The Procession begins at 4:30 pm followed by the 5:15 PM Vigil Mass and the picnic following the Family Mass. The celebrant of the Mass will be Fr. Fred Marano. I will concelebrate and most likely we will have the presence of a couple more priests. Please see the information elsewhere in the bulletin along with making a reservation.

The 2024 Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA) which serves over 600,000 people on Long Island is well underway. Please be aware that your gift to the Appeal is used specifically to help fund the various diocesan ministries. All gifts are important and make a difference. No gift is too small. Please remember, when you give a gift to the CMA, you help the parish reach its goal and receive a rebate of 20% of the parish goal. Thank you to the 56 parishioners who have responded to date with gifts or pledges to the 2024 CMA. If you did not send a gift or make a pledge, please do so in the near future.

As previously mentioned, the Knights of Columbus produced a video entitled Everyday Heroes Episode 1: Not Your Average Joe. The video is a concise story of the short life of Joseph Mario Reali who was the first to sign the information sheet of men interested in becoming a Knight of Columbus and establishing a Council at Holy Name of Jesus. Joe was unexpectedly called home to God on January 16, 2015, before a Council was established at HNJ. Because of his interest and enthusiasm in becoming a Knight, our Council proudly bears his name. A viewing of the video is planned for Tuesday, July 30 at 9:00 AM on EWTN. The video may also be viewed at www.kofc.org/Reali*.

Please copy the last paragraph which begins in a little over three months …. Change the last sentence to read: Let us pray for guidance and inspiration to make the best choice possible as we cast our vote. For more information about the upcoming elections, please see the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops and/or New York State Catholic Conference.

In a little over three months from now, we will have the opportunity to exercise our right to vote and choose the next President of the United States of America. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops reminds us to register, to become informed on key issues, and to vote. The Church does not support or oppose any candidate but seeks to focus attention on the moral and human dimensions of issues. Let us pray for guidance and inspiration to make the best choice possible as we cast our vote. For more information about the upcoming elections, please see the United States Conference of Catholic bishops and/or New York State Catholic Conference.

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday July 28th, 2024

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Focus: God provides for us.

In the first reading, Elisha feeds 100 people from 20 barley loaves and there is some left over. Paul writes to the Ephesians encouraging them to live in a manner worthy of their call, with an emphasis on preserving unity. In the Gospel, Jesus feeds 5,000 from five barley loaves and two fish, and there are 12 baskets left over.

Prayer for Civility

MAKE ME AN INSTRUMENT OF YOUR PEACE.

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.

Where uncivil words prevail, show me how to model love. Help me remember the God-given dignity of all and invite others to do the same.

Show me how to build bridges and not walls and see first what unites us rather than how we diverge.

Let me seek to understand before asking to be understood. Give me a listening heart filled with empathy and compassion.

May I be clear in sharing my own position and respectful and civil in describing those of others.

Let me never tolerate hateful ideas.

May I invite all to charity and love.

Lord, help me to imitate your compassion and mercy.

Make me an instrument of your peace.

Amen

WARRIOR FOR CHRIST

Several years ago, the Knights of Columbus produced a Video entitled Everyday Heroes Episode 1: Not Your Average Joe. The video is a concise story of the short life of Joseph Mario Reali, the son of Lisa and Michael Reali, who was called home to God on January 16, 2015. The Knights of Columbus, along with the Reali family, are overjoyed to announce that a longer version of the K of C video has been produced and is entitled Warrior for Christ: The Life of Joe Reali. The video will be broadcast on the following dates and networks:

Shake Off the Dust

Our kitchen floor is at least 35 years old, and it's the ugliest color to come out of the '80s. But it's a good, durable floor, and my husband, bless his heart, guards it like it was a finely finished hardwood imported from Brazil.

Every time the kids track mud and sand across its vinyl surface, he immediately gets down on his hands and knees and lovingly wipes the mess away. I'm too impatient to do this myself — we have kids, so we're going to have a dirty floor, is my attitude. But this is the hill upon which my husband dies. On hands and knees, scraping dirt off an almost 40-year-old floor, he is the silent, long-suffering sentry, and if it kills him, he will keep these floors pristine. He is Gandalf, and the dirt is the Balrog. You shall not pass.

"Shake the dust off your feet." This is what Christ tells his disciples to do when they — and his word — are rejected. Shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them. Why does he say that? It's not an act of dismissal. It's not a thumbed nose or a stuck-out tongue. No, it's an act of caution: Don't bring it with you. Leave it there.

When we walk through the world, we pick up a lot of dirt. Misguided notions, disordered priorities, habits, and desires that we never noticed until we realized they left a trail. We come into a situation intending to do what is right, but somehow it all goes sideways, and we walk away from it with detritus clinging to us in places we don't notice. They wouldn't listen. They'll see, we think. Oh, they'll see. They'll see how right I was. Pride and vengeance hitch a ride on the soles of our feet, and we track them all through the world.

What to do about this? You can be like me with my ugly old floor. You can shrug your shoulders and say, "It happens, I guess. I'm only human. I meant well."

But here's what would be better: be like my husband. Get down on your knees and get rid of the dirt. Stop the trail in its tracks.

"So they went off and preached repentance." — Mark 6:12

New York State Catholic Conference

THE OFFICIAL VOICE OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH IN THE EMPIRE STATE

Re: "Equal Rights Amendment" ballot referendum

As you may be aware, a referendum that is on the general election ballot for this November is asking voters to approve or reject what is known as an Equal Rights Amendment to the New York State Constitution. While some of the language of the proposed amendment is unobjectionable, the New York State Catholic Conference, which represents the Bishops of New York State in public policy matters, strongly opposes the referendum for two primary reasons.

First, it would enshrine a fundamental right to abortion on demand in the state Constitution. While the practical impact of this likely would be minimal given that the state legislature already has embedded this right in statute, by adding it to the state Constitution, it would make it nearly impossible to enact any pro-life laws even if public opinion in New York was to evolve.

Second, because the language of the amendment would bar discrimination based either on "age" or "gender identity" or "gender expression," it could open the door to a judicial interpretation barring parents from having any say in medical interventions of their minor children regarding "gender transition" and could impact youth sports, locker room and bathroom facility use and more. We also have concerns regarding religious liberty implications for our charitable institutions.

A ballot issue committee has been formed as the formal opposition to the Equal Rights Amendment. Known as the Coalition to Protect Kids (CTPK), this committee is registered with the New York State Board of Elections and reports on its funding and expenditures in accordance with state election law.

The so-called ERA reads as though it simply promotes 'freedom and justice for all,' but it potentially harms children, families, and religious institutions; its impacts are far reaching. NY statutes already protect against the horrors of discrimination as does our current NYS Constitution.

The ERA goes further, by not only eroding parental authority and crystallizing 'rights' for children that could be dangerous for them, but by threatening the ability of churches and other religious institutions to promote principles misaligned with radical reproductive and gender ideology.

Dear Friends:

As we continue to celebrate our National Eucharistic Revival, we are bringing true love into the world by sharing and supporting opportunities for the faithful to fall deeper in love with Jesus in the Eucharist and to cast nets of Eucharistic charity to all of Long Island and to the world.

In our Diocese, the Catholic Ministries Appeal helps us to cast these nets. From Elmont to Montauk, because of this Appeal, the Church is present in each community helping those in need.

Our Parish Social Ministry programs assist those in the community with basic necessities like food, clothing or just a helping hand. Catholic Charities assists our fellow Long Islanders with housing, substance abuse issues and maternity management. It supports seminarians through their discernment and formation and ensures that our young people can continue to grow in their knowledge and love of our Catholic faith.

The Catholic Church on Long Island serves the mission of the Church and the common good by assisting so many people spiritually, emotionally, and physically.
