FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

How do you settle arguments with others? Do you try to settle them right away, or would you rather hold on to grudges, and allow the argument to simmer to a full boil? Jesus is telling us if we wish to be His follower, we must settle an argument as quickly as possible. Today's gospel gives us the correct way to settle an argument. First, "If your brother sins against you, go tell him his fault between you and him alone." In addition, "If he listens to you, you have won over your brother." If he does not listen, then move on to the Second step. Jesus tells us to, "…take one or two others along with you, so that every fact may be established on the testimony of two or three witnesses." If your brother refuses to listen then the Third step is to "tell the Church." Why must we solve arguments quickly? The answer is, the more we argue the more that stands in our way of working together to spread the Good News. Nothing should be more important than that!

Notice that the first step is to speak face to face with the person, which requires both parties to try to be open to reach a settlement. We are not to try to hold anything over the other party's head. Jesus is telling us not to go behind the other person's back. We are not to talk about the person with others in an attempt to destroy the other person's reputation or character. Even when we invoke the help of another, we are not to do it behind the back of the other party. These are indeed good rules to follow, but when is the last time you followed them, when you had a major disagreement with another. It is not easy to do but it is the best thing to do, especially the part of speaking to the person face to face. This usually can help to solve the argument faster. However, even Jesus knows sometimes we can be stubborn, some more than others. Nonetheless, we cannot remain in the same place or allow love to turn in to hate for this God certainly does not want. So again, how do we do it? It is simple we must be open to wanting to settle the problem and not insist on who is wrong or right. As I often tell engaged couples during Pre-Cana Sessions, when it comes to quarreling stick to what you are disagreeing about, do not use harsh words or language and try to listen to each other's point of view. Try to reach a compromise, or even agree to disagree, but never, never try to win! For if either one wins, you both lose!

Remember the words of the Prayer of Saint Francis, "Make me a channel of your peace, where there is hatred, let me bring your love….

God bless you always and may we always be instruments of His peace.

Fr. Mike

Hymn

September

Composer Jan Michael Joncas wrote the song after he and a friend, Doug Hall, returned from a meal to learn that Hall's father had died of a heart attack.

Father Joncas doesn't recall if he ever met Hall's father, but he remembers wanting somehow to console his friend.

"I knew this was a hard, hard experience in anybody's life, and I just wanted to create something that would be both prayerful and then comforting," Father Joncas told America in a Skype interview.

In the days preceding Hall's father's wake, Father Joncas returned to his parents' house in Minnesota and composed the song on his guitar, sketching out a melody line and accompanying chords. The now-famous hymn debuted at the wake.

"I just wanted to create something that would be both prayerful and then comforting," Father Joncas said.

"On Eagle's Wings" joined a group of compositions he held onto for several years before submitting them to the St. Louis Jesuits' publisher, North American Liturgy Resources, who then offered Father Joncas an album deal.

"I think they had already tagged 'On Eagle's Wings' as the song that was going to have the most legs," Father Joncas said.

"I think I've written deeper and better pieces, but this one, for whatever reason, touched people's hearts, and I'm not gonna yell about that, "Father Joncas said"

2026 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

"Together, as one people, as brothers and sisters, let us walk towards God and love one another."
- Pope Leo XIV

SHARING THE GOSPEL WITH OTHERS

Your donation to the Catholic Ministries Appeal supports vocations to the priesthood and diaconate in our Diocese. It ensures that those who are looking to serve their parish and diocese have the resources and guidance they need to discern their call to service to provide spiritual nourishment to the people of our diocese.

Deacon O'Brien brings God's message of love, mercy, and hope to others.

"As a Deacon, I hope to revitalize the faith of others. I go to nursing homes and the residents hear the Word of God and receive the Eucharist. At wake services, when people have lost a loved one, I hope to revitalize their faith so that people know that they can call on and rely on God to help them through the difficult times. In happy times such as a baptism or a wedding, God is there for them for the rest of their life."
