mass. The celebrant of the Mass will be Fr. Fred Marano. I will concelebrate and most likely we will have the presence of a couple more priests. Please see the information elsewhere in the bulletin along with making a reservation.

The Missionaries of the Most Holy Eucharist invite all parishioners to A EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS EXPERIENCE on Thursday, July 25 at 6:00 PM at St. Agnes Cathedral. This Eucharistic Experience will include the Divine Mercy Chaplet, Mass, Procession and Benediction. Any questions or for more information, please contact Joanne at 516-554-3320.

The 2024 Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA) which serves over 600,000 people on Long Island is well underway. Please be aware that your gift to the Appeal is used specifically to help fund the various diocesan ministries. All gifts are important and make a difference. No gift is too small. Please remember, when you give a gift to the CMA, you help the parish reach its goal and receive a rebate of 20% of the parish goal. Thank you to the 56 parishioners who have responded to date with gifts or pledges to the 2024 CMA. If you did not send a gift or make a pledge, please do so in the near future.

In a little over three months from now, we will have the opportunity to exercise our right to vote and choose the next President of the United States of America. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops reminds us to register, to become informed on key issues, and to vote. The Church does not support or oppose any candidate but seeks to focus attention on the moral and human dimensions of issues. As we pray for guidance to make the best choice possible, let us also pray for civility.

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday July 21st, 2024

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Focus: The Lord is our shepherd, guiding and protecting us, and providing for all things. In the first reading, Jeremiah proclaims that the Lord sees the misdeeds of the shepherds who shepherd his people and will punish them. He will appoint shepherds who will shepherd his people so they no longer fear and tremble. In the second reading Saint Paul writes that through the sacrifice of Christ, we have become close to God. In the Gospel, the Apostles and Jesus go off to rest and are followed by a vast crowd. Moved by their lack of a shepherd to guide them, Jesus teaches them many things. Published Franciscan Media

St. Mary Magdalene is one of the greatest saints of the Bible and a legendary example of God's mercy and grace. The precise dates of her birth and death are unknown, but we do know she was present with Christ during his public ministry, death and resurrection. She is mentioned at least a dozen times in the Gospels. Mary Magdalene has long been regarded as a prostitute or sexually immoral in western Christianity, but this is not supported in the scriptures. It is believed she was a Jewish woman who lived among Gentiles, living as they did.

The Gospels agree that Mary was originally a great sinner. Jesus cast seven demons out of her when he met her. After this, she told several women she associated with and these women also became followers.

There is also debate over if Mary Magdalene is the same unnamed women, a sinner, who weeps and washes Jesus' feet with her hair in the Gospel of John. Scholars are skeptical this is the same person.

Despite the scholarly dispute over her background, what she did in her subsequent life, after meeting Jesus, is much more significant. She was certainly a sinner whom Jesus saved, giving us an example of how no person is beyond the saving grace of God.

WARRIOR FOR CHRIST

Several years ago, the Knights of Columbus produced a Video entitled Everyday Heroes Episode 1: Not Your Average Joe. The video is a concise story of the short life of Joseph Mario Reali, the son of Lisa and Michael Reali, who was called home to God on January , 2015. The Knights of Columbus, along with the Reali family, are overjoyed to announce that a longer version of the K of C video has been produced and is entitled Warrior for Christ: The Life of Joe Reali. The video will be broadcast on the following dates and networks:

EWTN: Saturday July 27 at 5:30 pm and Tuesday, July 30 at 9:00 am.

New York State Catholic Conference

THE OFFICIAL VOICE OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH IN THE EMPIRE STATE

Re: "Equal Rights Amendment" ballot referendum

As you may be aware, a referendum that is on the general election ballot for this November is asking voters to approve or reject what is known as an Equal Rights Amendment to the New York State Constitution. While some of the language of the proposed amendment is unobjectionable, the New York State Catholic Conference, which represents the Bishops of New York State in public policy matters, strongly opposes the referendum for two primary reasons.

First, it would enshrine a fundamental right to abortion on demand in the state Constitution. While the practical impact of this likely would be minimal given that the state legislature already has embedded this right in statute, by adding it to the state Constitution, it would make it nearly impossible to enact any pro-life laws even if public opinion in New York was to evolve.

Second, because the language of the amendment would bar discrimination based either on "age" or "gender identity" or "gender expression," it could open the door to a judicial interpretation barring parents from having any say in medical interventions of their minor children regarding "gender transition" and could impact youth sports, locker room and bathroom facility use and more. We also have concerns regarding religious liberty implications for our charitable institutions.

A ballot issue committee has been formed as the formal opposition to the Equal Rights Amendment. Known as the Coalition to Protect Kids (CTPK), this committee is registered with the New York State Board of Elections and reports on its funding and expenditures in accordance with state election law.

The so-called ERA reads as though it simply promotes 'freedom and justice for all,' but it potentially harms children, families, and religious institutions; its impacts are far reaching. NY statutes already protect against the horrors of discrimination as does our current NYS Constitution.

The ERA goes further, by not only eroding parental authority and crystallizing 'rights' for children that could be dangerous for them, but by threatening the ability of churches and other religious institutions to promote principles misaligned with radical reproductive and gender ideology.

Dear Friends:

As we continue to celebrate our National Eucharistic Revival, we are bringing true love into the world by sharing and supporting opportunities for the faithful to fall deeper in love with Jesus in the Eucharist and to cast nets of Eucharistic charity to all of Long Island and to the world.

In our Diocese, the Catholic Ministries Appeal helps us to cast these nets. From Elmont to Montauk, because of this Appeal, the Church is present in each community helping those in need.

Our Parish Social Ministry programs assist those in the community with basic necessities like food, clothing or just a helping hand. Catholic Charities assists our fellow Long Islanders with housing, substance abuse issues and maternity management. It supports seminarians through their discernment and formation and ensures that our young people can continue to grow in their knowledge and love of our Catholic faith.

The Catholic Church on Long Island serves the mission of the Church and the common good by assisting so many people spiritually, emotionally, and physically.

At the recent Eucharistic Pilgrimage that brought the Blessed Sacrament in a Monstrance from the St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Shrine in lower Manhattan across the Brooklyn Bridge in view of the Statue of Liberty, I was inspired by the many people, a mosaic of many faces and ages, witnessing to the truths of our faith and encouraging those who are inactive in their faith to rekindle their love for the Eucharist and the Mass.

Your gifts to the Catholic Ministries Appeal are integral to this Eucharistic mission. If you have not done so already, I ask you to please consider making a gift to the 2024 Catholic Ministries Appeal.
