FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Let us pray; Father, all-powerful and ever-living God, today we rejoice in the holy men and women of every time and place. May their prayers bring us your forgiveness and love. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Amen. As the above prayer tells us, today we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints, which we celebrate each year on November 1st. Even when this day falls on a Sunday, it requires our full attention to its theme and to its readings. This day calls us to remember all of those who came before us. While we certainly remember all the saints who are known throughout the many centuries of the Church, today calls us to remember those who we do not know (or who are only known to us). The saints who we know are people recognized as being holy or close to God yet remember that all who have gone before us are also considered saints.

The English word Saint comes from the Latin Sanctus which means holy. They are the great number of witnesses who even with their faults strived to keep moving closer to Christ. They surrendered themselves to God's love. The saints are our heroes who remind us that the Church is holy and can never stop being holy even when its members and leaders seem to turn from God. The Church teaches that it does not make or create saints, rather She recognizes them. Proof of virtue is regarded and is examined in the process of beatification. Formal canonization is a lengthy process, taking many years or even centuries (there are some exceptions, i.e., Pope Saint John Paul II). There are four major steps to becoming an "Official Saint." The first is investigation of the person's life by professional investigators who send a report to the local Bishop, and if it passes the bishops, it is sent to the Congregation for the Causes of Saints in Rome. If the person is approved, he or she is given the title Venerable. Further investigation may lead to step three which is beatification with the person given the title Blessed. Next there must be proof of a least two important miracles obtained from God through the intercession of the Blessed person, and these miracles must be done posthumously. After the three steps are completed, the move is to the fourth step which is the Pope declares that the person is a Saint and that he or she is worthy of being venerated throughout the whole Church.

Saints do more than represent a good example to follow, they also help us on our earthly journey. They pray for us (intercede), they help us present ourselves before God as we ask for their help in response to a problem or seek forgiveness for our sins. Many saints are patron saints for a country, occupation, illness, or cause (like asking St. Anthony to help find our lost keys). Of course, the greatest of all Saints is Our Dear Blessed Mother. She has a special place in Heaven because of the role she played in our salvation. By her saying yes to God and agreeing to be the mother of the Savior of the World, she acquired a special relationship with her Divine Son, and with us. She, as His mother was given to us on the Cross and as our loving mother, cares and prays for us. As the Queen Mother of Heaven, she serves as the chief advisor to Jesus our King. What does she advise Him on? Well, that is easy, it is us; she intercedes for us before her Son, who pleads for us before God the Father.

Let us put all the Saints to work for us, especially in these challenging times.to have your loved ones remembered, at all the Masses on All Souls' Day and during the month of November, please fill out and drop in the collection or drop off at the rectory, an All-Souls Envelope found in your packet.

Happy Feast Day and May God Bless you always,

Fr. Mike

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday November 1, 2026
All Saints Sunday

The Focus- The Saints model Christian holiness and pray for us from heaven. In the reading from the Book of Revelation, John has a vision of heaven, filled with people from every nation and tribe worshiping God. In his First Letter, John writes that we are God's children now and by placing our hope in him are made pure as [God] is pure. Jesus teaches the beatitudes to his disciples in the Gospel.

ST. MICHAEL'S PRAYER

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do though, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

Please Note: St. Michael's Prayer is on the back cover of the missalette.

The Hymn Corner

EIN FESTE BURG ("A Mighty Fortress Is Our God") was written by Martin Luther and is inspired by Psalm 46, which proclaims God as our refuge and strength. Dating from the early 16th century, the hymn combines a powerful text of trust in God with a strong, memorable melody and has become one of the best-known hymns in the Christian musical tradition.

Over the centuries, EIN FESTE BURG has inspired many composers, most notably Johann Sebastian Bach, who incorporated the chorale into his Cantata No. 80, and Felix Mendelssohn, who used it in his Reformation Symphony. Its enduring message of faith, courage, and confidence in God continues to give the melody a meaningful place in sacred music.
