A Letter from Father Mike

My Dear Parish Family of Holy Name of Jesus,

I was hoping to introduce myself to you in person this past weekend, however due to scheduling and both Fr. Hyacinth and Msgr. Beckermann being away, I had to postpone my coming to Holy Name. Rest assured, I will indeed introduce myself in person sometime in the weeks ahead. As you know our dear friend and pastor Msgr. Bauhoff is set to retire as of January 1st, and at that time I will assume the office of pastor of Holy Name of Jesus Church. At the same time, I will still be the pastor of St. Edward's. As you can guess, this will present a challenge to all of us, as I try to do my best in serving both parishes. Please keep me in your prayers and ask God to give me the strength and grace necessary to carry out all my responsibilities.

In many ways I am looking forward to the new challenges as it offers us a way to grow together and share our wonderful gifts with each other. I am likewise happy that Msgr. Bauhoff will still be living and serving here for a long time. His presence will make the transition easier for all of us. I have known Msgr. since I was in Jr. High, as he was an associate pastor at Our Lady of Perpetual Help in Lindenhurst where I grew up. I must say we have been blessed to have him in our lives.

I look forward to meeting you in person, and I do know that some of you know me already from attending Mass occasionally at St. Edward's.

Thank you and God bless you always,

Fr. Mike

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday December 29th, 2024

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary & Joseph

The Focus - Let the peace of Christ control your hearts. In today's first reading, Sirach writes of the proper relationship between parents and children. In the second reading, Paul instructs the community on how to conduct themselves as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved. In the Gospel, Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem as Mary and Joseph made their way home. They found him in the temple, and he said: Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house? Published Franciscan Media

The Epiphany of the Lord

Ceremony

Epiphany chalk is used to write the Epiphany inscription above the main door(s) of the home whether inside or outside. Priests bless the chalk on Epiphany Day, January 6, using the following blessing, taken from the Roman Ritual.

At first glance, the Epiphany blessing inscription looks like some sort of mathematical equation. However, this is not the case. Each character in the inscription has meaning. The letters represent the initials of the three Wise Men: Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar. The inscription should thus remind us of the intercession and virtues of these saints. The inscription should call to mind that the Magi are our heavenly guides and that, if we turn to them, they will assist us and our family on the journey towards the eternal Bethlehem of Heaven. The sight of the C+M+B should also remind us of the Magi's courage in undertaking the difficult journey, as well as their perseverance and confidence in God when they lost sight of the star. Finally, we ought to recall at the sight of the marked lintel that the Magi gave God the best gifts they possessed and that we too, at all times should give our best for the honor and glory of God. They tiny crosses marked between the numbers and letters also have significance. The Cross is the universal sign of Catholicism. They tiny crosses on the doorpost of one's home are therefore a sign that the home is a Catholic one and that those who dwell therein are faithful soldiers of Christ the King and that they are fighting under the standard of the Cross.

It Is Well with my Soul

Hymn Corner

By Bill Dagle

More than likely you have heard or read the story behind the writing of It Is Well with my Soul. The author, Horatio Spafford, born October 22, 1828 in Troy, New York, grew up to become a successful lawyer in Chicago. He wrote the words to It Is Well with my Soul after receiving the tragic news of the death of his four daughters.

On the fateful night of November 22, 1873, the Ville de Havre, a passenger ship, sank in a mid-ocean collision. Out of his entire family, only his wife survived. Back in 1873, Horatio had decided to take his family to France and then on to Switzerland. That's why passage had been booked on the French liner, S. S. Ville de Havre. Because of last minute business, Horatio planned to stay behind a few weeks, then catch up with his family. Having gone to New York and after boarding the ship, an uneasy feeling caused him to have the family's cabins changed to the bow of the ship. I would be just a few days later, at two in the morning, that the ship would be cut in two right at the cabins the Spaffords had left. In less than twelve minutes, the children succumbed to the rushing water, but Anna survived. If the changing of cabins hadn't happened, she too would have died. Had Anna died, history would have taken a different course because it was when Spafford was in route to reunite with his wife, after the accident, that he penned the words to the song.

For many of us, when troubles come our way, it is hard to understand why. If only we too could say, "When sorrows like sea billows roll, it is well, it is well with my soul." I believe, with Christ Jesus, we can. Horatio Spafford did.

NEWS FROM HNJ ENVIRONMENTAL COMMITTEE

The committee would like to take this opportunity to thank HNJ parishioners for all the accolades many of you have expressed to Msg. Bauhoff or to the dedicated members regarding the décor and exhibits displayed in our church. The committee truly appreciates your gracious and generous compliments and contributions.

Much thought, research, effort, and time goes into the innovative designs and exhibits created to celebrate each season in the liturgical year. The items made are intended for future use. We respectfully request that the pieces used on our pews and or the altar NOT be removed from HNJ Church and that the displays be left in their original set up, as each is thoughtfully and carefully placed in accordance with the specific time of year. Thank you in advance for this courtesy and your kind consideration and cooperation.

Yours in Christ
The Environmental Committee
