FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

In Cecil B. DeMille's classic epic, "The Ten Commandments" one of the most memorable scenes is the one that depicts today's first reading. Now by today's standards the scene looks cheap and cartoonish, however, it is not in the depiction of the Burning Bush that captures the imagination. No, it is how Moses looks after he has his encounter with God. As we see in the film, Moses returns to his wife and Joshua with a strange look in his eyes, as if he saw something wonderful. His hair is different, and his fear is totally gone. Moses heard the voice of God who told him how he would free his people. As the film and Exodus account continues, Moses leaves for Egypt where he demands of Pharaoh that he release God's people; the rest you know!

This weekend is also the feast day of Saint Oscar Romero, who was martyred while saying Mass in 1980. When Bishop Romero was appointed the head bishop of El Salvador in 1977, many priests were disappointed. The members of oppressive government were happy because they believed Romero to be very conservative. That is why many of the priests of the country, who had taken on the plight of the poor and powerless were disappointed. St. Oscar was not one who accepted Liberation Theology, which many of the priests and people of Latin America had endorsed. The archbishop did not approve of it because at times it called for the use of violence and other methods contrary to the Gospel. Instead, Romero sided with the teaching of St. Pope Paul VI who was deeply concerned with the poor, but not to use methods, which go against the Gospel. In fact, Romero did not pressure the government to stop the violence but went against it with prayer. However, on March 12, 1977, a close friend of Romero, Fr. Rutilio Grande Garcia, SJ, who was setting up self-reliance groups among the people, was assassinated. His death had a powerful effect on Romero who then believed he had to do more and follow his friend's example. He began to defend the poor, powerless, and preached out against the violence happening on both sides, but he spoke out the loudest against the government and the death squads. He made regular radio speeches and at times, his speeches were the only true reports of what was happening in the country. Like Moses, his eyes were open, his life was transformed, and he realized that he too had to do God's will and follow Christ and the Church's option for the poor. He moves to stop the fighting and change society, and it cost him his life. However, the Gospel presented him with its light and truth, and he was more fully converted. He became more like Christ.

There is no turning back once we have heard the voice of God and have seen Christ in our brothers and sisters in need. This is what Jesus is getting at with the Parable of the Fig Tree at the end of today's Gospel. The gardener tells the landowner to be patient and hold off one more season, and he will treat the tree with loving care. If the tree does not produce fruit after that, he will remove it. We are the fig tree and Christ is the gardener. He has called each of us to bear good fruit, to stay totally connected to the Gospel and live it out in our everyday life. He keeps feeding us with the Good News and with His Body and Blood, but if we do not respond we will have to face the consequences. However, while we are still here on this side of God's Kingdom there is always time to repent and amend our lives. Today we are given the same call that Our Lord gave the people who were listening to Him that day, repent, turn your life around, but it must be more than a desire, it must come over us like Moses and Romero. We too must have an encounter with Christ, the Father, and the Spirit. This is what this Season of Lent is all about; this is why we go through these 40 days every year. Lent reminds us of our strengths in faith and it shows us our weaknesses that we need help in overcoming.

Happy Third Week of Lent
Fr. Mike

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday March 23rd, 2025

Third Sunday of Lent

The Focus- The Lord is kind and merciful. In the first reading, Moses encounters God in a burning bush, and is commissioned by God to free the Israelites from Egypt. God reveals his name to Moses, saying, I am who am. In the second reading, Paul warns the Corinthians against overconfidence by recounting the story of the Israelites. In the Gospel, Jesus calls for repentance and tells a parable of a barren fig tree.

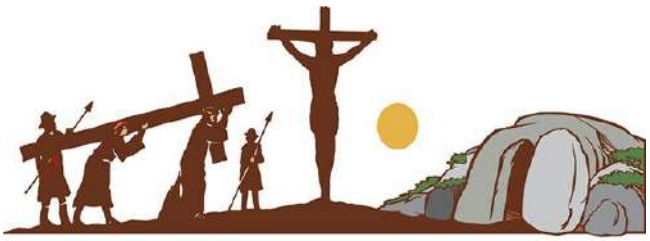
THIS WEEK'S BREAD & WINE IS DEDICATED TO ST. LOUIS DE MONFORT AND ALL THOSE CONSECRATED TO JESUS THROUGH MARY

The Discipline of Fasting

During Lent, we join the Church through -out the world in abstaining from meat on Ash Wednesday (March 5) and all the Fridays of Lent (at least from age 14).

We have one full meal (we fast) on the two central days of penance during Lent: Ash Wednesday and Good Friday (at least from age 14 until age 59). Everyone is encouraged to participate in these disciplines, even those who do not fall in the age categories. Those with medical conditions are, of course, not bound by the Church's obligation of fast and abstinence.



Stations of the Cross will be prayed each Friday evening at 7:30pm beginning March 7th.

Hymn Corner

All Hail The Power Of Jesus' Name

The author of this hymn, Edward Perronet (1726 – 1792), would probably have fallen into obscurity had it not been for this story that relates to his hymn: Reverend E. P. Scott was a missionary, living in India during the 1800s.

One day Rev. Scott met a native Indian tribesman in traditional costume. After earnest inquiry he discovered that the native was from a ferocious mountain tribe which rarely came to the city. Feeling the need to visit the tribe to share the gospel, Rev. Scott after much prayer set out with a few meager provisions and his violin. After travelling for two days, Rev. Scott suddenly found himself surrounded by a party of warriors from the very tribe he sought with their spears pointed to his heart.

Fearing that this was the end for him, he pulled out his violin and began to play. Closing his eyes tightly he sang 'All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name' in their native language. When he came to the stanza 'Let ev'ry kindred, ev'ry tribe…' he cautiously opened his eyes. He was astonished to see that the spears had been withdrawn and several of the warriors were in tears! For the next two and a half years Rev. Scott lived with this tribe teaching them the way of salvation. When poor health forced him to take a leave of absence, the natives followed him nearly 40 miles, entreating him to return to them soon.

This he did, spending the last days of his life with the people whose hearts had been opened by 'All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name'.

FROM THE HOLY NAME OF JESUS PRO LIFE MINISTRY

Holy Name of Jesus Pro Life Ministry would like to invite you to the 40 Days for Life Kick Off Mass at Saint Ladislaus Catholic Church on March 1st at 10:00am. The address of the Church is 18 Richardson Place in Hempstead. The main celebrant will be Father Liam McDonald. After Mass, you are welcome to participate in a Rosary procession to the Hempstead Planned Parenthood.

From March 5th through April 13th, please join other Christians for 40 Days for Life. This is 40 days or prayer and fasting for an end to abortion. You're also invited to stand and peacefully pray during a 40-day vigil in the public right-of-way outside the Hempstead Planned Parenthood located at 540 Fulton Avenue in Hempstead and also to help spread the word about this important community outreach. Please go to www.Hempstead40daysforlife for more details.

Thank you!

SPECIAL MASS AT ST. EDWARD THE CONFESSOR CHURCH

On Sunday, April 6th at 3:00pm, a special Sunday mass will be held at St. Edward the Confessor Church to receive the sacrament of the anointing of the sick. If you or a loved one is sick, going in for surgery, or advanced in age and would like to receive this sacrament please come to the mass.

The proper effects of the sacrament include a special grace of healing and comfort to the person who is suffering. Handmade prayer shawls will be blessed and are available after the mass. Prayer shawls will be blessed and are available after the mass.

Lent 2025

= a day of fasting and abstinence from meat

= a day of abstinence from meat

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
"Lent is the liturgical season of forty days which begins with Ash Wednesday and ends with the celebration of the Paschal Mystery (Easter Triduum). Lent is the primary penitential season in the Church's liturgical year, reflecting the forty days Jesus spent in the desert in fasting and prayer" (Catechism of the Catholic Church). March			5 Ash Wednesday Attend Mass and receive ashes as a sign of penance. Ask the Lord to help you grow closer to Him this Lent.	6 Prayerfully choose meaningful but achievable practices of prayer, penance, almsgiving.	7 Wake up five minutes early to dedicate your day to God's service.	8 Offer to pay for coffee, fast food, or groceries for the person in line behind you.
9 "Each tree is known by its own fruit" (Luke 6:44). After Mass, ask God what "good fruit" He wants your life to bear this Lent.	10 Practice true charity: "Have patience with all things, but, first of all with yourself" (St. Francis de Sales).	11 Take fifteen minutes today for silent prayer. Don't worry about finding the right words. Just be still and let Him love you.	12 Enjoy pretzels, a traditional Lenten snack invented by monks. They thought the folded loops resembled arms crossed in prayer.	13 Skim the glossary of the Catechism of the Catholic Church until something strikes your interest, and dive deeper.	14 Pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy today, especially for the dying. You can find more information here: https://www.usccb.org/prayers	15 Write a note of encouragement to someone you think needs cheering up.
16 Stay after Mass today to pray for the intentions of the Holy Father.	17 St. Patrick's Day In honor of St. Patrick's missionary work in Ireland, offer extra prayers for those who teach the Faith.	18 Listening well is a small but meaningful act of courtesy. Give the gift of your full attention.	19 St. Joseph's Day In honor of St. Joseph, focus on the Joyful Mysteries today, reflecting on St. Joseph's role in each event.	20 Lent and Holy Week are busy times in a Catholic parish. Call or stop by your parish office and ask how you can help.	21 "There is no such thing as innocent slander." (Pope Francis). Today, practice the penance of not complaining about anyone.	22 Contact Catholic Relief Services (877-435-7277 or www.crs.org) to see how you can support any of their projects.
23 Write down three points you remember from Father's homily. Choose one you want to put into practice this week.	24 Honor your word, even to yourself. Perform a chore you've been putting off.	25 The Annunciation Happy Solemnity! Today, we celebrate that God became man (John 1:14). Attend daily Mass or have a dessert—or both!	26 Make a small sacrifice today: No cream in your coffee, no butter on your toast, no music in the car.	27 Ask God to show you whatever keeps you from fully experiencing His love. Resolve to deal with it before Lent ends.	28 Counter pride with authentic humility. Pray, "O Jesus, I surrender myself to You, take care of everything!"	29 "Return, O Israel, to the LORD, your God; you have collapsed through your guilt." (Hosea 14:2) Pray the Act of Contrition and ask for forgiveness.
30 Laetare Sunday Today marks the halfway point to Easter! Have a dessert to celebrate that you have made it halfway to Lent.	31 Renew your commitment to your Lenten resolutions.	1 April Examine your conscience, using the Ten Commandments as a guide (Exodus 20:1-17).	2 Go to Confession and experience God's mercy. Thank Him for His love and resolve to avoid future sin.	3 Instead of spending time on your screen, read a good spiritual classic.	4 Attend daily Mass or visit the Blessed Sacrament sometime today. Thank Jesus for His sacrifice of love.	5 Choose to forego a financial luxury, such as online shopping or eating out. Abstain from it until Easter and donate the extra money.
6 Extend fellowship. Invite friends to brunch after Mass, either at a restaurant or at your home.	7 Loving others well starts with knowing we are loved. Ask God to reveal His love to you today.	8 Read the Passion Narrative from the Gospel of Luke (Luke 22-23). What areas of your life and heart need His grace?	9 Reduce the contents of your closets. If you used or worn something in a year, donate it to charity.	10 Go for a walk and look for signs of Spring.	11 Observe a (recreational) screen fast, from 12:00pm to 3:00pm, the time Jesus hung on the Cross.	12 Pray the Sorrowful Mysteries of the Rosary, mediating on Christ's Passion through the eyes of His mother.
13 Palm Sunday When listening to the Gospel readings at Mass, imagine yourself in the scene. How would you respond?	14 Pray for all those coming into the Church at Easter Vigil.	15 Forgive anyone who has hurt you. Ask forgiveness of anyone you have harmed.	16 Reflect on your Lent: where did you grow? What graces did you receive? What habits would you like to continue after Easter?	17 Holy Thursday Make a Holy Hour today in a church or chapel to console Jesus for the abandonment, indifference, and sacrilege He suffers by us.	18 Good Friday Reread Luke 23. Jesus carried His Cross out of love for you. Resolve to imitate Him more faithfully this year.	19 Holy Saturday Light a candle and renew your baptismal vows to remain committed to Christ.

Dear Friends:

In announcing the Jubilee Year, Pope Francis asked us to celebrate, "with deep faith, lively hope and active charity." During this most holy season of Lent, let us be reminded that we are called to discover hope in current times and to be the instruments of hope for others.

One tangible way to accomplish this is by giving to the Catholic Ministries Appeal. Through our shared support of our pastoral, educational and charitable ministries, we are assisting those most in need and spreading the message of hope in the Lord.

Your gifts to the Appeal support the education of our seminarians and priests who are dedicating their lives to serving Christ and His Church; assist college students and our young people to grow in their faith and relationship with the Lord; and ensure that vital resources are made available for children and families through Catholic Charities, Respect Life, and our Parish Outreach programs.

During this time of Jubilee in the life of our Church, I ask you to consider contributing to the 2025 Catholic Ministries Appeal so that we can enrich the lives of others and that the hope of Christ may abound more fruitfully throughout our diocese.

Thank you for your support and prayers.

Sincerely in Christ,

+John O. Barres
