FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Today we come to the last day of the Easter Season, the time when Christ completed His part of the Pascal Ministry. Now it is up to us to do our part. Christ is calling us and the whole Church to spread and live out the Gospel. For the last fifty days we have been reading Gospel Accounts about post-Resurrection appearances and proclamations made by Jesus, and in today's gospel this continues. We then see in the first and second reading the transition from what the Lord had to say about the ministry now given to the Church by the coming of the Holy Spirit. Our Pentecost readings begin with the account from the Acts of the Apostles, which tells us about the momentous day of the Church's birthday. We read how the Holy Spirit came upon the eleven Apostles, our Dear Blessed Mother, and maybe others who were not mentioned, but were present. Outside the Upper Room people heard the sound of a great wind and gathered around to see what was happening. What happened the crowd found unbelievable, but they could not deny what they heard. They heard the Apostles and others gathered, speak about Jesus in their own language, something the Apostles could not do, but now were indeed doing it.

As we come to Paul's reading, we are told, "No one can say 'Jesus is Lord' except by the Holy Spirit" And he tells us about the many gifts given to the Church. In Paul's other reading for today, to the Romans we are told that those who are led by the Spirit of God are indeed Children of God.

As we come to the gospel, we are also given two situations both found in John's Gospel, but one is from the Last Supper and the other is from Easter Sunday. In the reading from the Last Supper, Jesus tells us not to worry and that He is not going to leave them orphans. He also says, that "Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him." This love is not the love most people think of. This love is the love of God which is unconditional and it the kind of love that is demonstrated in obedience. Obedience means hearing, listening to the word, and putting it into action. To do that we need the power and grace of the Advocate, who is none other than the Holy Spirit.

Jesus tells the Apostles in the Upper Room, on the first Easter Sunday Night to receive the Holy Spirit and adds, "As the Father has sent me, so I send you" and when He says this, He breathed on them and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive, are forgiven and whose sins you retain are retained.

Unless we are open to hearing the Holy Spirit and using the Divine Gifts that the Spirit gives, we cannot totally live in God's love. It is not that God is withholding love or forgiveness; it is that we are not letting it into or heart and soul.

Today is the Church's Birthday. We are 2025 years old, so we celebrate by making this wonderful day and time special. Just think it is the Church's Birthday, but we get all the gifts, and why not, it is our birthday too, because we are the Church.

HAPPY PENTECOST AND HAPPY EASTER FOR THE LAST TIME THIS YEAR.
Fr. Mike

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday June 8th, 2025
Pentecost Sunday

The Focus- Christ prayed for us to be one with him, with his Father, and with each other. In the first reading, Stephen witnesses Jesus in glory and prays for those who stone him. The witnesses lay down their cloaks at the feet of a young man named Saul. In the second reading, John describes hearing a voice speaking to him. It is Jesus sending his testimony that he is coming soon. In the Gospel, Jesus prays that all may be one, as he and the Father are one, so that all may know the Father through Jesus.

Hymnn Corner

A Brief History of "Let There Be Peace on Earth, and Let It Begin with Me"

Sy Miller and Jill Jackson were a husband and wife songwriting team. In 1955 they wrote a song about their dream of peace for the world and how they believed each one of us could help create it.

They first introduced the song to a group of teenagers selected from their high schools to attend a weeklong retreat in California. The young people were purposefully from different religious, racial, cultural and economic backgrounds, brought together to experiment with creating understanding and friendship through education, discussion groups, and living and working together in a camp situation. Sy Miller wrote in his own words what happened:

"One summer evening in 1955, a group of 180 teenagers of all races and religions, meeting at a workshop high in the California mountains locked arms, formed a circle and sang a song of peace. They felt that singing the song, with its simple basic sentiment – 'Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me,' helped to create a climate for world peace and understanding.

National Eucharistic Revival
Prayer

Lord
Jesus Christ,

You give us your flesh and blood for the life of the world, and you desire that all people come to the Supper of the Sacrifice of the Lamb. Renew in your Church the truth, beauty, and goodness contained in the Most Blessed Eucharist.

Jesus living in the Eucharist, come and live in me. Jesus healing in the Eucharist, come and heal me. Jesus sacrificing yourself in the Eucharist, come and suffer in me. Jesus rising in the Eucharist, come and rise to new life in me. Jesus loving in the Eucharist, come and love in me.

Lord Jesus Christ, through the paschal mystery of your death and resurrection made present in every Holy Mass, pour out your healing love on your Church and on our world. Grant that as we lift you up during this time of Eucharistic Revival, your Holy Spirit may draw all people to join us at this Banquet of Life.

You life and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, Mother of the Eucharist, pray for us.

Thanks to your support we are able to help dads in need!

Every day, people in our community are helped because of support from funds raised through the Catholic Ministries Appeal.

Today, consider a dad like Paul. Paul saw information about the Catholic Ministries Appeal at his local parish, and he knew he had to turn to the Church for help since he had nowhere else to go. Paul had been gainfully employed for more than 10 years when he began to fall ill. Soon his medical issues made it impossible for him to keep working and he was forced to go out on disability.

After paying the co-pays on his medications, his family's rent and utilities bills, Paul had very little left to purchase food and other necessities for his family.

It was hard for him to ask for help, but with nowhere else to turn, he did. Catholic Charities found him a specialist who assessed the family's needs and directed them to appropriate resources in their community. He went to his Parish Outreach, where his family received food that allowed them to make it through the month. Paul and his family received the help they so desperately needed.

Today, Paul is back to work and the family is doing well. "I am so thankful that I know there is somewhere I can turn, where there are people that care, people I can talk to, if I am ever in such a situation again," shared Paul.
