I'm sure you'll recall that the Diocese entered into bankruptcy in 2020. The goal has been to equitably compensate the survivors of abuse, to end historical lawsuits against the Diocese and the parishes, and to allow the Church to continue her mission. The Diocese has issued the followed statement and is available on the diocesan website:

The Diocese of Rockville Centre and its related ministries are grateful that preliminary terms have been agreed upon for the settlement of our bankruptcy case. For the sake of survivors and the Church's mission on Long Island, we pray that the plan is approved and completed as quickly as possible.

The total proposed settlement amount is just over $323 million, which includes insurance contributions, Diocesan assets and sale proceeds from Diocesan property, and contributions from parishes and other related entities. The Diocese, Parishes and other related entities will contribute a total of $234.8 million. Insurance companies will contribute a total of just over $85 million. Counsel for the Creditor's Committee will contribute $3 million. All participated in order to help offer equitable compensation to survivors and move this difficult ordeal towards a conclusion.

Part of the settlement plan involves all parishes entering into an abbreviated Chapter 11 with the approval of the court and the parties to the case in order to secure a release from liability for the parishes. It is expected that parish Chapter 11's will be resolved within 48 hours of filing and will not interfere with parish work and ministries. No parishes are closing as a result of this process.

The Diocese's goal has always been the equitable compensation of survivors of abuse while allowing the Church to continue her essential mission. We believe that this plan will achieve those goals.

Let us remember to pray for the victim survivors of sexual abuse and their families. Hopefully this resolution will give them some measure of comfort.

If you hear or read that parishes are declaring bankruptcy, please do not panic. Just because you read it or heard it mentioned in the media, that doesn't mean that its accurate. As stated above in the diocesan statement, parishes will enter into "… an abbreviated Chapter 11 with the approval of the court and the parties …. It is expected that parish Chapter 11's will be resolved within 48 hours…. No parishes are closing as a result of this process."

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday October 6th, 2024
27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Focus: God desires for us to love and be loved, as he loves. In the first reading, God creates a suitable partner for man, forming woman from his rib. In the second reading, the author writes about how Christ was, for a little while, made lower than the angels and therefore is not ashamed to call us brothers. In the Gospel, Jesus answers the Pharisees' question regarding the legality of divorce and reiterates the permanence of the marriage bond.

ALL SOULS REMEMBERANCE MASS NOVEMBER 2ND

Many of us have lost loved ones during the past year that we would like to remember. Please submit A COPY of a wallet size to post card size photo to be placed on a memorial board which will be displayed in the front of the altar. When we pray for the souls that perished from our parish, we will also pray for all persons being memorialized by photos. Please place them in the designated basket located in the narthex no later than October 31st. These photos will not be returned.

ALL SOULS NOVENA

We remember and pray for our dearly departed. All Souls Novena intention envelopes are available in the church or rectory. The Novena of Masses begins November 2nd. Envelopes may be returned to the rectory office or the basket at church.

Hymn Corner

Month of October

Like many of our fine hymns this text is really a sermon in verse. In the first stanza the sure foundation of the Christian faith is established as being the Word of God. This challenging question is posed: what more can God do than provide His very Word as a completed revelation of Himself to man? The succeeding verses personalize the precious promises from His Word:

Verse Two-Isaiah 41:10-"Fear thou not, for I am with thee, be not dismayed, for I am thy God...

Verse Three-Isaiah 43:2-"When though passest through the waters, I will be with thee...

Verse Four-2 Corinthians 12:9-"My grace is sufficient for thee; For my strength is made perfect in weakness.

Verse Five-Hebrews 13:5-"I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee"

"How Firm a Foundation" has been a favorite hymn and testimonial of many of God's children throughout the years. It was the favorite of such American leaders as Theodore Roosevelt, Andrew Jackson, who requested that it be sung at his bedside shortly before he died at the Hermitage, as well as Robert E. Lee, who also requested it for his funeral hymn "as an expression of his full trust in the ways of the Heavenly Father:"

Stand Up For Life: Respect Life Sunday Oct. 6th, 2024

First Sunday in October

Have you ever thought about going to the March for Life in Washington DC in January? Do you know about the largest Pro-Life event right here on Long Island for 27 years?

Stand Up For Life on 10/6/2024 this RESPECT LIFE SUNDAY - 2:00 to 3:30 PM. Join us in Huntington at State Routes 110 & 25 (near the Walt Whitman Mall) or in Manorville south of the Long Island Expressway, LIE at exit 70S on County Road 111, rain or shine.

This Vigil is part of a nationwide family friendly event, held at hundreds of cities across the USA & Canada. Your sign is available at the site, you do not have to bring anything, come as you are to this Family-Friendly event, and you can bring a friend or the whole family. You can come for part of the time or the full 90 minutes; know by your presence there that you help save a life. There is strength in unity.

ALL PRO LIFE PEOPLE ARE WELCOME.

For information contact (631) 243-1435 or email Info@ProLifeLI.org.

The above photo is from the Joseph Mario Reali Knights of Columbus Installation of Officers meeting, which was held last week. Msgr. Bauhoff is the council's Pastor.

One Minute Meditations

St. Teresa of Avila

Born in 1515, St. Teresa joined the Carmelites—over family objections—in 1535. Soon after, she became so ill that the sisters dug a grave for her. St. Teresa recovered and wrote a book on prayer called The Interior Castle, based on her suffering. In 1562, she founded a stricter order whose nuns wore rough brown habits and sandals instead of shoes. Despite initial resistance, she founded several convents of Discalced Carmelites and helped reform the Carmelite friars.

"I need all eternity to love them."

Jesus confided these words to Gabrielle Bossis referring to us. By spending time with God, we get vital graces and limitless love. God wants to spend all eternity with us. Can you give five minutes to Him today?

"Those who trust in the LORD are like Mount Zion, which cannot be moved, but abides forever. As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so the LORD surrounds his people" (Psalm 125:1-2).

Holiness grows from deep roots in God's Love

God is crazy-in-love with each of us: "In this is love: not that we loved God, but that He loved us" (1 John 4:10). Holiness begins when we accept His "crazy love" (John 15:9) and return it. We can do this by meeting God in the present moment, renewing our "Yes" to Him each day, and receiving the Sacraments:

Meet God in the "now." It's tempting to delay approaching God until life is wonderful or awful. Yet, like any loving parent, He delights to be with us always (Proverbs 8:31), even when life is messy, unfinished, or imperfect. He knows we can't change ourselves without His grace. Give Him your heart "as is," and receive the grace of the present moment.

Renew your "yes" daily. Aligning with God's teachings and Commandments, as revealed in Scripture, affirms our "yes" to Him, showing trust in His plan over our own. Beginning each day with a sincere "yes" in prayer strengthens us to say "yes" in all areas of life.

Stay close to the Sacraments. Living the Faith is a battle, and the Church encourages us to protect ourselves with grace through the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist (in the Mass) and monthly Confession. In the Sacraments, God pours His grace and love into us, empowering us to share His love with others.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics wear saints' medals?

One way to recognize a Catholic is the crucifix or saint medal he or she may wear. Often blessed by a priest or deacon, these symbols represent the protection of God, Our Lady, or the saint depicted. Rather than being "good luck charms," they are sacramentals—consecrated objects meant to open the wearer's heart to God's grace. More than just adornments, they serve as constant, holy reminders to live out the values of the Catholic Faith in everyday life.

As the last few months of the Appeal are upon us, I am writing to ask that, if you have not already done so, you might consider joining with me, by making a gift to the 2024 Catholic Ministries Appeal.

I am grateful to those who have already contributed to the good work we are trying to accomplish together here on Long Island. Every dollar helps to bring Christ to so many who need to hear His voice, feel His healing touch, and be inspired by works of catechesis and evangelization.

As a faith-filled parish community, all of us recognize the responsibility of bringing our young people into our family of faith and guiding them on their lifelong journey with Christ. Our Diocese continues to focus on ministries that support young Catholics and their baptismal call to holiness; to welcome the contributions they make to the Church and help them grow in faith. Such growth is key for young Catholics in discerning the state of life that would best correspond to what God wants from them.

Thanks to your gifts to the Catholic Ministries Appeal, Youth, Young Adult and Campus Ministry Programs are responding to the call for action by offering many opportunities for young people to engage in a dialogue with Bishop Barres, priests and religious, youth and young adult ministers and their peers.

Michaela, a participant at a Holy Hour at our Seminary shared, "My faith is so important to me – without it I would be lost. I would not always have God's voice with me. He guides me!"

Your support helps us continue to teach and pass on our faith to our young people!

Thank you most sincerely for your consideration of this special request to make a gift to the 2024 Catholic Ministries Appeal. No gift is ever too small, and all gifts make a difference in the lives of our young people – the future leaders of our church and the wider community.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
