FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus silenced the Sadducees, they gathered, and one of them a scholar of the law, tested Jesus by asking, "'Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?' He said to him, 'You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it; You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments.'"

The Pharisees are up to their old tricks again, trying to trap Jesus in His speech and trying to use anything He says against Him. Yet, they cannot because He correctly quotes what every Jew and now Christians keeps in their hearts-the total love of God. Yes, Jesus answered correctly, and they could not use His answer against Him. But Jesus did not stop with just the First Commandment, He adds the additional thought, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." Now Our Lord is not the first person to say this, but the joining of these two commandments is fundamental to Christian thought. Jesus is telling us beyond the shadow of any doubt, to genuinely love God with our whole soul, heart, and mind means that we must love others too. As St. John tells us in his first letter, "If anyone says, 'I love God, but hates his brother he is a liar; for whoever does not love a brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen."

However, as we all know, this is hard to do. That is because we are living in a world that is suffering from the effects of Original Sin. Thanks to the Sin of Adam, we cannot always see people as they truly are, we tend to misjudge them, or not take a liking to them, and that causes us to hate them. Hate is not an option, Jesus tells us to love everyone, even the people we do not like (remember Jesus is not telling us to like them, at least not yet, but we must love them. Ok, how do I do this? By ourselves we can do nothing, but with God we can see past what we do not like and love them as God loves them. With God's help we can learn to see them as God sees them, and we will learn to wish them no harm, pray for them, and even extend them a hand when they are really in need. After all this is what God does for each of us every day and hour. This is what the Father has done for us when He sent His only Beloved Son to save us and restore to us that which was taken away by the Sin of Adam and Eve. Yes, this is indeed hard to do, but the rewards for carrying this out can be truly life changing. Remember the words from Les Misérables, "To love another person is to see the face of God."

God bless you.
Fr. Mike

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday October 25, 2026
30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Focus- Love for others flows from God's love. In the first reading, God gives the people of Israel specific instructions for how they are to treat others, especially those who are struggling. Paul tells the Thessalonians that their faith has become a model for other Christians. In the Gospel, Jesus shares that the greatest commandments are love of God and love of neighbor. A Faithful Estate Plan: An Act of Love for Your Family and Your Faith

MANUS CHRISTI SOCIETY

National Estate Planning Awareness Week: Protect Your Family, Protect Your Faith, Leave a Lasting Legacy

October 19–25 is National Estate Planning Awareness Week—a timely reminder of the importance of having a thoughtful and up-to-date estate plan. Estate planning is not only for the wealthy or those with complicated financial affairs. Every adult can benefit from having a plan that clearly expresses his or her wishes and provides guidance for loved ones. As Catholics, estate planning is about much more than distributing property. It is an opportunity to care for our families, express our faith, and practice faithful stewardship of the blessings God has entrusted to us.
