FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Today's Gospel gives us the account of the Ten Lepers, who came to Jesus to be cured. They stood some distance away (about 50 yds) and yelled, "Jesus, Master! Have pity on us!" Jesus answered them with, "Go show yourselves to the priests." We are told that as they went on their way they were cured, and their skin returned to normal. One of them realizing that he was cured, returned to Jesus to give thanks. He was a Samaritan, and Jesus replied, "Ten were cleansed, were there not? Where are the other nine?"

Jesus is disappointed by the response (or lack of one) on the part of the nine, and He seems even a little amazed that the one who returned was a foreigner. Why is it that the nine never returned to give thanks? Were they truly ungrateful, were they so caught up with their own lives that they did not care? As I mentioned in past years, with this passage, Jesus' cure along with the blessing by the priests would allow the nine to return to their normal lives. They were so caught up with this prospect that all they could do was rush home to reunite with their families and their friends. Who could blame them? Yet there is a lesson to be learned here. Now Jesus is not so petty that he needs a thank you, but Jesus is upset that they received this great gift from God and seem to take it for granted!

This passage is the same one we use for Thanksgiving Day. The day which we as a nation thank God for all the blessings bestowed upon us. This is the day we remember how God is with us in good times and when we are facing troubles. Jesus is telling us not to be like the nine, we must never take God for granted, nor should we do so, with the people in our lives. We must strive to be grateful for the blessings great and small we receive from God and others. Yes, we all have days when we receive nothing but curses instead of blessings, however, even in these times God has blessed us. Why, because on these days He has not abandoned us, but has supported us.

Jesus gives us His very self every day in the celebration of the Eucharist. Eucharist, the very word means to give thanks. So, we are always thanking Jesus for giving us His body and blood, soul, and divinity in the Blessed Sacrament. This allows us to become more like Christ and grow closer to Him, and to each other. Maybe the nine gave thanks later, maybe they even sought out Jesus later in the day, we will never know for sure, but the Samaritan acted rightly, because he sought out Jesus and recognized the power of God in Jesus and he was humbled.

Can we do the same? Will we do the same, or just say that is what God is supposed to do? Think about your answer, and how and why you have thanked God in your life. Think of it as being a warmup for Thanksgiving Day.

God bless you always.
Fr. Mike

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday October 12th, 2025
28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Focus- If we persevere, we shall also reign with him. In the first reading, Naaman cleanses himself in the Jordan, declaring the God of Israel as the only God. In the second reading, Saint Paul urges perseverance for Christ in the face of persecution. In the Gospel, Jesus heals ten lepers. Only one, a Samaritan, returns to give thanks to him. His faith has saved him.

ST. MICHAEL'S PRAYER

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do though, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

Please Note: St. Michael's Prayer is on the back cover of the missalette.

In 1535, at the age of 20, St. Teresa entered the Carmelite Convent of the Incarnation in Avila, despite her father's objections. Her early years in the convent were marked by illness, including malaria, which left her in poor health for much of her life.

St. Teresa's spiritual life took a dramatic turn in her early 40s when she began experiencing profound mystical visions and raptures. These experiences, which she initially feared might be demonic in origin, became the foundation of her spiritual teachings and writings.

Her most famous vision, known as the Transverberation, involved an angel piercing her heart with a golden spear, leaving her "all on fire with a great love of God." This event became a powerful symbol of divine love in Catholic art and literature.

"Sing to the Lord"

Hymnn Corner

HYMNS ARE A MAINSTAY WITHIN THE Christian Church around the globe. From the first century to the present, hymns have been used as an important means of singing adoration and praise within gathered worship. As religious text set to tune, hymns are also affirmations of faith through sung theology.

Most often used to bring people together during liturgical settings, hymns have also emerged as favorite listening for more intimate occasions and non-church related gatherings where family and loved ones unite for sing-alongs and non-ecclesial fellowship.

Hymns are repertoire that are often compiled and curated within hymnals. These tomes of creative works are often published by committees that represent a denominational body charged with the responsibility of collecting, and sometimes commissioning, hymns that reflect shared theology and a faith community's cultural ethos. Over the past few decades, hymnal editorial committees aimed to reflect the diversity of ethnic expressions by including newer voices within recent editions. A blend of old and new within one publication offers a glimpse of historical tradition mixed with contemporary nuance. Many hymnals also offer responsive readings, prayers, and other components of liturgy that represent the formational identity of the represented community or publisher.

As the Church prepares to celebrate World Mission Sunday 2025, on October 19, Pope Leo has given us a powerful theme that resonates deeply in this Jubilee Year: "Missionaries of Hope Among All Peoples." In his message, the Holy Father reminds us that hope is at the heart of the Christian mission, calling every baptized person to be "messengers and builders of hope" in a world that often finds itself overshadowed by uncertainty and despair.
