FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

"Jesus said to his apostles: 'Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me…'"

Today Jesus continues where He left off last week on what it takes to be His disciple. Last week we were told that persecution was a part of a disciple's life and that we would face opposition. We were also told not to fear anyone who could harm the body, only those who could kill the soul. As we left off, in this space, that person could be anyone, even ourselves if we gave into fear or worldly ideas. In today's Gospel, Jesus expands the definition of those who could kill the faith within us to those who are close to us. Now please keep in mind that Jesus is not telling us to go out and hate our family members and close friends, or that we should cut them out of our lives. However, when we remember His original audience, we must remember that it was hard for them to follow Jesus. This was true if they were Jews or everyday citizens of the Roman Empire. In either case, they could be disowned by their family and in some cases turned over to the authorities. Faced with this, many decided not to become followers, or many new Christians would give up their faith, or to secretly follow Jesus. Jesus is telling them, not to let anybody, even immediate family to get in the way of genuinely loving and serving the Father through Him.

This of course is true for many people in our own time who are seeking to follow Jesus, but family and friends get in the way. Jesus is telling them the same thing. Sometimes, as mentioned above and last week, people might do the same to us, and we are not to let them get in our way. Saint Paul tells us in today's Letter to the Romans, that we have died with Christ and so should believe that we should live with Him. Why, because the Risen Lord can die no more and death has no power over Him or over us who died with Him in the waters of Baptism. Therefore, as Jesus tells us, whoever loses his life [his old life] for my sake, will find his true life. Jesus continues by telling us how we should proceed when we live our lives in Him. We are to go out like Prophets and Righteous People, spreading the Gospel in how we act and speak. We are to let people see Christ alive in us and know that whoever receives us as a prophet or righteous person will receive the one who sent us.

We will not be greeted like Elisha, who in the first reading had a room prepared for him by the couple who knew he was a prophet, but those who have the spark of faith in their hearts certainly will accept us. When this happens and it happens more than you may realize, then you will receive the prophet's and righteous person's reward. You will grow closer to Christ, and the Holy Spirit will empower you even more so!

God bless you always.
Fr. Mike

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday, June 28th, 2026

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Focus— Whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward. In the first reading, Elisha is cared for by a woman of influence; Elisha promises that God will give her a son in return for her generosity. In the Letter to the Romans, we are reminded that we are buried through baptism in Christ's death and that we shall also live with him. In the Gospel, Jesus calls us to take up our cross and follow him.

ST. MICHAEL'S PRAYER

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do though, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

Please Note: St. Michael's Prayer is on the back cover of the missalette.

Saints Peter and Paul are two of the most foundational figures in Christianity. As the "pillars" of the early Church, Peter served as the leader of the Twelve Apostles, while Paul became the greatest missionary to the Gentiles. Both were martyred in Rome under Emperor Nero. Together, they represent the unity and dual nature of the early Church: Peter grounding it in Jewish tradition, and Paul expanding it to the whole world. Saint Peter (The Rock) Jesus renamed him Peter (meaning "rock") and declared he would build his Church upon him. Peter became the vocal leader of the Apostles and the first Bishop of Antioch. His mission was to primarily preach to the Jewish communities. Patron saint of fishermen, net makers, and shipbuilders. Saint Paul (Apostle to the Gentiles). Originally named Saul, he was a Pharisee who severely persecuted early Christians. He had a dramatic conversion on the road to Damascus and became one of the most prolific theologians of the faith. He undertook vast missionary journeys across the Roman Empire, writing numerous Epistles (letters) that make up a large portion of the New Testament. He is the patron saint of missionaries, evangelists, and writers.

Hymnn Corner

JUNE HYMN

O God, Our Help in Ages Past

"O God, Our Help in Ages Past" was written in 1708 by Isaac Watts, one of the greatest English hymn writers. It is a paraphrase of Psalm 90, a psalm about God's eternal nature and humanity's frailty. Watts originally titled it "Psalm 90: Man Frail and God Eternal." In 1738, John Wesley changed the opening line from "Our God" to "O God," which is the version most churches sing today. The tune ST. ANNE, written by William Croft in 1708, became permanently associated with the hymn and is now one of the most recognizable hymn tunes in the English-speaking world. The hymn is especially used for Remembrance Day, funerals, and solemn national services. J.S. Bach's Fugue in E-flat Major (BWV 552) is nicknamed the "St. Anne Fugue" because its theme resembles the hymn tune. Psalm 90 speaks about God's Eternity,Human Mortality,Trust in God through generations

It's one of the most sung hymns in the English-speaking world — some scholars even call it "the greatest of all hymns."

Thanks to your support we are able to help dads in need!

Every day, people in our community are helped because of support from funds raised through the Catholic Ministries Appeal.

Today, consider a dad like Paul. Paul saw information about the Catholic Ministries Appeal at his local parish, and he knew he had to turn to the Church for help since he had nowhere else to go. Paul had been gainfully employed for more than 10 years when he began to fall ill. Soon his medical issues made it impossible for him to keep working and he was forced to go out on disability.

After paying the co-pays on his medications, his family's rent and utilities bills, Paul had very little left to purchase food and other necessities for his family.

It was hard for him to ask for help, but with nowhere else to turn, he did. Catholic Charities found him a specialist who assessed the family's needs and directed them to appropriate resources in their community. He went to his Parish Outreach, where his family received food that allowed them to make it through the month. Paul and his family received the help they so desperately needed.

Today, Paul is back to work and the family is doing well. "I am so thankful that I know there is somewhere I can turn, where there are people that care, people I can talk to, if I am ever in such a situation again," shared Paul.
