FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

We have now come to the turning point of our Advent Journey. While we are still focusing on the Second Coming of Jesus and the end time, we now begin to look at Jesus' First Coming. We do this today by looking more at His Third Coming: Jesus at work in our present life and in the Church's life for the past 2026 years. As I mentioned last week, John asks Jesus an important question. Herod imprisoned John because he preached against the King for marrying his wife Herodias (who was originally the wife of Herod's brother Philip). This, of course, was an unlawful marriage, and John would not let up in his condemnation of it and his constant call for Herod and Herodias to repent.

John upon hearing what Jesus was doing and what He was saying, sent his disciples to Jesus to ask, "Are you the one who is to come, or should we look for another?" Why does John ask this question? As we see in other Gospel accounts, John is so sure that Jesus is the one; he points Him out to Andrew and John. He tells them to behold the Lamb of God and that Jesus was their new Rabbi. Is John going through a crisis in faith? It is possible that John no longer believes that Jesus is the Messiah? But John's question comes from a different set of circumstances. John still has faith, but he needs understanding. Recall last week, John said that one who was to follow him would clear his threshing floor and gather the wheat into his barn, but the chaff he will burn in unquenchable fire. John has the impression that the Messiah would be a no- nonsense person, and we had all better follow him or we would be totally lost. This of course is true, yet John does not see this in Jesus. He sees Jesus forgiving sinners, preaching about love and forgiveness and mercy, and He speaks about a loving God and Father. Jesus is gentle, kind, compassionate, and He will go out of His way to find and rescue the lost sheep. He eats with sinners and tax collectors, and He breaks the Sabbath Laws by healing people on the Sabbath. John is not sure, so he asks the question.

Jesus answers John with, "...what [do you] hear and see; the blind regains their sight, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, and the poor have the good news proclaimed to them." All these acts fulfilled the Law and the Prophets, and Jesus is acting as the Messiah was supposed to, however, there was more to Jesus. Jesus was also acting as who He is, The Second Person of the Blessed Trinity. Jesus is both human and divine (as we will celebrate 10 days from now). Therefore, Christ has the power to forgive sins, to call people back to Himself. Jesus who is our Lord and God surpasses the ancient understandings of the Messiah. Afterward, Jesus praises John, yet in the same speech, He put things into the proper order. John who has one foot in the Old Testament is wonderful, but those who are born again into the Kingdom are greater. Do not feel sorry for John, because he also has the other foot in the New Testament, so he too is a citizen of the Kingdom.

As we consider this week's readings, we are all faced with the question, has there been times when we doubted Jesus, especially when we see so much of what is happening in this world, and even in our lives. I am sure that the answer is yes, and it is true of most of us when we ask this question, we remember His answer to John. That answer again reminds us of all He did and continues to do even to this day through the actions of the Saints and His Living Body the Church. Take heart in the words from the Psalms, "The God keeps faith forever, secures justice for the oppressed, gives food to the hungry...sight to the blind...the Lord protects strangers."

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday December 14th, 2025
Third Sunday of Advent

The Focus- Lord, come and save us. In the first reading, Isaiah prophesies that the Messiah will bring healing to the blind, deaf, lame, and mute. In the second reading, James encourages his readers to be patient and not to judge one another. In the Gospel, Jesus proclaims that John the Baptist is more than a prophet. He is the one who prepares the way for Jesus. by Franciscan Media

ST. MICHAEL'S PRAYER

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do though, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

FAMILY PRAYER

Heavenly Father, your son, Jesus, is your greatest gift to us, a great sign of your love.

Guide us as we strive to walk in that love together as a family this Advent. As we prepare our hearts for Christmas, bring us closer to each other and to your son. Give us the grace and strength we need every day.

Help us to always trust in you. Come, Lord Jesus, lead all people closer to you. Come and dispel the darkness of our world with the light of your love.

Amen

Hymnn Corner

For the last two months of the year, it's nearly impossible to escape the seemingly endless variations of a handful of Christmas carols and holiday songs. This mix of religious and secular tunes can be heard playing on the radio, in stores and in holiday movies. But have you ever wondered where these songs came from, and how they came to be Christmas standards?

As it turns out, much of the holiday music popular today has been around for decades, and in some cases, centuries. This month we shall share some of the stories behind several of the most popular Christmas Hymns.

Silent Night," originally "Stille Nacht," was composed in 1818 by Franz Gruber, based on a poem by Joseph Mohr, says Scot Hanna-Weir, a music professor at Santa Clara University. "The story goes that Mohr came to Gruber with the poem on Christmas Eve and asked him to set it to music for that evening's mass," he explains. "The carol was performed that night with guitar because the church's organ was damaged by flooding."

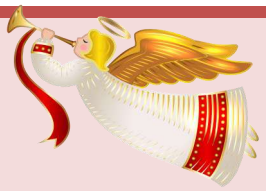
THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT—CANDLE OF JOY



Heavenly Father, this third week of Advent, let us remember that the good news of Jesus' birth brings us great joy this Christmas season. Our joy isn't dependent on what is going on in our lives, in our world, or the people that we are with. It doesn't depend on the gifts we give or the gifts we find under the tree. No earthly thing can ever give us complete joy. Our joy comes from you. That joy that flooded the hearts of the shepherds, the angels, the wise men, the hosts of heaven, and Mary and Joseph is the joy that still has the power to overwhelm our hearts with rejoicing.

Those who gathered around the new baby were blessed because they believed that you had fulfilled your promises. Mary and Joseph believed and were able to feel the joy of holding baby Jesus in their arms. The shepherds and wise men believed the angels and the signs they experienced are the great gladness of worshipping their Messiah.

Sayings from Mother Teresa

"It is Christmas every time you let God love others through you."

"We desire to be able to welcome Jesus at Christmas-time, not in a cold manger of our heart, but in a heart full of love and humility, a heart so pure, so immaculate, so warm with love for one another."

"Christmas is a time to give, to receive, and to love. Let us give with our hearts, not just with our hands. Let us give with the love of Christ"

"My prayer for you is that when Christ comes to you in Christmas, He may find in you a warm home, warm love like that of a heartful of love, like that of a simple shepherd who was the first one chosen to see Christ."

2025 Advent Calendar

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
30 November Light the first violet candle on the Advent wreath, symbolizing Hope. Reflect on the source of your hope in Christ and what it means in your life.	1 December Be intentional. As soon as your alarm goes off, rise and kneel before a crucifix. Offer your day—and this entire season—to God with purpose and reverence.	2 Decide how you will draw closer to Christ this Advent—through intentional prayer, acts of penance, charitable giving, or participation in the Sacraments.	3 Read Luke 1:26–38, where Mary's "Yes" made way for the coming of Christ. Ask for the grace to respond with your own "Yes" to God's will in your life.	4 Set out your empty nativity scene as a sign of anticipation of the coming of the King. Gradually add the remaining figures throughout the Advent season.	5 Attend First Friday Mass, in honor of Jesus' Sacred Heart. "O Sacred Heart of Jesus, make my heart like yours." And He will.	6 St. Nicholas of Myra Call or visit your parish office and ask who needs help this Christmas. Then do something about it — quietly, as St. Nicholas did.
7 Light the second violet candle for Peace. Pray for the "peace which surpasses all understanding" (Philippians 4:7) for yourself and whoever needs it most.	8 Immaculate Conception God preserved Mary from sin so that she could be the mother of Jesus. Attend Mass and pray for our country. It is a holy day of obligation.	9 Make a small sacrifice today, offered solely to God. It is even more meaningful if it's done in secret, as encouraged in Matthew 6:18.	10 Prepare your heart and soul to welcome the King. Participate in the Sacrament of Reconciliation and encounter the mercy of God.	11 Advent is a busy season for parishes. Consider calling or emailing your parish office to ask how you can offer your time and support.	12 Our Lady of Guadalupe Mary's miraculous image reveals a profound mystery of Christmas (John 1:14). Take time today to pray for expectant mothers and the gift of new life.	13 "If you have two shirts in your closet, one belongs to you and the other to the man with no shirt" (St. Basil the Great). Donate gently used clothing you don't need.
14 Gaudete Sunday Light the rose candle for Joy to mark the halfway point to Christmas.	15 Offer the slow of patience when you're irritated, a smile when you're weary, and a kind word in place of judgment. You will touch hearts in ways you'll never fully realize.	16 Harboring unforgiveness burdens the heart and disrupts inner peace. Pray for the grace to let go, so you can move forward in freedom and healing.	17 Only nine days remain until Christmas. Place a lamp or candle in a window as a sign of welcome for the Christ Child.	18 Visit the Blessed Sacrament, where Jesus fulfills His promise to remain with us (Matthew 28:20). Take this time to renew your faith in His unwavering love.	19 Today, refrain from recreational screen use between 12:00 p.m. and 3:00 p.m. Offer this sacrifice for those who struggle with screen-related addictions.	20 Share the joy of the Gospel—gather a group of friends and go caroling to bring the Good News to others through song.
21 Light the final violet candle, symbolizing Love—awaiting the coming of Christ, the ultimate expression of the Father's love (John 3:16).	22 The King is coming—prepare to welcome Him. Take time to ready your home as a reflection of the joy and reverence in your heart.	23 Discern which Advent practices you feel called to carry beyond Christmas. Which ones deepened your relationship with God? Which ones strengthened your capacity for charity?	24 Rejoice! Tonight, place the Christ Child in the manger and rejoice!	"In those days a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be enrolled. This was the first enrollment, when Quirinius was governor of Syria. So all went to be enrolled, each to his own town. And Joseph too went up from Galilee from the town of Nazareth to Judea, to the city of David that is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David, to be enrolled with Mary, his betrothed, who was with child. While they were there, the time came for her to have her child, and she gave birth to her firstborn son. She wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn" (Luke 2:1-7).

2025 Catholic Ministries Appeal

Renewed by the Eucharist
Sent on Mission

The Eucharistic Revival has enkindled a missionary fire in the hearts of the American faithful. Going out on Mission - for the life of the World is the most important phase, where we go out and share the love of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist to transform the world.

Faith is alive in our parishes and schools, soup kitchens and housing programs, on street corners and in churches. It is lived through people of all backgrounds, from every neighborhood. People everywhere come together to support one another.

It is in this spirit that the Catholic Ministries Appeal exists: to bring support and build strong communities through faith and your generosity. Every year, the annual Catholic Appeal provides us an opportunity to realize the difference we can make when we act together in God's love.

Please consider joining us again this year by making a gift to the 2025 Catholic Ministries Appeal.

100% of every dollar raised is restricted to fund the objectives, programs, and mission supported by the Catholic Ministries Appeal.
