FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

"'You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church.'" These words from last week's Gospel tell us that Peter is indeed the one to be the chief of the Apostles, and the head of the Church after Our Lord ascended into Heaven. Jesus says at the end of the passage, do not tell anyone that He is the Christ. As we continue with Matthew's Gospel we read, "Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer greatly from the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised." Wait you just told the Apostles that you are the Messiah and that you will be killed. How can this be, this is what Peter is asking himself. Peter cannot bear to hear these words, and since he has been appointed Chief Apostle, he is going to use his new authority. And so, "… Peter took Jesus aside and began to rebuke him, 'God forbid, Lord! No such thing shall ever happen to you.'" Now who would blame Peter, again this is not supposed to happen to the savior of the world.

However, Peter at this point forgot one key thing. He is the disciple, Jesus is the master, and of course as we know He is God. So, Jesus in a strong voice answers Peter with, "'Get behind me, Satan. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do.'" Peter and the others just did not understand what Jesus said and they did not understand Him telling them that we all must take up our cross and follow Him. We must seek to lose our lives to this world to gain our lives in the next. So now we see Peter, who was standing above the others, still has his flaws. If you will recall, last week the Prophet Isaiah told us how God appointed Eliakim to be the Master of the Keys, because he would be like a loving father to the people. But as scholars report, in the time that followed, Eliakim falls out of favor because he too abused his power and favored his own household with the people's funds. His flaws also got in the way of his service to God. There is a difference here, Peter though he is rebuked, is not fired. Instead, he seeks to understand, and Our Lord gives him and the other Apostles the time they need. Jesus tells them that they must continue to listen to Him and try to understand.

We must not think as human beings do; we must try to think like God. And how do we do this since we are not God? We cannot cry out like Jeremiah does in the first reading, "You duped me, O Lord, and I let myself be duped." We cannot believe that God has forced us, with His call for us to follow Him and think like Him. God did not dupe Jeremiah, He did not dupe Peter and the others, and He does not dupe us. How then can we understand or even think like God? While it is true, we will never fully understand God, even when we see God face to face, it is also true that we know what God wants and how we are to live. How do we know? That is not so hard, all we have to do is see God working in the Old Testament and hear the word of God in the Gospel. For Jesus, the Word of God, is telling us directly how God thinks, as He tells us He and the Father are one.

Now we know we all have flaws, we all do things we know we should not do, and we know we do not always put our best foot forward. We are just like Peter, but just like Peter we cannot let our flaws get in the way of our serving God and making our way toward Heaven.

God Bless you Always
Fr. Mike

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday, August 30th, 2026

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Focus - Only by embracing the sacrifice of discipleship will we experience the fullness of joy and life. Jeremiah bemoans his prophetic call for the suffering his unpopular message has brought him, yet he says that remaining silent is unbearable for him. Paul urges the Romans to allow themselves to be transformed and to live in a way that is pleasing to God. After Jesus shares with his disciples his upcoming suffering and resurrection, he challenges any who would follow him that they must be willing to sacrifice their lives for his sake. by Franciscan Media

PRAYER FOR THE SICK

Dear Father,
God of all goodness,

Look with mercy on all who suffer any kind of infirmity, sickness or injury,
that they may be comforted.

Let your hand of healing and protection be upon them.

When they are fearful, ease their fear and anxieties.

When they are afraid, give them strength and courage.

When they feel alone, send them someone to listen and to care.

When they are confused, provide reassurance and direction.

When they are in pain, ease their suffering.

When they despair, give them hope.
May they experience your healing presence in the comfort of a caregiver's calm gaze and tender touch.

We ask this in your holy name.
Amen

CMA Prayer 2026

O loving God, as Faith-filled Catholics
We are called to walk the way of the Gospel.
We are called to walk towards you in faith
and walk towards our brothers and sisters in love.
We cannot do this without you.
We can only do this with the light of the Holy Spirit.

We pray that you can help us to recognize the face of Jesus in others.
Help us to understand that we have a duty to grow the Church in our community.
Help us to grow in the virtue of charity.

We pray, Lord, for all of those who benefit from the ministries of the Catholic Ministries Appeal.
We pray for all our neighbors that they continue to receive the support they need.
We pray for our seminarians and those in the Diaconate program,
That they receive all the teaching and preparation they need.
We pray that our gifts work according to Your plan and
That we spread Your love and hope to all we encounter.
Help us Lord to share the Gospel with others.

Amen.
