A Word From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

After three months separation from being able to gather together as a parish family to celebrate our faith and Mass, I was happily anticipating welcoming you back to Church for the celebrations of weekday and weekend Masses last week. But as you know, God often smiles or laughs at the plans we make! He chose to have Fr. Damian, Fr. John and Deacon Chris welcome you "home" in my absence. As you know, two different health issues necessitated my being hospitalized on two occasions - each condition somewhat connected but nevertheless separate and distinct. But thanks be to God for His goodness, your prayers and good wishes, the excellent care from the doctors, nurses, technicians etc. at St. Francis Hospital, and the capable assistance of Lorelei (aka Bullet), Ryan, Sal and Sandra at the rectory, I knew everything would be fine at the parish. I returned "home" this past Tuesday evening. I hope to be able to celebrate public Mass with you on the weekend of July 4-5. Maybe next weekend, I'll sneak in a visit to Church to say hello and thank you for your loving prayers, concern and good wishes.

May I take this opportunity to wish all fathers a very happy Father's Day asking God to bless you for all you do for your families. Together let us also pray for our fathers whom God has called home to heaven.

Blessings and prayers,

Fr. Bauhoff

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jeremiah 20:10-13 Romans 5:12-15 Matthew 10:26-33

FOCUS: We are the people commissioned by God to be the face and voice of Jesus. We ask God's forgiveness for the times we have neglected or avoided this charge. In the first reading, a prophet trusts God to make him strong in the face of his enemies. In the second reading, an apostle celebrates the Lord's victory over sin and death. In the Gospel, Jesus encourages his disciples to fear no one as they make Jesus' teaching public to all the world.
