FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

In our second reading today, Paul tells Timothy to, "…pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience and gentleness. Compete for faith. Lay hold of eternal life, to which you were called when you made your confession in the presence of many witnesses. I charge you before God who gave life to all things, and before Christ Jesus…to keep the commandment without stain or reproach until the appearance of Our Lord Jesus Christ…To him, be honor and eternal power. Amen."

The Commandment that Timothy is to keep without stain or reproach is the basic Commandment of Israel and the Church; To Love the Lord God with all your heart, soul, fiber, and being. And to love your neighbor as yourself, and for us in the Church to love one another as Jesus has loved us, and to follow all that Jesus has told us in the Gospel. This is what Timothy is to do until Christ comes again and this is what we are also supposed to do.

Today's readings from the Book of the Prophet Amos and the Gospel of Luke, give us two cases when this commandment was not followed. Amos tells the rich people of the Northern Kingdom that they are living lives of luxury while the poor have nothing. The rich were violating the Law of the Lord by not trying to ease the poor's burden. They were not inflicting any harm on the poor; they were just doing nothing to help ease their suffering or sorrow. The same is said of the rich man in today's Gospel. Dives (as he is known, which is not really his name but simply means rich man) has everything while we are told that Lazarus has nothing. Dives ate well every day, while Lazarus would gladly eat the scraps that fell from Dives' table. Dives does no harm to Lazarus; in fact, it is seen as kindness that he allows Lazarus to live inside his doorway and that he gives him the scraps. However, he does nothing else to relieve the poor man's burden. Dives ignores Lazarus' condition, shows no love to his neighbor, and certainly does not love as Jesus loves. The lesson of this part of the story is obvious, for Christians we must seek to help the poor and relieve their sufferings whether it be here, in our local region, and even in other parts of the world. We must do more than just give handouts; we must try to change the situation and events that make so many people hungry and poor throughout the world.

Love your neighbor as yourself or love one another as I have loved you is certainly what is missing in the lifestyle of Dives and the people of the Northern Kingdom, but they and the Pharisees, who Jesus is directing this story to, were also failing in the first part of the Commandment. They were failing to love God with their whole soul, heart, and being. This is clearly illustrated when we are told that both Dives and Lazarus died and we learn that Lazarus has gone to heaven in the bosom of Abraham, while Dives is in a not so pleasant place (where it is mighty HOT). When he requests that Lazarus come to his aid, Abraham tells him no, and that he has received the just reward for how he lived his life. So, the rich man asks Abraham to send Lazarus to his father's house to warn his brothers so they can change their lives before it is too late. He hopes that if someone comes back from the dead they will immediately change. Notice what Abraham says to Dives, he tells him that they have Moses and the Prophets, and that they have been told the correct way to live and to love God and neighbor. All they have to do is listen to those who were already sent by God, and if they would not listen to them now, as this appears to be Jesus' criticism of the Pharisees, then they would not listen if one should come back from the dead. The Pharisees should have known who Jesus was as they studied Moses and the Prophets, but they refused to listen to Jesus; and as Luke tells us they still refused to listen even when they heard He had risen from the dead! Luke is making a formal accusation against the Pharisees and even the Government of Rome for failing to help change society and for failing to do what Jesus has commanded us to do. Let us make sure that we do not make the same mistakes.

Let us pray: All-powerful Father, God of mercy and love, look kindly on those who are suffering, hungry, homeless, unemployed and ease their burdens. Make their faith strong so that they may always have confidence and trust in your Fatherly care. Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God forever Amen.

God bless you always and thank you for all you do for the poor.
Fr. Mike

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday September 28th, 2025
26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Focus- Blessed is he who secures justice for the oppressed, gives food to the hungry. In the first reading, God issues a warning through Amos to complacent and self-serving Israelites. In the second reading, Paul charges Timothy to live up to his call as a man of God until the appearance of our Lord Jesus Christ. In the Gospel, Jesus tells the parable of the rich man and Lazarus. The rich man received what was good during his life-time while ignoring Lazarus' suffering. In death, their situations are reversed.

ST. MICHAEL'S PRAYER

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do though, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

Hymnn Corner

"The Battle Hymn of the Republic,"

Written more than 160 years ago in the early years of the Civil War, was played by bands, marched to in parades, and as it appeared in 500 hymnals, was sung in churches across the country.

Written in 1861 by abolitionist Julia Ward Howe, the "Battle Hymn" became a marching anthem for the Grand Army of the Republic. Its powerful apocalyptic vision of a reckoning God, sheathed with lightning and a sword of justice, captured the sentiment of a Union fighting for freedom for all people.

The song's message has resonated throughout history with soldiers and evangelists, patriots and presidents. It has formed a significant part of the United State's cultural history and its civil religion, harnessing people's awe for God for political purposes.

For decades, listeners of evangelist Billy Graham's weekly radio program heard "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" during "The Hour of Decision." Graham's love of the song helped him reconcile his background as a Southerner, whose Rebel grandfather lost an eye and a leg fighting at Gettysburg, with his love for the nation.

It is one of the most popular pieces in the repertoire of The U.S. Army Band and U.S. troops just home from Iraq boisterously sang the "Glory, Glory Hallelujah" chorus with Whitney Houston as she ended her "Welcome Home, Heroes" concert in 1991.

Growing in FAITH™

Discovering hope and joy in the Catholic faith. September 2025

Holy Name of Jesus Church

Rev. Michael T. Maffeo, Pastor

One Minute Meditations

St. Lawrence Justinian

Born into a noble Venetian family, St. Lawrence Justinian desired sanctity from an early age. He entered the Order of the Augustinian Canons Regular of St. George, where he became known for his zeal, penitential lifestyle, and deep charity—especially toward the poor. He eventually became the general of the order. Recognized for his holiness, he was appointed Bishop, and later Patriarch, of Venice by the pope. He served faithfully until his death at the age of seventy-five.

Jesus turns sorrow into joy

Each September, the Church celebrates the Exaltation of the Holy Cross—not because we glorify suffering, but because the Cross reveals a Love that is total, faithful, and fearless. Christ embraced suffering, rejection, and death—and triumphed over them. His Cross is the ultimate sign that love is stronger than pain. When we bring our trials and sorrows to Jesus, He transforms them—through a kind of divine alchemy—into strength, healing, joy, and even glory. In Him, suffering is never the end of the story.

"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light" (Matthew 11:28-30).

Holiness in everyday life

Pier Giorgio Frassati — to be canonized on September 7 — was known for blending intense spirituality with fun—he loved mountain climbing, practical jokes, and friendship. He taught that holiness can be simple, joyful, and practical, woven into daily life. In a 1923 address to young people, he summed up the Christian life: "Our religion is based on charity, which is nothing other than the most perfect Love." He proposed three ways to live that love: by example, through compassion, and by joyful invitation.

By example: Blessed Pier believed that our lives should reflect our faith without needing words. "We Catholics must strive to have our whole life guided by Christian moral law," he said. That includes building our schedules around the Eucharist, practicing reverence, treating others with dignity, and living generously. These everyday choices silently proclaim who we are—and whose we are.

With compassion: Blessed Pier encouraged personal, thoughtful acts of love: visiting the lonely, offering a kind word, or putting others first. He reminded us that holiness begins with small, intentional acts of compassion.

By joyful invitation: Blessed Pier's faith was magnetic, marked by laughter, adventure, and prayer. He urged others to draw people to Christ with warmth and sincerity: "Persuade [those who are far from the Church] to follow the ways of God." A quiet chapel visit or simple prayer can be a powerful invitation to grace.

"Jesus is with me. I have nothing to fear."
Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati

He urged Catholics to stay rooted in the Eucharist: "Approach the Eucharistic Table as often as possible… from which you will draw strength." His life reminds us that sainthood is not about perfection, but about choosing love—daily, faithfully, and joyfully.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics believe in angels?

In the Nicene Creed, professed at every Sunday Mass and solemnity, we affirm belief in "all things visible and invisible"—a direct reference to spiritual beings, including angels. Throughout Scripture, angels appear as messengers, protectors, and servants of God's will. Jesus' words in Matthew 18:10, referencing angels who "behold the face of [His] Father"—form the basis for the Church's belief in guardian angels. These faithful spirits, who remained loyal to God, continue to watch over and guide us. Belief in angels is not optional but a vital part of Catholic teaching and tradition.

Dear Friends:

As we continue to embrace our new Holy Father, Pope Leo XIV, let us continue to be Renewed by the Eucharist and Sent out on Mission to strengthen our commitment to our Faith, and bring hope to those in need. This is a time of grace and joy—a call to come together as one community, united in purpose and love for Christ and His Church.

Individually, we may feel limited in what we can do, but together, we can achieve extraordinary things! The Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA) allows us to extend Christ's love throughout Long Island, ensuring that those who are struggling find support, encouragement, and a renewed sense of hope.

The CMA is more than just a fundraiser—it is an opportunity for us to unite in mission, strengthen the Church, and continue the incredible work of Christ in our communities.

Your gifts support the education of our seminarians, deacons, and lay leaders as they prepare to serve in our diocese. Your gifts also help keep that fire burning in our young people in religious education classes and those participating in Youth, Young Adult, Campus Ministry, and programs such as Camp Quo Vadis. Our Respect Life initiatives, our Catholic Charities and parish social ministry programs, and our food pantries, all can work tirelessly and passionately because of your support.
