"And a voice came from heaven, 'You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.'" These are the words spoken by God the Father, at Jesus' baptism in the Jordon River. We heard them spoken in the Gospel for January 12th when we celebrated the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. With this reading from Luke's Gospel, we ended the Christmas Season and entered Ordinary Time. Today's Gospel reading takes off where the above passage ended; "Filled with the Holy Spirit Jesus …was led by the Spirit into the desert for forty days…" With these words and the ones, we heard this past Wednesday when we started the Holy Season of Lent. During Lent, we do in a small way the 40 days and nights that Jesus did in the desert. During these days we will fast, abstain from meat, attend Mass maybe more often, especially during the week days, spend more time in prayer, do some spiritual reading, and do whatever we can to prepare ourselves for Easter, and recommit ourselves to being a better follower of Christ.

Why did the Spirit prompt Jesus to go into the desert? Many believe that it was after the Holy Spirit came upon Jesus at the Jordon, that Jesus became fully aware of who He was/is. This not to say that He did not know, however, through the Baptism Jesus better understood that He was both God and human. Therefore, the Holy Spirit guides Him into the desert where He can be by Himself to pray, to ponder, and to figure out how He was to conduct His mission for our salvation. While we have no idea what conversations or thoughts Jesus had with the Father and the Spirit, we do know that the Divine Plan was fully established, and we know that Jesus was to use the power of God for us! How do we know? We know as we look throughout the Gospels, and we see how Jesus used the power of miracles to heal people or to teach a lesson which draws us closer to God. Jesus never performed a miracle to gain fame or for His own benefit. In fact, the opposite is true, as we see in Mark's Gospel where Jesus usually tells a person not to tell anybody what He did for the person healed. Even when He walked on the water, it was not for Himself, but for the disciples whose faith in Him was not as strong as it could be.

We also know that Jesus used His Divine Power for us by the way the devil tempts Jesus when He is in the desert. As we read, the devil waited until the end of the 40 days to tempt Jesus. Our Lord was hungry so the devil choses the first and most basic temptation, he tells Jesus to take care of His hunger. "If you are the Son of God command this stone to become bread." Jesus' answer denotes that He will not use His power for Himself by saying, "One does not live on bread alone." The devil then tempts Jesus with power. Saying, I will give you all the Kingdoms of the World to rule if only you will worship me and abandon the Father's plan. Thus, you will be able to establish your own kingdom without having to go through the public ministry. Of course, Jesus' reply is "You shall worship the Lord your God and him alone shall you serve." The final temptation offered to Jesus was to throw Himself off the parapet of the Temple where all will see Him fall. The devil tells Jesus after all you are the Son of God; the Father will send angels to catch you, "lest you dash your foot against a stone." If Jesus gave into this temptation, all would see He was the Messiah and He would not have to suffer and die on the Cross. Of course, if this did not occur our salvation would not have happened, because if He does not die for us, we are not set free from spiritual death, darkness, and sin.

Why does Jesus not take the easy way out? How many of us would say I will take the easy way, after all who will get hurt? I can have my cake and eat it too. I can have great power and not have to sacrifice for it. So why does He not take the devil up on his offers? The answer is quite simple love. Jesus loves the Father and He would not betray the words spoken by the Father at the baptism. In addition, there is the great love that Jesus has for us, for He is the Divine Word whom the Father employs to create us, and God creates us for only one reason love. Therefore, the Son would not take any half measures when it comes to us. If He gave into the temptations, what would He gain? Nothing, and the Incarnation would have been an empty gesture. God's ways are not our ways, and God's love is unending and unconditional, everything God does is for us. Let us think about this as we go through Lent.

Happy First Week of Lent

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday March 9th, 2025

First Sunday of Lent

The Focus- Engaging in challenges on our Lenten journey can help us prepare to carry our own cross. In the first reading, Moses explains to the people how they are to offer their firstfruits to the Lord. Paul explores the connection between faith, its profession, and salvation and justification. After his baptism, Jesus spends 40 days in the desert where he encounters the devil and resists his temptations.

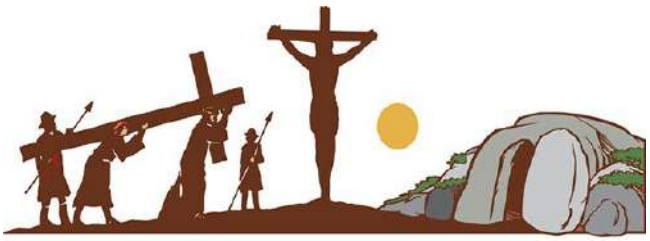
The Discipline of Fasting

During Lent, we join the Church through -out the world in abstaining from meat on Ash Wednesday (March 5) and all the Fridays of Lent (at least from age 14).

We have one full meal (we fast) on the two central days of penance during Lent: Ash Wednesday and Good Friday (at least from age 14 until age 59). Everyone is encouraged to participate in these disciplines, even those who do not fall in the age categories. Those with medical conditions are, of course, not bound by the Church's obligation of fast and abstinence.



Stations of the Cross will be prayed each Friday evening at 7:30pm beginning March 7th.

Hymn Corner

All Hail The Power Of Jesus' Name

The author of this hymn, Edward Perronet (1726 – 1792), would probably have fallen into obscurity had it not been for this story that relates to his hymn: Reverend E. P. Scott was a missionary, living in India during the 1800s.

One day Rev. Scott met a native Indian tribesman in traditional costume. After earnest inquiry he discovered that the native was from a ferocious mountain tribe which rarely came to the city. Feeling the need to visit the tribe to share the gospel, Rev. Scott after much prayer set out with a few meager provisions and his violin. After travelling for two days, Rev. Scott suddenly found himself surrounded by a party of warriors from the very tribe he sought with their spears pointed to his heart.

Fearing that this was the end for him, he pulled out his violin and began to play. Closing his eyes tightly he sang 'All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name' in their native language. When he came to the stanza 'Let ev'ry kindred, ev'ry tribe…' he cautiously opened his eyes. He was astonished to see that the spears had been withdrawn and several of the warriors were in tears! For the next two and a half years Rev. Scott lived with this tribe teaching them the way of salvation. When poor health forced him to take a leave of absence, the natives followed him nearly 40 miles, entreating him to return to them soon.

This he did, spending the last days of his life with the people whose hearts had been opened by 'All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name'.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

Lent 2025

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

It is no coincidence that the global inauguration of our 2025 Jubilee Year of Hope occurred on the Solemnity of the Holy Family. The Jubilee Year of Hope in this 2025 Lenten season runs through the family and fidelity to the splendors of the liberating and objective truths of Christ and the Catholic Church on Marriage and the Family.

Lenten prayer, fasting and almsgiving lead individual family members to Christ's light of conversion and repentance. Conversion and repentance, in turn, open families to a family spirit and daily chemistry animated by the Holy Spirit. Family patterns ensnared in the ruts of sin become family patterns transformed by the grooves of grace, humility, charity and the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit. The Jubilee Year of Hope runs through every family experiencing Christ's Cross: grief, tragedy, crisis, tension, alienation and transition.

Pope Francis emphasized: "All of us have received the gift and task of bringing hope wherever hope has been lost, lives broken, promises unkept, dreams shattered and hearts overwhelmed by adversity. We are called to bring hope to the weary who have no strength to carry on, the lonely oppressed by the bitterness of failure, and all those who are broken-hearted. To bring hope to the interminable, dreary days of prisoners, to the cold and dismal lodging of the poor, and to all those places desecrated by war and violence. To bring hope there, to sow hope there."[1]

The Holy Family was a refugee family and they are deeply present today to every struggling refugee family in the world to rekindle their hope. The Lenten season of the Jubilee Year of Hope reminds us that while all families are imperfect and have their problems and challenges, all families are called to grow together in holiness and a missionary spirit.

And so we heed the powerful words of St. Paul as they apply to our daily family life: "Put on, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another…Let the peace of Christ control your hearts…Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly." (Colossians 3:12-17)

Our Lady invites us to have a pondering heart as we contemplate God's providential design in the past, present and future of our families, especially as we begin this Lenten season in the Jubilee Year of Hope. In unity with the Holy Family, our own families are called to transform the world and history with Christ's love and the mission of mercy of the Church which He Himself founded.

In the 2025 Jubilee Year of Hope, the Church presents us with the canonizations of soon-to-be Saint Carlo Acutis (1991-2006) and Saint Piergiorgio Frassati (1900-1924). As children, teenagers and young adults, they helped Christ transform their own families with their faith and their holiness as they helped Christ transform the Church and the world to this day. Together, they are asking every young Catholic to do the same in their time, in their place and in their own family.

The 2025 Jubilee Year of Hope is a time for us and our extended families to cast the nets of Eucharistic charity throughout Long Island, understanding that the Eucharist is a "Fountain of Charity" -- a Fountain of the spiritual and corporal works of mercy, a Fountain of the Gospel of Life and a Fountain of every dimension of Catholic Social Justice teaching.

As the Successor of the Apostles on Long Island, I want to thank every Catholic family on Long Island and beyond for being Lights of Christ's Hope and Lights of Catholic evangelization to the world.

Sincerely in Christ,

+ John O. Barres

Food Drive Update

Thanks to your generosity we were able to deliver approximately 1,100lbs. of food to the Mercy Soup Kitchen in Wyandanch. Not only was this the largest single donation they have ever received, but it came at a critical time as their shelves were almost empty.

We have supported this Kitchen for about 40 years. They provide a hot lunch for between 75-100 guests weekdays and give them sandwiches and snacks for their evening meal.

On behalf of the Soup Kitchen their guests and the Knights of Columbus, Joseph Mario Reali Council, please accept their most heartfelt thanks.

Know that you are doing God's work among the neediest on Long Island.

Lent 2025

= a day of fasting and abstinence from meat

= a day of abstinence from meat

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
"Lent is the liturgical season of forty days which begins with Ash Wednesday and ends with the celebration of the Paschal Mystery (Easter Triduum). Lent is the primary penitential season in the Church's liturgical year, reflecting the forty days Jesus spent in the desert in fasting and prayer" (Catechism of the Catholic Church). March			5 Ash Wednesday Attend Mass and receive ashes as a sign of penance. Ask the Lord to help you grow closer to Him this Lent.	6 Prayerfully choose meaningful but achievable practices of prayer, penance, almsgiving.	7 Wake up five minutes early to dedicate your day to God's service.	8 Offer to pay for coffee, fast food, or groceries for the person in line behind you.
9 "Each tree is known by its own fruit" (Luke 6:44). After Mass, ask God what "good fruit" He wants your life to bear this Lent.	10 Practice true charity: "Have patience with all things, but, first of all with yourself" (St. Francis de Sales).	11 Take fifteen minutes today for silent prayer. Don't worry about finding the right words. Just be still and let Him love you.	12 Enjoy pretzels, a traditional Lenten snack invented by monks. They thought the folded loops resembled arms crossed in prayer.	13 Skim the glossary of the Catechism of the Catholic Church until something strikes your interest, and dive deeper.	14 Pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy today, especially for the dying. You can find more information here: https://www.usccb.org/prayers	15 Write a note of encouragement to someone you think needs cheering up.
16 Stay after Mass today to pray for the intentions of the Holy Father.	17 St. Patrick's Day In honor of St. Patrick's missionary work in Ireland, offer extra prayers for those who teach the Faith.	18 Listening well is a small but meaningful act of courtesy. Give the gift of your full attention.	19 St. Joseph's Day In honor of St. Joseph, focus on the Joyful Mysteries today, reflecting on St. Joseph's role in each event.	20 Lent and Holy Week are busy times in a Catholic parish. Call or stop by your parish office and ask how you can help.	21 "There is no such thing as innocent slander." (Pope Francis). Today, practice the penance of not complaining about anyone.	22 Contact Catholic Relief Services (877-435-7277 or www.crs.org) to see how you can support any of their projects.
23 Write down three points you remember from Father's homily. Choose one you want to put into practice this week.	24 Honor your word, even to yourself. Perform a chore you've been putting off.	25 The Annunciation Happy Solemnity! Today, we celebrate that God became man (John 1:14). Attend daily Mass or have a dessert—or both!	26 Make a small sacrifice today: No cream in your coffee, no butter on your toast, no music in the car.	27 Ask God to show you whatever keeps you from fully experiencing His love. Resolve to deal with it before Lent ends.	28 Counter pride with authentic humility. Pray, "O Jesus, I surrender myself to You, take care of everything!"	29 "Return, O Israel, to the LORD, your God; you have collapsed through your guilt." (Hosea 14:2) Pray the Act of Contrition and ask for forgiveness.
30 Laetare Sunday Today marks the halfway point to Easter! Have a dessert to celebrate that you have made it halfway to Lent.	31 Renew your commitment to your Lenten resolutions.	1 April Examine your conscience, using the Ten Commandments as a guide (Exodus 20:1-17).	2 Go to Confession and experience God's mercy. Thank Him for His love and resolve to avoid future sin.	3 Instead of spending time on your screen, read a good spiritual classic.	4 Attend daily Mass or visit the Blessed Sacrament sometime today. Thank Jesus for His sacrifice of love.	5 Choose to forego a financial luxury, such as online shopping or eating out. Abstain from it until Easter and donate the extra money.
6 Extend fellowship. Invite friends to brunch after Mass, either at a restaurant or at your home.	7 Loving others well starts with knowing we are loved. Ask God to reveal His love to you today.	8 Read the Passion Narrative from the Gospel of Luke (Luke 22-23). What areas of your life and heart need His grace?	9 Reduce the contents of your closets. If you used or worn something in a year, donate it to charity.	10 Go for a walk and look for signs of Spring.	11 Observe a (recreational) screen fast, from 12:00pm to 3:00pm, the time Jesus hung on the Cross.	12 Pray the Sorrowful Mysteries of the Rosary, mediating on Christ's Passion through the eyes of His mother.
13 Palm Sunday When listening to the Gospel readings at Mass, imagine yourself in the scene. How would you respond?	14 Pray for all those coming into the Church at Easter Vigil.	15 Forgive anyone who has hurt you. Ask forgiveness of anyone you have harmed.	16 Reflect on your Lent: where did you grow? What graces did you receive? What habits would you like to continue after Easter?	17 Holy Thursday Make a Holy Hour today in a church or chapel to console Jesus for the abandonment, indifference, and sacrilege He suffers by us.	18 Good Friday Reread Luke 23. Jesus carried His Cross out of love for you. Resolve to imitate Him more faithfully this year.	19 Holy Saturday Light a candle and renew your baptismal vows to remain committed to Christ.

- Pope Francis

Almsgiving in Lent

During the Lenten Season we are asked to pray, fast and give alms.

Lent is a perfect time for us to pray for those in need - whether it is for their material, emotional or spiritual needs. And when you practice fasting and abstinence during these forty days, please remember those of our neighbors who reach out to us for help.

One way to do this is by making a gift to the Catholic Ministries Appeal, which supports programs that help people in our community each year through Catholic Charities and our Parish Outreach programs.
