New York's Bishops urge a "No" vote on Ballot Proposal 1

By Rick Hinshaw

This so-called "Equal Rights" amendment to the state Constitution will not advance equality. It will instead undermine parental rights; attack religious freedom; and enshrine unrestricted abortion, up to the moment of birth, in the New York State Constitution.

By prohibiting "discrimination" based on "gender identity, gender expression, pregnancy, pregnancy outcomes, and reproductive healthcare and autonomy," as well as "age," this proposal could be used to:

- grant a constitutional right, even for underage minors, to have abortions or permanent surgeries altering their gender without parental knowledge or consent;
- require women and underage girls to compete against biological men and boys in scholastic sports, and share restroom, locker room and shower facilities with biological males;
- mandate that Catholic hospitals perform abortions and "gender transitioning" surgical mutilations, even on minors—or else close their doors, depriving millions of New Yorkers of the vital services provided by Catholic healthcare;
- require that faith-based charities either act in violation of their religious beliefs—for example, housing biological males in shelters for abused women—or be shut down, depriving vulnerable people of their charitable services;
- force pro-life pregnancy support centers to provide referrals for abortion, or close their doors, depriving mothers and babies of their life-affirming care;
- open the door for churches and religious organizations to be sued if their teachings, ministries, or hiring policies conflict with the "rights" of gender expression and identity.

The proposed "Equal Rights Amendment" is a collection of self-evident contradictions:

- Under the guise of prohibiting discrimination, it would discriminate against people and institutions of faith.
- Under the guise of protecting privacy, it would destroy women's privacy in restrooms, locker rooms, showers, and homeless shelters.
- Under the guise of promoting equality, it would undermine women's equality in sports.
- And of course, it denies equality for unborn children, whose mass destruction would be further advanced by its provisions.

The Bishops of New York State urge Catholics to VOTE "NO" on Proposal 1

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday November 3rd, 2024
31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Focus - God's love is the foundation of his law. In the first reading, Moses instructs the people to love God and keep his commands. In the second reading, the eternal priesthood of Jesus is contrasted with the earthly Levitical priesthood. In the Gospel, Jesus speaks of the greatest commandments as the command to love God and the command to love your neighbor as yourself. Published Franciscan Media

AMAZING GRACE

The story of "Amazing Grace" is about John Newton, a former slave trader who wrote the song in 1772 to inspire his congregation.

Newton's life was tumultuous, marked by a near-death experience on a slave ship, fighting against authority and being abandoned by his crew.

In 1748, Newton prayed to God to save him and his ship from sinking during a violent storm. He was spared and the ship reached safety, which he considered a moment of conversion to Christianity.

Newton wrote the lyrics for his 1773 New Year's service at the Church of St. Peter and St. Paul in Olney, England. The tune wasn't written for another 50 years. The song's lyrics describes the joy and peace of a soul uplifted from despair to salvation through the gift of grace. Newton's words are also an autobiographical commentary on his own experience.

Growing in FAITH™

Discovering hope and joy in the Catholic faith. November 2024

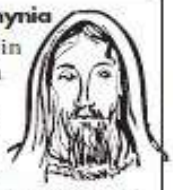
Holy Name of Jesus Church

Rev. Msgr. Richard C. Bauhoff, Pastor

One Minute Meditations

St. Josaphat of Volhynia



Born in Lithuania in 1580, St. Josaphat, a Ruthenian Archbishop of Plotsk, made the unpopular decision to unite his diocese with the Catholic Church. In response to the death threats his efforts provoked, he declared, "I am here among you as a shepherd, and you ought to know that I would be happy to give my life for you." Despite relentless persecution by a schismatic faction, he remained steadfast in his mission and was ultimately martyred by an enraged mob.

Be prepared, not afraid

Jesus warns us to expect trials but assures us not to be afraid. Following Him doesn't mean life will be easy, but it promises unshakable peace and everlasting joy. Trust in Him and prepare your heart to receive Him.

"Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a little, I will set you over much; enter into the joy of your master" (Matthew 25:21).

Become friends with God's friends

Befriending a saint whose story resonates with your own can deepen your connection with God. Through their writings, prayers, and practices, saints offer wisdom for living faithfully and acquiring virtue. They aren't distant figures but companions in faith. Find a special, "holy friend" to encourage you to grow in holiness.

Adopt a saint: Choose a saint whose life, interests, or profession appeal to you. Learning how someone achieved extraordinary virtue can attune you to how God might be working in your life.

Read their writings: The saints' meditations, letters, and books on the spiritual life can enrich our experience of God's love, while giving practical advice for living our Faith.

Imitate a saintly practice: Wake with your alarm to offer your day to God. Offer a small sacrifice daily for priests. Make space in your heart for God by decluttering your home. Refuse to gossip.

Pray with them: When asking earthly friends for help or prayers, we aren't "praying" to them. It's the same with our heavenly friends. When you pray, invite some "holy friends" to add their prayers to yours.

Join them at Mass: "In communion with and commemorating the Blessed Virgin Mary and all the saints, the Church offers the Eucharistic sacrifice" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, #1370). At every Mass, we're in the company of the saints.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics believe in Purgatory?

This doctrine has scriptural roots. In Jesus' parable of Lazarus and the Rich Man (Luke 16:19-31), the Rich Man, though suffering after death, expressed concern for his brothers. Other references include 2 Maccabees 12:43-46, Wisdom 3:1-6, Zechariah 13:8-9, and 1 Corinthians 3:13-15. Purgatory reflects God's mercy and generosity, because it reflects His desire for us to be with Him and experience the fullness of Heaven. Our prayers for those in Purgatory help hasten their purification, drawing them closer to eternal joy.

He currently serves as the director of the St. Francis Youth Center in the South Bronx and is a local superior within the Friars.

2024 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

Revitalizing our Faith – Renewed by the Eucharist

As the last few months of the Appeal are upon us, I am writing to ask that, if you have not already done so, you might consider joining with me, by making a gift to the 2024 Catholic Ministries Appeal.

I am grateful to those who have already contributed to the good work we are trying to accomplish together here on Long Island. Every dollar helps to bring Christ to so many who need to hear His voice, feel His healing touch, and be inspired by works of catechesis and evangelization.

As a faith-filled parish community, all of us recognize the responsibility of bringing our young people into our family of faith and guiding them on their lifelong journey with Christ. Our Diocese continues to focus on ministries that support young Catholics and their baptismal call to holiness; to welcome the contributions they make to the Church and help them grow in faith. Such growth is key for young Catholics in discerning the state of life that would best correspond to what God wants from them.

Thanks to your gifts to the Catholic Ministries Appeal, Youth, Young Adult and Campus Ministry Programs are responding to the call for action by offering many opportunities for young people to engage in a dialogue with Bishop Barres, priests and religious, youth and young adult ministers and their peers.

Michaela, a participant at a Holy Hour at our Seminary shared, "My faith is so important to me – without it I would be lost. I would not always have God's voice with me. He guides me!"

Your support helps us continue to teach and pass on our faith to our young people!

Thank you most sincerely for your consideration of this special request to make a gift to the 2024 Catholic Ministries Appeal. No gift is ever too small, and all gifts make a difference in the lives of our young people – the future leaders of our church and the wider community.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
