Have you gotten over the Holidays yet? Are you still cleaning up and are you trying to get things back to normal? Is there still a gift you have not opened or have been unable to give a last gift to a family member or friend you have not seen? As we enter this Second Sunday of Ordinary Time, we have likewise found that the Christmas season is not yet over because we have left over gifts. In the Letter from St. Paul to the Corinthians we see a multitude of Spiritual Gifts, as St. Paul writes, "There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone." Paul continues to tell us that every gift is given for some benefit. He then provides a list of some of the gifts. There is wisdom, knowledge, faith, healing, mighty deeds, prophecy, discernment of spirits, varieties of tongues, and likewise interpretation of tongues. But along with the gifts, Paul tells everyone who has been given them, to realize that they come from the Holy Spirit, and they are given to the community and its members for the good of all. They are not given to anyone to use for their personal benefit. Also, each of the gifts given by the Spirit are equal in nature, one gift is not better than another gift. He had to speak about this, because the Church at Corinth was thinking that they were better than other people.

As we look at the reading from the Prophet Isaiah, God is giving great gifts to Israel after the Babylonian Exile. The people have not only returned to their homeland, but they have also been given a greater relationship with God. As it is written, "Nations shall behold your vindication…You shall be a glorious crown in the hand of the Lord…No more shall people call you forsaken…you shall be called 'My Delight.' These gifts are given to Israel as a sign of a new relationship as what takes place in a marriage. He has given these gifts to Israel His spouse.

The wedding theme and the giving of gifts is continued when we read in John's Gospel the account of the Wedding Feast of Cana. We know the story very well, how the couple had no more wine, which was a disaster for them and their family. We are told that the Blessed Mother tells her son about this, and He asks what does this concern have to do with Him? He argues that now is not the time to use His gifts, but His refusal does not stop our dear mother from telling the workers to do whatever He tells you. Jesus tells them to fill the six stone jars (which were able to hold 20 to 30 gallons) with water. We know Our Lord changes the water into the best wine anyone ever tasted, and it lasted till the wedding ended. He gave this couple and their families a great gift, but there is more to this than their wellbeing, and even the marriage setting. This was the first of signs that Jesus preformed, but this wedding is not just about the bride and groom, it is a sign of the marriage between Christ and the Church. Just as the water is turned to wine, so in time will bread and wine be changed into the Body and Blood of Christ.

The greatest gifts given to Israel, are just like the gifts given to the Church at Corinth, and the great gifts given to us in the Life, Death, and Resurrection of Jesus Christ. These gifts have been given to all of us, so if you have not opened them now is the time, but use them well!

May God bless you always.
Fr. Mike

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday January 5th, 2025

Epiphany of the Lord

The Focus - The Lord's love and care for us knows no bounds. In the first reading, Isaiah speaks of God's care for Zion, and his promise of restoration and rejoicing. Zion will be like a cherished bride. In the second reading, Paul writes of the same Spirit producing different individual gifts. In the Gospel, Jesus attends a wedding feast at Cana and the wine [runs] short. He instructs the servers to fill jars with water, and when the water is drawn out to be tasted, it had become wine.

Hymn Corner

The Inspiration for the Hymn "How Great Thou Art "

Carl Boberg and some friends were returning home to Mönsterås from Kronobäck, where they had participated in an afternoon service. Presently a thundercloud appeared on the horizon, and soon lightning flashed across the sky. Strong winds swept over the meadows and billowing fields of grain.

The thunder pealed in loud claps. Then rain came in cool fresh showers. In a little while the storm was over, and a rainbow appeared. When Boberg arrived home, he opened the window and saw the bay of Mönsterås like a mirror before him...

From the woods on the other side of the b ay, he heard the song of a thrush

... the church bells were tolling in the quiet evening. It was this series of sights, sounds, and experiences that inspired the writing of the song.
