FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

"I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, 'Behold, God's dwelling is with the human race…and there shall be no more death or mourning, wailing or pain, for the old order has passed away.' The one who sat on the throne said, 'Behold I will make all things new…'"

These words of promise, which will be totally fulfilled when the Kingdom of God is realized in its full glory, are given to us now to help us know that the world is a different place. The world is no longer a place of darkness, spiritual death, and sin. Now you may say, what world are you living in; it is not the world that I am living in! Unfortunately, this is not the world I am living in either, but it is the world I am looking forward to coming and it is the world that is slowly appearing right here and now. How can I say this, it is easy, because of Jesus. Jesus has and is changing the world because He has changed us. We, the members of the Church, are to make the world look more like what is described above from the Book of Revelation. We are supposed to be working on this every day, and we cannot stop until we are called home to Heaven, or Christ returns in His full glory.

We believe that this recreation is possible if it were not. Christ would not have called us to accomplish it. God does not call us to do anything we cannot do, but we must keep in mind that it is not my job or your job, it's our job, and we are called to do this together and we do all with the untiring help and love of the Good Shepherd. While evil is winning, and we are moving backwards, we must never forget that evil will never win because you cannot defeat the power of the Holy Spirit. So how do we not allow setbacks and the fact that so many will not listen to us to get us down? How do we not lose hope? Part of the answer, in fact a large part, is seen in today's Gospel when Jesus gives us His new commandment, "I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." This is a more serious commitment to love, it means to do what Jesus did for us, even unto giving up our lives for Him. This does not mean we all have to become martyrs, but it does mean we must always be ready to put Jesus and the Gospel first. We should live our lives totally dedicated to our families, our community and each other. This is what love is all about.

As we get back to the Gospel account, notice how Jesus waits for Judas to leave the Upper Room before He gives this commandment of perfect love. That is because Judas, even after seeing all that Jesus could do and hearing all that Jesus said, was still thinking only about what he wanted. Judas was still thinking with the wisdom of the world and not the wisdom of God who was right in front of him. Now the question during this Easter Season and beyond is do you want to be like Judas and betray Jesus, or do you want to assemble before the throne of the Lamb. As God tells us in the Book of Deuteronomy, I give you all these things so you may have life, so choose life.

Happy Easter
Fr. Mike

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday May 18th, 2025
Fifth Sunday of Easter

The Focus- Those who know Jesus will know the Father. In the first reading, Paul and his companions incite the anger and jealousy of the Jews in Antioch. They turn their attention to the Gentiles, who glorified the word of the Lord. Paul and Barnabas, in response to persecution, leave for Iconium. In the Gospel, Philip says to Jesus, Master, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us. But Jesus says he is in the Father and the Father is in him. If his disciples ask anything of him in his name, he will do it. Published by Franciscan Media

As you know, our upcoming Diocesan Eucharistic Congress is on Sunday, June 8, 2025, at St. Anthony's High School in Huntington. This will be a landmark moment in our local Church, where the faithful of Long island can gather for Mass, talks with dynamic speakers, Eucharistic adoration, confession, music, fellowship and faith filled programming for all ages.

Registration is free and now open at drvc.org/congress where you can also find the full day's schedule and all information about the two Eucharistic pilgrimages from Montauk and Rockville Centre, May 31st through June 8th. An Eastern Route beginning with a special Opening Mass at 10:00am in Montauk at the Church of St. Therese of Lisieux on May 31st. A Western Route beginning with an Opening Mass at the Cathedral of St. Agnes in Rockville Centre on the same day.

These pilgrimages will include public processions, parish stops, and times of prayer and worship, all culminating at the Eucharistic Congress on June 8th. You are invited to join any part of the route—whether walking, driving, or praying along the way.

But to make this a true Diocesan event, we need your support and help in trumpeting this. The voice and participation from our parishioners are essential in making this a grace-filled success.

Let us walk together—literally and spiritually toward a deeper love of Jesus in the Holy Eucharist. Mark your calendars!

May God's love be with you.

"It Is Well With My Soul"

Hymnn Corner

Attorney Horatio Spafford and his wife, Anna, had a wonderful family of four daughters. Tragically, the great Chicago fire destroyed most of his business in 1871. Then, two years later, his wife and daughters were aboard the ocean liner Ville du Havre when it was struck by another vessel. All four daughters drowned. His wife survived and nine days later was able to contact her husband by telegraph with this question: "Saved alone—what shall I do?"

Spafford took the next available ship to join his wife. During the passage, the captain of the ship notified Spafford they were crossing the place where the Ville du Havre had sunk. After those moments of reflection and over the course of the rest of the journey, Spafford penned the words of this beloved hymn.

May God teach us that "whatever our lot" we can still say, "It is well."

In all three of these stories, a circumstance of life confronts the child of God. And, in all three, God's grace enables his child to trust the heart of the Father.

Life will confront us too. The songs we sing in the darkest of midnight will be the very songs that show the world the unwavering faithfulness of our Father who loves us so much. The darker it gets, the more we should sing.

Statement of the Most Reverend John O. Barres Bishop of Rockville Centre on the Election of Pope Leo XIV

May 8, 2025

With my brother bishops, the clergy, religious, and lay faithful of the Diocese of Rockville Centre, I give thanks to Almighty God for the gift of our new Holy Father, His Holiness Pope Leo XIV.

As the 267th Successor of Saint Peter, we pray Pope Leo XIV will receive every grace to strengthen the Church in unity and peace, preach Jesus Christ, the Way, the Truth, and the Life, and confirm the Faith.

With years of global missionary experience in Peru and leadership in his Augustinian community here in the United States, we pray, too, that his evangelizing pastoral charity and wisdom will guide the mission of the Church he now serves as Supreme Pontiff.

"Deacons are the guardians of service in the Church."

- Pope Francis

Your donation to the Catholic Ministries Appeal supports vocations to the priesthood and diaconate in our Diocese. It ensures that those who are looking to serve their parish and diocese have the resources and guidance they need to discern their call to service to provide spiritual nourishment to the people of our diocese.

Deacon O'Brien brings God's message of love, mercy, and hope to others.

"As a Deacon, I hope to revitalize the faith of others. I go to nursing homes and the residents hear the Word of God and receive the Eucharist. At wake services, when people have lost a loved one, I hope to revitalize their faith so that people know that they can call on and rely on God to help them through challenging times. In happy times such as a baptism or a wedding, God is there for them for the rest of their life."
