FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

At the end of Mass, we hear the Deacon or the Priest saying one of the following: "Go forth, The Mass is ended, Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord, or Go in Peace glorifying the Lord by your life, or simply, Go in Peace". Of course, the response is "Thanks be to God." Now I am sure you know that when this is announced and we reply "Thanks be to God, we are not saying to God thank you it is finally over. However, I can see sometimes when that may be the case (certainly not, when I am saying Mass!). No, what is being said is summed up in the second sending forth, "Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord. This sending forth is also known as the dismissal and the giving and receiving of the mission. In fact, the giving of the mission is how the Eucharist came to be known as the Mass, which in Latin was missa (and as it is said in Latin "Ite, missa est"). People would ask one another if they were present for or received their missa, and this soon became the common name for the Liturgy, and as usually happens, the common name becomes the official name.

This sending forth to proclaim the Gospel is what we are supposed to do when we leave the Mass, and not just on Sundays, but every day of the week. It is what we are supposed to do when we go out. As Jesus told the seventy-two, whom He sent out in today's Gospel. He told them to prepare the way for His coming, to announce that the Kingdom of God is here and we should be living in the joy and peace of the Kingdom, now! We should be seeking the justice of the kingdom, which means trying to have the correct relationship between God and ourselves, with our brothers and sisters. We should strive to seek forgiveness where we need it and offer it to those who have hurt us. We should seek to be in a harmonious relationship with God and all of God's creation. Most importantly, we should not be afraid to do it. Why? Because when we do it, we are not doing it by ourselves, we are doing it with the whole Church. Notice that Jesus sent them two by two so that one could give strength to the other and fill in any blanks that the other may have left unfilled. As we see at the end of the reading, the seventy-two came back rejoicing as they said, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us because of your name." This is how powerful we can be if we put ourselves to the task. In fact, we can be more powerful than they were, because we have been baptized and we have received the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Yes, we can do more, and we are challenged to do more, so why don't we?

Is it out of fear, and the notion that I do not know what to say so I do nothing. We do not act because we may think that it is not my job. After all this is the job of the Clergy or the Religious, or we may say, we do not have the time to do it. Not so, after all, we all can proclaim the Good News and be Christ's missionaries, just by being the best Christian, every day and in every place.

We have all been sent out on the mission to spread the Gospel, so get busy, and let us support and pray for one another as we go out to glorify the Lord by our lives.

God bless you always and go and announce the Gospel of the Lord.
Fr. Mike

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday July 6,th, 2025
14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Focus- If we share in Christ's suffering, we will share his joy. Isaiah says to rejoice with Jerusalem and be glad because of her, for there we will find comfort. Paul writes to the Galatians: May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ. Circumcision and uncircumcision no longer mean anything, but only being a new creation. Paul bears the marks of Christ on his body. In the Gospel, Jesus sends out seventy-two disciples ahead of him to prepare for his ministry and to proclaim the kingdom of God

Hymnn Corner

Katharine Lee Bates began her tour of America passing through great fields of grain and fruited plains, on to the purple mountain majesties of Colorado.

Finally, she arrived at Pike's Peak. She traveled to the top in a prairie wagon and on mules. From her diary, Katharine tells us what happened next: "The peak remains in memory hardly more than one ecstatic gaze. It was then and there, as I was looking out over the sea-like expanse of fertile country spreading away so far under those ample skies that the opening lines of the hymn floated into my mind." Later that evening, she put all her thoughts to paper and wrote America, the Beautiful in the Antlers Hotel in Colorado Springs. This was 1893. Two years later, the hymn would appear in the weekly church journal, The Congregationalist on July 4, 1859, almost 160 years ago. Many have been greatly moved , as they discover a 12' high plaque honoring Katharine Lee Bates at the very spot where she received the final inspiration for writing America, the Beautiful.

America is beautiful indeed, and Miss Bates' patriotic hymn expresses it so well. We are a nation founded under God and blessed of God. We would do well to reconsider the words of this great song as we find ourselves at this pivotal point in history. Perhaps, America, the Beautiful will rekindle a love for our country and a desire to serve it and the Lord who founded it.

O beautiful for spacious skies, for amber waves of grain, for purple mountain majesties above the fruited plain!

America! America! God shed his grace on thee, and crown thy good with brotherhood from sea to shining sea.

Stop Physician-Assisted Suicide in New York

New York is on the brink of legalizing physician-assisted suicide. Bill A136 has already passed the Senate and Assembly. The only thing standing in its way is Governor Hochul's veto – and she needs to hear from you.

This bill would allow doctors to prescribe lethal medication with the sole purpose of ending a patient's life. It puts the most vulnerable among us – the elderly, people with disabilities, and those facing emotional or financial despair – at even greater risk. Suicide is not healthcare.

We must speak out to protect the dignity of every human life. Assisted suicide is a dangerous and deadly path – one we must not go down.

Take Action!

Contact the Governor's office now to oppose this deadly practice! Visit bit.ly/veto-pas or use the QR code.

Thanks to your support we are able to help dads in need!

Every day, people in our community are helped because of support from funds raised through the Catholic Ministries Appeal.

Today, consider a dad like Paul. Paul saw information about the Catholic Ministries Appeal at his local parish, and he knew he had to turn to the Church for help since he had nowhere else to go. Paul had been gainfully employed for more than 10 years when he began to fall ill. Soon his medical issues made it impossible for him to keep working and he was forced to go out on disability.

After paying the co-pays on his medications, his family's rent and utilities bills, Paul had very little left to purchase food and other necessities for his family.

It was hard for him to ask for help, but with nowhere else to turn, he did. Catholic Charities found him a specialist who assessed the family's needs and directed them to appropriate resources in their community. He went to his Parish Outreach, where his family received food that allowed them to make it through the month. Paul and his family received the help they so desperately needed.

Today, Paul is back to work and the family is doing well. "I am so thankful that I know there is somewhere I can turn, where there are people that care, people I can talk to, if I am ever in such a situation again," shared Paul.
