FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

"Although you have not seen him you love him; even though you do not see him now yet believe in him…" These words from our second reading, In the First Letter of St. Peter, there similar words that Jesus will say to St. Thomas in today's gospel. While there is some debate as to the authorship of this letter, most scholars believe that it is proper to give the authorship to St. Peter directly. Some scholars do not believe Peter wrote the letter because it is written in perfect Greek; something they think Peter would not know. However, many feel that Peter had a secretary who did speak and wrote in perfect Greek. Therefore, Peter wrote the letter through his secretary. This letter is one of the Catholic Epistles, and it was written to the towns and provinces of Asia Minor (which is modern day Turkey) who were suffering major persecution. The letter is Catholic, because while it was directed to a certain locale, it was also written for the benefit of the whole Church, that Rome was beginning to attack. Peter is encouraging the Church not to forget all that they gained in Christ, how they received a new birth and have received an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading. Peter tells them not to lose their faith and to continue to believe in Jesus, even though we cannot see Him, for faith is stronger than anything others can throw at us.

This is what St. Thomas was lacking when he was told that the Risen Lord had appeared to the other Apostles on that first Easter night. I am sure he wanted to believe, but his sorrow and doubts prevented him from accepting what the others said. Thomas eventually believed when he saw the Risen Lord the following week, but Jesus calls him out for it, saying that Thomas only believed because he saw. He tells Thomas blest are those who believe without seeing. Our Lord is referring to those Peter is writing to, and to the people of the Church from its beginnings to now, to you and me. Remember that after Thomas sees the Risen Lord, he makes the most profound statement of faith found in the entire New Testament. He kneels before Jesus and proclaims, "My Lord and my God."

Even though we have not seen Him, we love Him and St. Peter is again directing these words to us when we have a lapse of faith like Thomas, or when we face trials and tribulations, or any challenging thing that life throws at us or the ones we love. Peter encourages us never to let us forget who it is we love above all things, and how much He loves us. This is important to remember especially on this day when we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday, and words found on the icon Jesus I trust in you. We can believe this because this is what was Jesus communicated when He appeared to St. Faustina.

Happy Easter
Fr. Mike

Sunday of Divine Mercy

The Focus My Lord and my God! The Book of Acts describes the communal life of the first believers. In his Letter, Peter praises God for the gift of new life through Christ's resurrection and commends his fellow believers for recognizing its value. Following his death and resurrection, Jesus appears to his disciples in a locked room and commissions them to go forth in his name. Thomas is absent for this appearance and does not believe until Jesus appears again and urges him to touch him and believe. Published by Franciscan Media

Divine Mercy Sunday

Holy Hour with Benediction

April 12, 2026 at 3 P.M.

Service Conducted by:
Rev. Jude Mensah

Will include the Chaplet
Veneration of the Image
Veneration of the First Class Relic of St. Faustina

Sacrament of Reconciliation begins at 2:30 p.m.

On April 12th we joyfully celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday, the Second Sunday of Easter.

On Divine Mercy Sunday great graces are available to us through our Risen Lord's victory over sin, death, and the evil one.

Jesus told St. Faustina that on the Feast of Mercy, "The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment" The Church has granted a plenary indulgence to this Feast.

ST. MICHAEL'S PRAYER

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do though, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

Please Note: St. Michael's Prayer is on the back cover of the missalette.

Dear Friends:

Thank you so much for your ongoing financial contributions and prayers for our many ministries supported by the Catholic Ministries Appeal. I am writing today to ask you to help us once again to serve the Long Island community by making a gift to the 2026 CMA.

As we approach the holiest season of Easter, we focus on Jesus' sacrifice and resurrection, preparing through reflection, prayer, fasting, and almsgiving to embrace the hope and new life signified by Christ's victory over death.

Easter represents hope, redemption, and eternal life, a reminder that darkness gives way to new beginnings, a core message for daily living, not just a single day. As Pope Leo reminds us, the Risen One is found in "small daily acts of compassion and love toward others."

One simple but beautiful way of living Jesus' command to love is by participating in the Catholic Ministries Appeal, which invites us to share in the Church's mission. Just last year, because of the funding received through the Appeal, ministries here on Long Island were able to: sustain Catholic Charities in its mandate to lift up the needy and the poor; help our young people to grow in their faith through education, campus ministry, and youth ministry; support those shackled by addiction at rehabilitation facilities like Talbot House; help pay tuition for our future priests and deacons; further the life-affirming work of the Office of Human Life, Family, and Bioethics, particularly in their commitment to the unborn.

Please join me in making a gift to this year's Catholic Ministries Appeal, so that we can continue to perform daily acts of compassion and love through our vital diocesan ministries.

My prayers and best wishes to you and your family for this Holy Season of Lent and Easter.

Sincerely in Christ,

+ John O. Barres
